“ear-marked scheme” means an occupational pension scheme [^{F1}under which all the benefits other than death benefits are money purchase benefits and all the benefits] are secured by one or more policies of insurance or annuity contracts and such policies or contracts are specifically allocated to the provision of benefits for individual members or any other person who has a right to benefits under the scheme;

[^{F2}“group of companies” has the meaning given by section 71 of the Finance Act 2005;]

[^{F3}“money purchase benefits” has the same meaning as in section 181(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993;]and

“scheme year” means—

- (a) a year specified for the purposes of the scheme in any document comprising the scheme or, if none, a period of 12 months commencing on 1st April or on such date as the trustees or managers select; or
- (b) such other period (if any) exceeding 6 months but not exceeding 18 months as is selected by the trustees or managers in connection with—
 - (i) the commencement or termination of the scheme, or
 - (ii) a variation of the date on which the year or period referred to in paragraph (a) is to commence.
- (3) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, a reference—
 - (a) to a numbered regulation is to the regulation bearing that number in these Regulations;
 - (b) in a regulation to a numbered paragraph is to the paragraph bearing that number in that regulation.

SCHEDULE

Regulation 3

CONTENTS OF ACCOUNTS AUDITED BY THE AUDITOR OF THE SCHEME

1. An account of the financial additions to, withdrawals from and changes in value of the fund of the scheme during the scheme year to which the accounts relate.

2.—(1) A statement, as at the end of the scheme year to which the accounts relate, of the assets at market value, or trustees' or managers' estimate thereof where market value is not readily ascertainable and liabilities of the scheme, other than liabilities to pay pensions and benefits after the end of that scheme year—

- (a) giving, in the case of any assets which are stated at an estimate of their market value, the reason why the valuation is an estimate;
- (b) showing the distribution of the investments and other assets of the ^{F14}[scheme] between each of the following categories (where none of the investments falls within a particular category, that fact is not required to be stated), namely—
 - (i) insurance policies;
 - (ii) public sector fixed interest investments and separately showing quoted securities and unquoted securities;
 - (iii) other fixed interest investments and separately showing quoted securities and unquoted securities;
 - (iv) index-linked securities and separately showing quoted securities and unquoted securities;
 - (v) equities (including convertible shares) and separately showing quoted equities and unquoted equities;
 - (vi) property (which in this paragraph means any right or interest in freehold or leasehold land or buildings);
 - (vii) unit trusts invested in property;
 - (viii) other unit trusts;
 - (ix) managed funds (other than unit trusts) invested in property;
 - (x) other managed funds (not being unit trusts);
 - (xi) loans (whether or not secured by mortgages);
 - (xii) cash deposits and cash in hand;
 - (xiii) investments and other assets not included in heads (i) to (xii) above; and
- (c) showing separately, in the case of investments in each category, investments in the United Kingdom and investments outside the United Kingdom, and in the case of investments mentioned in heads (vii) to (x) of sub-paragraph (b) investments where the company operating the unit trust or managed funds is, and investments where it is not, a company registered in the United Kingdom.

(2) Where the assets include insurance policies which are specifically allocated to the provision of benefits for, and which provide all the benefits payable under the scheme to, particular members or other persons in respect of particular members or both, those policies must be included in the statement and there must be a note of the existence of such policies but that entry need not include their market value or an estimate.

^{F15}(3) Where the assets—

- (a) are invested only for the purposes of securing additional money purchase benefits derived from voluntary contributions ^{F16}...; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2014.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Occupational Pension Schemes (Requirement to obtain Audited Accounts and a Statement from the Auditor) Regulations 1996 (“the Regulations”) make provision in respect of documents which the trustees or managers of an occupational pension scheme must obtain.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/2014.

Changes to legislation: The Occupational Pension Schemes (Requirement to obtain Audited Accounts and a Statement from the Auditor) Regulations 1996 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 14 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

The Regulations are made before the end of the period of six months beginning with the coming into force of the provisions of Part I of the Pensions Act 1995 by virtue of which they are made and therefore the requirement to consult does not apply.

Regulation 1 relates to citation, commencement and interpretation.

Regulation 2 requires trustees or managers to obtain accounts and the auditor's statement within a prescribed time. Trustees or managers who fail to obtain accounts or the auditor's statement without reasonable excuse are guilty of an offence and liable to a fine.

Regulation 3 and the Schedule makes provision in respect of the form and content of accounts.

Regulation 4 makes provision in respect of the auditor's statement.

An assessment of the compliance cost for employers of the measures arising from the Pensions Act 1995, including regulations, has been placed in the libraries of both Houses of Parliament. Copies can be obtained by post from the Department of Social Security, Private Pensions, 11th Floor, Adelphi, 1-11 John Adam Street, London WC2N 6HT.
