The Education (New Schools) (Wales) Regulations 1999

PART III

COMPOSITION OF TEMPORARY GOVERNING BODIES

Matters relating to the head teacher as governor

- 16. Notwithstanding provision to the contrary in the relevant paragraphs—
- (a) a head teacher may become a member of the temporary governing body by notifying the local education authority in writing at any time after his appointment as head teacher that he wishes to act as a temporary governor; and
 - (b) having done so a head teacher shall be treated as an ex officio member of the temporary governing body⁽¹⁾.

⁽¹⁾ Regulation 25 does not permit the head teacher to resign as a temporary governor.
