Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Value Added Tax Regulations 1995. (See end of Document for details)

- (1) Where in a subsequent interval applicable to a capital item, the extent to which it is used in making taxable supplies increases from the extent to which it was so used in the first interval applicable to it, the owner may deduct for that subsequent interval an amount calculated as follows—
 - (a) where the capital item falls within regulation 114(3)(a) or (b)— the total input tax on the capital item 5 ×the adjustment percentage;

(b) where the capital item falls within regulation 114(3)(c)—

the total input tax on the capital item $10 \times \text{the adjustment percentage.}$

- (2) Where in a subsequent interval applicable to a capital item, the extent to which it is used in making taxable supplies decreases from the extent to which it was so used in the first interval applicable to it, the owner shall pay to the Commissioners for that subsequent interval an amount calculated in the manner described in paragraph (1) above.
- (3) Where the whole of the owner's interest in a capital item is supplied by him, or the owner is deemed or, but for the fact that the VAT on the deemed supply (whether by virtue of its value or because it is zero-rated or exempt) would have been not more than £250, would have been deemed to supply a capital item pursuant to paragraph 8(1) of Schedule 4 to the Act during an interval other than the last interval applicable to the capital item, then if the supply (or deemed supply) of the capital item is—
 - (a) a taxable supply, the owner shall be treated as using the capital item for each of the remaining complete intervals applicable to it wholly in making taxable supplies, or
 - (b) an exempt supply, the owner shall be treated as not using the capital item for any of the remaining complete intervals applicable to it in making any taxable supplies, and the owner shall calculate for each of the remaining complete intervals applicable to it, in accordance with paragraph (1) or (2) above, as the case may require, such amount as he may deduct or such amount as he shall be liable to pay to the Commissioners, provided that the aggregate of the amounts that he may deduct in relation to a capital item pursuant to this paragraph shall not exceed the output tax chargeable by him on the supply of that capital item.

- (4) If a capital item is—
 - (a) irretrievably lost or stolen or is totally destroyed, or
- (b) is of a kind falling within regulation 114(3)(b) and the interest in question expires, during the period of adjustment applicable to it, no further adjustment shall be made in respect of any remaining complete intervals applicable to it.
 - (5) For the purposes of this regulation—

"the total input tax on the capital item" means, in relation to a capital item falling within—

- (a) regulation 113(a) or (b), the VAT charged on the supply to, or on the importation or acquisition by, the owner of the capital item, other than VAT charged on rent (if any),
- (b) regulation 113(c) or (d), the VAT charged on the supply which the owner is treated as making to himself under paragraph 1(5) or 6(1) of Schedule 10 to the Act, as the case may require,
- (c) regulation 113(e) or (f), the aggregate of the VAT charged on the supplies described in regulation 113(e) or (f), as the case may require, other than VAT charged on rent (if any),

and shall include, in relation to any capital item, any VAT treated as input tax under regulation 111 which relates to the capital item, other than such VAT charged on rent (if any);

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Value Added Tax Regulations 1995. (See end of Document for details)

and for the purposes of this paragraph references to the owner shall be construed as references to the person who incurred the total input tax on the capital item;

"the adjustment percentage" means the difference (if any) between the extent, expressed as a percentage, to which the capital item is used (or is regarded as being used) in making taxable supplies in the first interval applicable to it, and the extent to which it is so used or is treated under paragraph (3) above as being so used in the subsequent interval in question.

(6) A taxable person claiming any amount pursuant to paragraph (1) above, or liable to pay any amount pursuant to paragraph (2) above, shall include such amount in a return for the second prescribed accounting period next following the interval to which that amount relates, except where the Commissioners allow another return to be used for this purpose, provided that where an interval has come to an end under—

- (a) regulation 114(6)(b) because the owner of the capital item has ceased to be a member of a group under section 43 of the Act, any amount claimable from the Commissioners or payable to them (as the case may be) in respect of that interval shall be included in a return for that group for the second prescribed accounting period after the end of the tax year of the group in which the interval in question fell, or
- (b) regulation 114(7) because the owner has transferred part of his business as a going concern, and he remains a registered person after the transfer, any amount claimable from the Commissioners or payable to them (as the case may be) in respect of that interval shall be included in a return by him for the second prescribed accounting period after the end of his tax year in which the interval in question fell, except where the Commissioners allow another return to be used for this purpose.

(7) A taxable person claiming any amount or amounts, or liable to pay any amount or amounts, pursuant to paragraph (3) above, shall include such amount or amounts in a return for the second prescribed accounting period next following the interval in which the supply (or deemed supply) in question takes place except where the Commissioners allow another return to be used for this purpose.

 - (a) either—
 - (i) under the law governing the insolvency of the debtor can be set off, or
 - (ii) cannot be so set off but in respect of which payment can be lawfully demanded of the claimant by the person with whom the claimant proves in the insolvency of the debtor, and which is not so paid at the time the claimant makes his claim to the Commissioners, and
 - (b) the claimant made only one supply to the purchaser, the outstanding amount of the consideration in money for that supply shall be reduced by the amount which the claimant owed the debtor and any refund shall be calculated from such reduced outstanding amount of the consideration in money.

