EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

The Regulations approved by this Order amend, with effect from 1st January 2000, the fees payable to the General Medical Council

- (a) by overseas qualified medical practitioners in respect of the scrutiny of applications for registration; and
- (b) by medical practitioners in respect of retention in, or restoration to, the register.

The existing fees were fixed in 1991 and the level of change ranges between—

- (a) a reduction of 60 per cent and an increase of 233 per cent in respect of the fees paid for the scrutiny of applications for registration; and
- (b) a reduction of 46 per cent and an increase of 69 per cent in respect of the fees paid for retention in, or restoration to, the register.
