
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

1994 No. 670

HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Rail Regulations 1994

Made - - - - 9th March 1994

Laid before Parliament 10th March 1994

Coming into force 1st April 1994

THE CARRIAGE OF DANGEROUS
GOODS BY RAIL REGULATIONS 1994

1. Citation, commencement and interpretation
2. Application
3. Construction of freight containers, tank containers, tank wagons and wagons.
4. Testing, examination and maintenance of tank containers and tank wagons
5. Certification of testing, examination and maintenance of tank containers and tank wagons
6. Keeping of documents
7. Information relating to dangerous goods to be received by operators
8. Classification, packaging and labelling of dangerous goods
9. Prohibition against overfilling tank containers and tank wagons
10. Openings, valves and caps to be securely closed before commencement of journey
11. Segregation of dangerous goods
12. Safe carriage and security
13. Prevention of fire, explosion and leakage
14. Loading
15. Packages
16. Marshalling and formation of trains
17. Labelling and marking of freight containers, tank containers, tank wagons and wagons
18. Information, instruction and dining for train crews and other persons connected with the carriage of dangerous goods
19. Restrictions on the carriage of explosives
20. Emergency arrangements
21. Provisions relating exclusively to the safe carriage of radioactive material
22. Defence in criminal proceedings for contravening these Regulations
23. Exemption certificates

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Signature

THE SCHEDULE — PERMITTED MIXED LOADS OF EXPLOSIVES WITHIN DIFFERENT COMPATIBILITY GROUPS

Explanatory Note