Business interests incompatible with membership of a police force

10.—(1) If a member of a police force or a relative included in his family proposes to have, or has, a business interest within the meaning of this regulation, the member shall forthwith give written notice of that interest to the chief officer of police unless that business interest was disclosed at the time of his appointment as a member of the force.

(2) On receipt of a notice given under paragraph (1), the chief officer of police shall determine whether or not the interest in question is compatible with the member concerned remaining a member of the force and, within 28 days of the receipt of that notice, shall notify the member in writing of his decision.

(3) Within 10 days of being notified of the chief officer's decision as aforesaid, or within such longer period as the police authority may in all the circumstances allow, the member concerned may appeal to the police authority against that decision by sending written notice of his appeal to the police authority.

(4) Upon receipt of such notice, the police authority shall forthwith require the chief officer of police to submit to them, within the next following 10 days, a notice setting out the reasons for his decision and copies of any documents on which he relies in support of that decision; and the police authority shall send to the member concerned copies of such notice and documents and shall afford him a reasonable opportunity, being in no case less than 14 days, to comment thereon.

(5) Where a member of a police force has appealed to the police authority under paragraph (3) the police authority shall, within 28 days of receiving his comments on the notice and any other documents submitted by the chief officer of police under paragraph (4), or of the expiration of the period afforded for making comments if none have by then been received, give him written notice of their determination of the appeal but, where they have upheld the decision of the chief officer of police and, within 10 days of being so notified or within such longer period as the police authority may in all the circumstances allow, the member makes written request to the police authority for the reference of the matter to the Secretary of State, the matter shall be so referred and, unless and until the determination of the police authority is confirmed by the Secretary of State, it shall be of no effect and in particular, no action in pursuance thereof shall be taken under paragraph (6).

(6) Where a member of a police force, or a relative included in his family, has a business interest within the meaning of this regulation which the chief officer of police has determined, under paragraph (2), to be incompatible with his remaining a member of the force and either the member has not appealed against that decision under paragraph (3) or, subject to paragraph (5), on such appeal, the police authority has upheld that decision, then, the chief officer of police may, subject to the approval of the police authority, dispense with the services of that member; and before giving such approval, the police authority shall give the member concerned an opportunity to make representations and shall consider any representations so made.

(7) For the purposes of this regulation, a member of a police force or, as the case may be, a relative included in his family, shall have a business interest if—

(9) If a member of a police force or a relative included in his family has a business interest within the meaning of this regulation and, on that interest being notified or disclosed as mentioned in paragraph (1), the chief officer of police has, by written notice, required the member to furnish particulars of such changes in that interest, as respects its nature, extent or otherwise, as may be mentioned in the notice then, in the event of any such change in that interest being proposed or occurring, this regulation shall have effect as though the changed interest were a newly proposed, or newly acquired, interest which has not been notified or disclosed as aforesaid.

(10) In its application to a chief constable or assistant chief constable, this regulation shall have effect as if—

- (a) for any reference therein to the chief officer of police there were substituted a reference to the police authority;
- (b) for any reference in paragraph (3), (5) or (6) to an appeal there were substituted a reference to a request for reconsideration; and
- (c) the references in paragraph (6) to the approval of the police authority were omitted;

but a police authority shall not dispense with the services of a chief constable or assistant chief constable under this regulation without giving him an opportunity of making representations and shall consider any representations so made.

(11) In its application to a member of the metropolitan police force, this regulation shall have effect as if—

- (a) for any reference to the chief officer of police there were substituted a reference to an assistant commissioner of police of the metropolis; and

(b) a day off granted in lieu of a rostered rest day shall be treated as a rostered rest day.

(2) Each such roster shall be published at intervals not exceeding 12 months and not later than one month before the date on which it is to come into force.

- (d) where the time at which a member is required to begin a rostered tour of duty is brought forward without due notice so that he is required to begin that tour of duty on a day on which he has already completed his normal daily period of duty, the time for which he is on duty before the rostered commencement time—

1. For the purposes of regulation 57 and of this Schedule—

“authorised use” means the use, authorised under regulation 57, of a motor vehicle owned by the member of a police force concerned for the purposes of his duties as a member of that force or, where he has been statutorily transferred from one force to another force, as a member of either of those forces, and “period of authorised use” means the period during which such use is authorised;

“cylinder capacity” means the cylinder capacity of the engine of a vehicle calculated in accordance with regulations under paragraph 2(4) of Schedule 1 to the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994<sup>(37)</sup>;

“motor bicycle” means a mechanically propelled bicycle (including a motor scooter, a bicycle with an attachment for propelling it by mechanical power and a mechanically propelled bicycle used for drawing a sidecar);

“motor car” means a mechanically propelled vehicle other than a motor bicycle and, accordingly, includes a mechanically propelled tricycle;

“year” means a period of twelve months beginning on such date as may be determined by the police authority; and a reference to a motor vehicle owned by a member of a police force is a reference to such a vehicle kept and used by him.

