AMENDMENT OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY (RECOVERY OF BENEFITS) REGULATIONS 1997

For paragraph (3) of regulation 12 (transitional provisions) there shall be substituted the following paragraphs—

(a) Regulation 5 was amended by S.I. 1997/454.

“(3) Any appeal under section 98 of the 1992 Act made on or after 6th October 1997 which has not been determined before 29th November 1999 shall be referred to an appeal tribunal constituted in accordance with paragraph (3I) below.

(3A) Any appeal duly made before 6th October 1997 which has not been referred to a medical appeal tribunal or a social security appeal tribunal shall be referred to and determined by an appeal tribunal constituted in accordance with paragraph (3I) below.

(3B) Any appeal duly made before 6th October 1997 and referred to a medical appeal tribunal shall be determined by an appeal tribunal constituted in accordance with paragraph (3I) below which shall determine all issues.

(3C) Any appeal duly made before 6th October 1997 and referred to a social security appeal tribunal shall be determined by an appeal tribunal which shall consist of a legally qualified panel member and in making its determination, the appeal tribunal shall be bound by any decision of a medical appeal tribunal to which a question under section 98(5) of the 1992 Act was referred.

(3D) An appeal tribunal constituted in accordance with paragraph (3I) below shall completely rehear any appeal made under section 98 of the 1992 Act which stands adjourned immediately before 29th November 1999.

(3E) Where a Commissioner holds that the decision of a medical appeal tribunal or a social security appeal tribunal on an appeal made before 6th October 1997 was erroneous in law and refers the case to an appeal tribunal, that appeal tribunal shall be constituted in accordance with paragraph (3I) below and shall determine all issues in accordance with the Commissioner’s direction.

(3F) Regulation 11 of the Social Security (Recoupment) Regulations 1990 (“the 1990 Regulations”) and regulation 12 of those Regulations shall have effect in relation to any appeal under section 98 of the 1992 Act made on or after 6th October 1997 with the modification that for the word “chairman” in each place in which it occurs there were substituted the words “legally qualified panel member”.

(3G) Regulation 13 of the 1990 Regulations shall have effect in relation to any appeal under section 98 of the 1992 Act made on or after 6th October 1997.

(3H) Any other transitional question arising from an appeal made under section 98 of the 1992 Act in consequence of the coming into force of the Social Security and Child Support (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations 1999 (“the 1999 Regulations”) shall be determined by a legally qualified panel member who may for this purpose give such directions consistent with these regulations as are necessary.

(3I) For the purposes of paragraphs (3) to (3B) and (3E) above an appeal tribunal shall be constituted under Chapter I of Part I of the Social Security Act 1998 as though the appeal were made under section 11(1)(b) of the 1997 Act.

(3J) In this regulation, “legally qualified panel member” has the meaning it bears in regulation 1(3) of the 1999 Regulations.”.

    - (ii) for the words “it is satisfied” there were substituted the words “he is satisfied”;
  - (d) regulation 11(3)(b), after the words “the office of the clerk to the tribunal which made the relevant decision” there were inserted the words “or to a clerk to an appeal tribunal”; and
  - (e) regulation 11(4)—
    - (i) for the words “the chairman of the tribunal” there were substituted the words “a legally qualified panel member”; and
    - (ii) for the words “a chairman” there were substituted the words “a legally qualified panel member”.

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) above shall not apply in any case where an application to set aside a decision of a medical appeal tribunal is made after 29th December 2000.

7.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, any decision of a medical appeal tribunal under section 12 of the Social Security (Recovery of Benefits) Act 1997 shall be treated as a decision of an appeal tribunal under that section.

(2) Where sub-paragraph (1) above applies, any application for leave to appeal which is made for the purposes of section 14(10)(a)(a) shall be—

- (a) made no later than three months after the date on which a copy of the statement of the reasons for the decision of the medical appeal tribunal was given or sent to the applicant; and
- (b) determined by a legally qualified panel member.

SCHEDULE 22

Article 4

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS IN RELATION TO RELEVANT BENEFITS

1. A decision which fell to be made before 29th November 1999, but which was not made before that date—

- (a) on a claim for; or
- (b) under or by virtue of Part II of the Administration Act in relation to, a relevant benefit (other than a decision which fell to be made on review or on appeal) shall be made by the Secretary of State under paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, paragraph (c) of section 8(1).

2.—(1) Any application duly made before 29th November 1999 under Part II of the Administration Act for a review of a decision in relation to a relevant benefit which was not decided before that date shall on and after that date be treated as an application to the Secretary of State—

- (a) where the application is not in respect of a decision given on appeal and is made—
  - (i) within three months of the date on which the applicant was notified of the decision, or within such longer period as may be allowed under sub-paragraph (2) below; and
  - (ii) other than on the ground of a relevant change of circumstances, for a revision of that decision under section 9; or
- (b) in any other case, for a decision under section 10 to supersede that decision.

