

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

SCHEDULE 30

Package inspection requirements before any shipment

2. For each Type B package and for each packaging containing fissile material, it must be ensured that all the requirements specified in the approval certificates and the relevant provisions of these Regulations are to be satisfied.