- (2) Save as the Commissioners may otherwise allow, where the claimant owed an amount to the debtor when the debtor became insolvent which—
 - (a) either—
 - (i) under the law governing the insolvency of the debtor can be set off, or
 - (ii) cannot be so set off but in respect of which payment can be lawfully demanded of the claimant by the person with whom the claimant proves in the insolvency of the debtor, and which is not so paid at the time the claimant makes his claim to the Commissioners, and
 - (b) the claimant made more than one supply to the purchaser and no part of the total amount of the consideration in money for those supplies was paid, the outstanding amount of the consideration in money for each supply upon which VAT was accounted for and paid shall be reduced to an amount obtained by dividing the consideration in money for such supply by the total amount of the consideration in money for all supplies (whether taxable or otherwise) and multiplying this by such total amount less the amount which the claimant owed the debtor, and any refund shall be calculated from such reduced outstanding amount of the consideration in money.

then, for the purpose of calculating any refund, the outstanding amount of the consideration in money for each supply upon which VAT was accounted for and paid shall be taken to be such part of the debt as is attributed to such supply in accordance with the rules set out in paragraph (3) below for attributing the debt to supplies (whether taxable or otherwise) referred to in that paragraph.

- (2) In this regulation "the debt" means the amount of the consideration in money for supplies made to the purchaser and owed by the debtor when he became insolvent less, save as the Commissioners may otherwise allow, any amount owed by the claimant to the debtor at the time he became insolvent which—
 - (a) under the law governing the insolvency of the debtor can be set off, or
 - (b) cannot be so set off but in respect of which payment can be lawfully demanded of the claimant by the person with whom the claimant proves in the insolvency of the debtor and which is not so paid at the time the claimant makes his claim to the Commissioners.
- (3) The debt shall be attributed to the supply which is most recent in time before the debtor became insolvent and, if not wholly attributed to that supply, thereafter to supplies in the reverse order to the date on which they were made, except that attribution shall not be made to any supply where the consideration in money for that supply was paid in full and the payment was allocated to that supply by the debtor at the time of payment, and where—
 - (a) the most recent supply and other supplies to which the whole of the debt could be attributed under this paragraph occur on one day, or
 - (b) the supplies to which the balance of the debt could be attributed under this paragraph occur on one day, attribution shall be made to those supplies by dividing the consideration in money for each such supply upon which VAT was accounted for and paid by the total amount of the consideration in money for those supplies (whether taxable or otherwise) and multiplying by the debt or the balance of it as the case may be.

(b) the amount for which he has proved in the insolvency for the purpose of obtaining a refund of VAT, exceeds—

The Value Added Tax (Flat-rate Scheme for Farmers) Regulations 1992 (S.I. 1992/3103)

In addition to minor and drafting amendments, made for greater clarity and for consistency, the Regulations make the following changes of substance.

Regulation 14(2) now requires that a VAT invoice provided to a person in another member State should contain the quantity of goods or extent of services, the rate of VAT and the amount payable, excluding VAT, expressed in sterling.

Regulation 16 now permits a retailer to issue single invoices showing supplies which are subject to different rates of VAT.

Regulation 43 is a new provision concerning goods removed from a warehousing regime. Regulation 43(2) allows registered persons who are approved to defer payment of excise duty on goods removed from an excise warehouse also to defer payment of any VAT which would otherwise be due when such goods are removed. Regulation 43(3) determines the latest time at which the VAT is payable, and distinguishes between hydrocarbon oils and other goods subject to excise duty according to the different arrangements which apply to them for the payment of excise duty. Regulation 43(4) applies the provisions of regulation 43(3) to goods which are relieved from payment of excise duty.

Regulation 58(2) now excludes from the cash accounting scheme lease purchases and supplies where full payment of the amount shown on the invoice is not due for more than 12 months from the date of issue of the invoice.

Regulation 86 (time of supply of water, gas, or any form of power, heat, refrigeration or ventilation) now covers supplies of petroleum gases and other gaseous hydrocarbons in a gaseous state.

Regulation 115(3) (adjustment of input tax on capital items) now requires the adjustment of input tax also when a capital item is disposed of, and its disposal is not deemed to be a supply in the course or furtherance of a business under paragraph 8(1) of Schedule 6 to the Act, because the VAT on the deemed supply (whether by virtue of its value or because it is zero-rated or exempt) would not be more than £250.

Regulation 136 includes a new paragraph in consequence of the accession to the European Union of Finland, providing that the Aland Islands shall be treated for the purposes of the Act as excluded from the territory of the Community.

Regulations 193 (deduction of bank charges), 196 and 197 (false, altered or incorrect claims) apply to third country traders new provisions parallel to those contained in regulations 180, 183 and 184 in relation to Community traders.

Schedule 1 contains revised forms 1 (application for registration), 2 (partnership particulars at registration), 3 (transfer of a going concern), 4 (VAT return) and 5 (final VAT return).
