

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This order empowers the charging of a penalty fare for persons using passenger transport services under the control of Docklands Light Railway Limited without a valid ticket for such use and the making of an agreement between Docklands Light Railway Limited and the British Railways Board for the making available of the services of the British Transport Police Force.