
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

1995 No. 1053

The Personal and Occupational Pension Schemes
(Pensions Ombudsman) (Procedure) Rules 1995

Irregularities

17.—(1) Any irregularity resulting from failure to comply with any provisions of these Rules shall not of itself render the proceedings void.

(2) Clerical mistakes in any written statement of a determination (including any direction made under section 151(2) of the Pension Schemes Act) or errors arising in such a document from an accidental slip or omission, may be corrected by the Pensions Ombudsman by certificate under his hand.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Personal and Occupational Pension Schemes (Pensions Ombudsman) (Procedure) Rules 1995, Section 17.