(2) Subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) below, the period of three months specified in sub-paragraph (1)(a) above may be extended where an application for such an extension is made before 29th December 2000 by a claimant or a person acting on his behalf containing—

(a) Section 14(7) to (10) of the Social Security Act 1998 applies by virtue of section 13(3) of the Social Security (Recovery of Benefits) Act 1997 (c. 27) as amended by the Social Security Act 1998, section 86(1) and Schedule 7, paragraph 152(3).

- (a) the grounds on which an extension of time is sought; and
  - (b) sufficient details of the decision to enable it to be identified.
- (3) An application for an extension of time shall not be granted under sub-paragraph (2) above unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that—
- (a) it is reasonable to grant that application;
  - (b) the application for review has merit; and
  - (c) special circumstances are relevant to the application for an extension of time as a result of which it was not practicable for the application for review to be made within three months of the date of the adjudication officer's decision being notified to the claimant.
- (4) In deciding whether to grant an extension of time no account shall be taken of the following factors—
- (a) that the claimant or any person acting for him misunderstood or was unaware of the law applicable to his case (including misunderstanding or being unaware of the period specified in sub-paragraph (1)(a) above); or
  - (b) that a Commissioner or a court has taken a different view of the law from that previously understood and applied by the adjudication officer.
- (5) Where, by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(b) above—
- (a) a decision is made under section 10 which is advantageous to the applicant; and
  - (b) the same decision could have been made on a review prior to 29th November 1999,
- that decision shall take effect from the date on which it would have taken effect had the decision been so made.

3.—(1) A decision (other than a decision of a social security appeal tribunal or a Commissioner) made before 29th November 1999—

- (a) on a claim for; or
  - (b) under or by virtue of Part II of the Administration Act in relation to,
- a relevant benefit shall be treated as a decision of the Secretary of State under paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, paragraph (c) of section 8(1).

(2) Where, before 29th November 1999, any person was required to give notice to the claimant of a decision referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above, and such notice was not given before that date, the Secretary of State shall give notice to the claimant of that decision.

4.—(1) This paragraph applies where the time limit for making an appeal to a social security appeal tribunal in respect of a decision in relation to a relevant benefit made before 29th November 1999 has not expired before that date.

(2) Where sub-paragraph (1) above applies, regulation 3 of the Adjudication Regulations as it relates to the period within which an appeal may be made, or an extension of that period, shall, notwithstanding regulation 59 of the Regulations, continue to have effect, subject to the modifications in sub-paragraph (3) below, with respect to any appeal to an appeal tribunal made on or after 29th November 1999 in relation to that decision.

(3) The modifications referred to in sub-paragraph (2) above are as if—

- (a) references to a tribunal, a chairman or a person considering the application were references to a legally qualified panel member; and
- (b) in paragraph (3E)(a), for the words from “6 years” to the end of the paragraph there were substituted the words “29th December 2000”.

(4) Notwithstanding regulation 3 of the Regulations, the Secretary of State may revise under section 9 a decision made before 29th November 1999 on a claim for or award of a relevant benefit (other than a decision made on appeal)—

- (a) pursuant to an application for a review of a decision made within three months of the notification of that decision; or
- (b) where an appeal has been duly made against that decision but not determined.

(5) Where a decision is revised pursuant to sub-paragraph (4) above the appeal shall lapse unless the decision as revised is not more advantageous to the appellant than the decision before it was revised.

5. An appeal to a social security appeal tribunal in relation to a relevant benefit which was duly made before 29th November 1999 and which was not determined before that date shall, without prejudice to Chapter III of Part V of the Regulations, be treated as an appeal duly made to an appeal tribunal in relation to a decision of the Secretary of State under section 8.

(a) Paragraph (3E) was inserted by S.I. 1996/182.

6.—(1) This paragraph applies where a clerk to a social security appeal tribunal has before 29th November 1999 given a direction under regulation 22(1) of the Adjudication Regulations in connection with an appeal in relation to a relevant benefit to that tribunal, and the notification mentioned in paragraph (1A)(a) of that regulation 22 has not been received by the clerk before that date.

(2) A notification in response to such a direction given under that regulation 22(1) shall be—

- (a) in writing; and
- (b) made within 14 days of receipt of the direction or within such other period as the clerk to an appeal tribunal may direct.

(3) An appeal may be struck out by the clerk to an appeal tribunal where the notification referred to in sub-paragraph (2) above is not received within the period specified in that sub-paragraph.

(4) An appeal which has been struck out in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) above shall be treated for the purpose of reinstatement as if it had been struck out under regulation 46 of the Regulations.

(5) An oral hearing of the appeal shall be held where—

- (a) a notification is received by the clerk to the appeal tribunal under sub-paragraph (2) above; or
- (b) the chairman of the appeal tribunal or, in the case of an appeal tribunal which has only one member, that member, is satisfied that such a hearing is necessary to enable the tribunal to reach a decision.

