12. The Director General shall send a written notice to the licensee of the date, time and place fixed for the holding of the hearing; such notice shall be sent at least seven days before the date so fixed.

Power to require particulars

13. The Director General may at any time direct the licensee to furnish any particulars which appear to him to be requisite in connection with the hearing within such time as the Director General may allow, being not less than seven days.

Admission to a hearing

14.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, a hearing shall be held in public.

(2) The Director General may direct that the whole or any part of a hearing be held in private if he is satisfied that by reason of—

(3) Where the hearing is in private the Director General may admit such persons as he considers appropriate.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2) and (3) above, a member of the Council on Tribunals or of the Scottish Committee of that Council is entitled to be present in his capacity as such even though the hearing or part of the hearing is not in public.

Appearance at hearing

15. The licensee shall appear at the hearing and may be represented by any person whom it may appoint for the purpose.

Procedure at hearing

16.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in these Regulations, the Director General shall determine the procedure at the hearing.

(2) The licensee shall be entitled to give evidence, call witnesses and address the Director General both on the evidence and generally on the proposal to revoke its licence.

(3) The Director General may from time to time adjourn the hearing.

Revocation of licence

17. If the licensee has not made any written representations pursuant to paragraph 6(1)(c) of Schedule 3 and having been duly notified of the hearing pursuant to regulation 12 above does not comply with the requirement in regulation 15 above to appear at the hearing, the revocation of its licence shall take effect on the seventh day after the day fixed for the hearing specified in the notice referred to in regulation 12 above.

Reasons

18. The Director General shall, except where regulation 17 above applies, send to the licensee a written statement of reasons (in summary form) for his decision whether or not to revoke the licence.