2.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the amount of a motor vehicle allowance payable at the essential user’s rate shall in any year comprise a fixed element and a mileage element calculated as provided in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) The fixed element shall be calculated by reference to the number of completed months comprised in the period of authorised use for the year in question at such annual rate as is specified by the Secretary of State by reference to the cylinder capacity of the motor car in question.

(37) 1994 c. 22.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(3) The mileage element shall be calculated in relation to authorised use at such rate as is specified by the Secretary of State by reference to the cylinder capacity of the motor car in question, and for that purpose he may so specify—

- (a) a basic rate, in relation to authorised use not exceeding such mileage as is specified by him (“the basic mileage”), and
- (b) a reduced rate in relation to authorised use in excess of the basic mileage.

(4) Where in any year a motor vehicle allowance is payable at the essential user’s rate it shall be payable in such instalments, in advance or in arrears, as the police authority may determine; but when the amount of the allowance for that year is finally calculated, any over-payment shall be recoverable.

(5) Where in any year a motor allowance is payable at the essential user’s rate to a member of a police force and the member is on sick leave, or maternity leave, or the motor car in question is out of order, for a continuous period of four or more weeks in that year the allowance shall be reduced by such amount as the police authority, with the approval of the Secretary of State, determines as being appropriate in all the circumstances.

(6) Where in any year a motor vehicle allowance is payable at the essential user’s rate but the period of authorised use is a fraction only of that year, sub-paragraph (3) shall have effect as if for the reference to the basic mileage there were substituted a reference to the corresponding fraction of that mileage; and for the purposes of this paragraph the monthly rate of the fixed element of such an allowance so payable shall be taken to be a twelfth of the annual rate.

3. The amount of a motor vehicle allowance payable at the casual user’s rate shall in any year be an amount calculated in relation to the mileage of authorised use in that year at such rate as is specified by the Secretary of State by reference to that mileage and the cylinder capacity of the motor car in question, except that where the amount of the allowance would be less if it were calculated at the essential user’s rate, it shall be of an amount calculated in accordance with paragraph 2.

4. The amount of a motor vehicle allowance payable to a member of a police force shall not exceed that which would be payable if the vehicle in question were of such a cylinder capacity, not being less than 1,000 c.c., as the chief officer of police, with the approval of the police authority, has determined appropriate for use for the purposes of the duties normally performed by the member concerned.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(2) The replacement allowance is, subject to paragraph 9, an allowance at the rate at which, if he had not been occupying the house or quarters, housing allowance, or as the case may be transitional rent allowance, would have been payable—

Re-joining member previously in receipt of housing payments

7.—(1) A re-joining member who immediately before the relevant absence began was in receipt—

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) it is to be assumed that a housing allowance or transitional rent allowance would not have fallen to be reduced by reason of the member's being married to or sharing accommodation with another member of a police force appointed after 31st August 1994.

(3) In circumstances in which any allowance or housing emoluments mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) would, if the revoked provisions had continued in force, have fallen to be increased otherwise than under regulation 49A of the 1987 Regulations (which provided for biennial adjustment of housing allowances), or in which any new housing emoluments would in that case have become payable, the replacement allowance in question is increased accordingly.

Continuance in force until 1st April 1995 of regulations 7 and 15 of the 1987 Regulations

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations (which extend to England and Wales) consolidate with amendments the Police Regulations 1987 as amended by the regulations specified in Part I of Schedule 12 to these Regulations (“the 1987 Regulations”). The amendments, other than drafting amendments, made by these Regulations are as follows.

Consequent on changes made by the Police and Magistrates' Courts Act 1994 (c. 29), regulation 7 (authorised establishment) of the 1987 Regulations has not been reproduced. Provisions about deputy chief constables have been omitted (subject to transitional provisions) because that rank is abolished by amendments made by the 1994 Act which come into force (by virtue of S.I. 1994/3262) on 1st April 1995. Paragraphs (4) to (6) of regulation 6 of these Regulations provide for the abolition of the rank of chief superintendent.

Regulation 30(3) (public holidays and rest days for inspectors and chief inspectors) provides for days in lieu where the exigencies of duty have precluded the allowance of a day's leave on public holidays and the granting of rest days.

The maximum amount authorised by regulation 52(8) (removal allowance) is increased from £1,290 to £1,315. By virtue of regulation 1 this amendment has effect from 1st April 1994. The amount authorised by paragraph 3(2) of Schedule 5 is increased from £1,344 to £1,365. By virtue of regulation 1 this amendment has effect from 1st July 1993. Retrospection is authorised by section 33(4) of the Police Act 1964.