7. Where an appeal to a social security appeal tribunal in relation to a relevant benefit has been struck out under regulation 7 of the Adjudication Regulations, a legally qualified panel member may reinstate the appeal on an application by any party to the proceedings made not later than three months from the date of the order under paragraph (1) of that regulation if he is satisfied that—

- (a) the applicant did not receive a notice under paragraph (2) of that regulation; and
- (b) the conditions in paragraph (2A) of that regulation were not satisfied, and the appeal shall be treated as an appeal to an appeal tribunal in relation to a decision of the Secretary of State under section 8.

8. An appeal tribunal shall completely rehear any appeal to a social security appeal tribunal in relation to a relevant benefit which stands adjourned immediately before 29th November 1999.

9. A copy of a statement of—

- (a) the reasons for a decision of a social security appeal tribunal in relation to a relevant benefit; and
- (b) its findings on questions of fact material thereto, shall be supplied to each party to the proceedings before that tribunal, if requested by any such party within 21 days of the date on which notification of that decision was given or sent.

10.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) below, any decision of a social security appeal tribunal in relation to a relevant benefit shall be treated as a decision of an appeal tribunal made under section 12.

(2) Where sub-paragraph (1) above applies, any application for leave to appeal which is made for the purposes of section 14(10)(a) shall be—

- (a) made no later than three months after the date on which a copy of the statement of the reasons for the decision of the social security appeal tribunal was given or sent to the applicant; and
- (b) determined by a legally qualified panel member.

11.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) below, regulation 10 of the Adjudication Regulations and regulation 3 of those Regulations in so far as it relates to that regulation 10, shall, notwithstanding regulation 59 of the Regulations, continue to have effect, subject to the modifications specified in sub-paragraph (2) below, in relation to any application to set aside a decision of a social security appeal tribunal in relation to a relevant benefit.

(a) Paragraph (1A) of regulation 22 was inserted by S.I. 1996/2450.

(2) The modifications referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above are as if in regulation 3 for the reference to a chairman and in regulation 10(1) the first reference to the adjudicating authority which gave the decision and to an authority of like status, there were substituted references to a legally qualified panel member.

(3) Paragraph (1) above shall not apply in any case where an application to set aside a decision of a social security appeal tribunal is made after 29th December 2000.

12. Where, immediately before 29th November 1999, a payment of relevant benefit was suspended or withheld by virtue of any provision of Part V of the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987<sup>(a)</sup> (suspension and extinguishment), the provisions of Chapter I of Part III of the Regulations (suspension and termination) shall apply with respect to that suspension or withholding as if it were a suspension imposed by virtue of those provisions.

13. For the purpose of section 10(1)(b), a decision of a Commissioner made before 29th November 1999 in relation to a relevant benefit shall be treated as a decision of a Commissioner made under section 14.

Article 4

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS IN RELATION TO THE SOCIAL FUND

- 1. An application to—
  - (a) the social fund shall, from 29th November 1999, be determined by an appropriate officer;
  - (b) to a social fund officer for a review shall, from 29th November 1999, be treated as an application for a review by an appropriate officer.
- 2. A determination of a social fund officer shall be treated as a determination of an appropriate officer from 29th November 1999.
- 3. In this Schedule “appropriate officer” has the meaning it bears in section 36(1).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order provides for the coming into force on 29th November 1999 of further provisions of the Social Security Act 1998 (“the Act”) introducing new arrangements for decision-making in relation to income support, the social fund, child’s special allowance and the recovery of benefits from compensation.

The provisions brought into force by article 2 and Schedule 1 relate in particular to the transfer of decision-making functions from adjudication officers to the Secretary of State, from social fund officers to appropriate officers of the Secretary of State and from social security appeal tribunals and medical appeal tribunals to appeal tribunals constituted under Chapter I of Part I of the Act.

Article 3 and Schedules 2 to 20 make consequential amendments in other statutory instruments in so far as they are concerned with, or make reference to, existing arrangements for decision-making and appeals.

Article 4 and Schedules 21 to 23 make transitional provision, in particular as to the manner in which matters are to be dealt with on or after 29th November 1999 which are awaiting determination under the existing arrangements for decision-making and appeals immediately before that date.

NOTE AS TO EARLIER COMMENCEMENT ORDERS

(This note is not part of the Order)

The following provisions have been brought into force by the Social Security Act 1998 (Commencement No. 1) Order 1998 (S.I. 1998/2209), the Social Security Act 1998 (Commencement No. 2) Order 1998 (S.I. 1998/2780), the Social Security Act 1998 (Commencement No. 3) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/418), the Social Security Act 1998 (Commencement No. 4) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/526), the Social Security Act 1998 (Commencement No. 5) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/528), the Social Security Act 1998 (Commencement No. 6) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/1055), the Social Security Act 1998 (Commencement No. 7 and Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/1510), the Social Security Act 1998 (Commencement No. 8, and Savings and Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/1958), the Social Security Act 1998
