The Civil Procedure Rules 1998

PART 23

GENERAL RULES ABOUT APPLICATIONS FOR COURT ORDERS

What an application notice must include

23.6 An application notice must state—

- (a) what order the applicant is seeking; and
- (b) briefly, why the applicant is seeking the order.

(Part 22 requires an application notice to be verified by a statement of truth if the applicant wishes to rely on matters set out in his application notice as evidence)
