(3) If the appropriate authority determine that a senior officer ought to be suspended under this regulation, they shall forthwith notify the Authority of their decision and of the suspension condition appearing to them to justify their decision.

(4) If, upon being so notified of the decision of the appropriate authority, the Authority are satisfied that the suspension condition in question is fulfilled, they shall as soon as practicable notify their approval of the suspension of the senior officer concerned to the appropriate authority; and the suspension of the officer shall not have effect unless the approval of the Authority is so given.

(5) Where the Authority give their approval to the suspension of a senior officer, his suspension shall take effect from the time he receives notice of that approval from the appropriate authority and he shall be suspended until—

(2) The provisions of paragraphs (3) and (4) shall have effect—

- (a) in relation to cases arising otherwise than from a complaint to which Chapter I of Part IV of the 1996 Act applies; and

(b) in cases arising from such a complaint when the requirements of that chapter are dispensed with by or under regulations made under section 81 of the 1996 Act.

(4) The investigating officer shall be—

- (a) a member of the police force concerned; or
- (b) if the chief officer of some other force is requested and agrees to provide an investigating officer, a member of that other force, shall be appointed as the investigating officer for the purposes of paragraph (3) or section 68(3) of the 1996 Act.

(6) The provisions of this regulation are without prejudice to the powers of the Authority with regard to the approval of the investigating officer under section 72(3)(a) or (b) of the 1996 Act in a case where the Authority are required, or have determined, to supervise the investigation of a complaint or other matter under that section.

- (a) that there is to be an investigation into the case;
- (b) of the nature of the report, complaint or allegation;
- (c) informing him that he is not obliged to say anything concerning the matter, but that he may, if he so desires, make a written or oral statement concerning the matter to the investigating officer or to the appropriate authority; and
- (d) informing him that if he makes such a statement it may be used in any subsequent proceedings under these Regulations.

Personal explanation following investigation

9.—(1) Where, following or, where paragraph (2) applies, during the investigation of a report, complaint or allegation, it appears that the conduct of a senior officer may not have met the appropriate standard, the appropriate authority shall consider whether proceedings under regulation 11 need be taken.

(2) This paragraph applies where, before the end of the investigation, it appears to the investigating officer that the case is one in respect of which the conditions specified in Part I of the Schedule to these Regulations are likely to be satisfied and informs the appropriate authority accordingly.

(3) Unless the appropriate authority decide that no such proceedings need be taken, the appropriate authority shall inform the senior officer in writing of the report, allegation or complaint and give him a written notice—

- (a) asking him whether or not he accepts that his conduct did not meet the appropriate standard;
 - (b) informing him that he is not obliged to say anything concerning the matter, but that he may, if he so desires, make a written or oral statement concerning the matter to the authority; and
 - (c) informing him that if he makes such a statement it may be used in any subsequent proceedings under these Regulations.
- (4) If the appropriate authority decide that no proceedings under regulation 11 need be taken, they shall so inform the senior officer in writing forthwith.
- (5) In a case where paragraph (2) applies, the appropriate authority shall—
- (a) determine whether the case is one in respect of which the conditions specified in Part I of the Schedule to these Regulations are satisfied; and
 - (b) if they determine that the case is one in respect of which those conditions are satisfied and unless they are of the opinion that the circumstances are such that it would be inappropriate to do so, certify the case as a special case; and where the appropriate authority certify the case under sub-paragraph (b), the notice given under paragraph (3) shall inform the senior officer concerned that it has been so certified.

Sanction without hearing

10.—(1) If the senior officer concerned accepts that his conduct did not meet the appropriate standard, the appropriate authority may impose a sanction under regulation 22 without the case being dealt with in accordance with regulations 11 to 21.

(2) Notwithstanding that the senior officer concerned accepts that his conduct did not meet the appropriate standard, the appropriate authority may, after considering the report of the investigation, deal with the matter according to the appropriate authority's discretion if they are satisfied that it does not justify the imposition of any sanction under these Regulations.

Notice of proceedings

- (a) accepts that his conduct did not meet the appropriate standard but the appropriate authority do not proceed as mentioned in regulation 10(1) or (2); or

(3) The reference in paragraph (2) to an independent solicitor is a reference to a solicitor who is not a member, officer or servant of the appropriate authority or of any local authority which appoints any member of the appropriate authority.

(4) Notwithstanding that a case is one to which this regulation applies by virtue of paragraph (1) (b), if, after considering the report of the investigation, the appropriate authority are satisfied that the conduct in question, even if found to have failed to meet the appropriate standard, would not justify the imposition of any sanction under these Regulations, the steps mentioned in paragraph (2) need not be taken and the matter may be dealt with according to the appropriate authority's discretion.

(5) Proceedings at or in connection with a hearing to which a case is referred under this regulation shall, for the purposes of section 65 of the 1996 Act (interpretation of Chapter I of Part IV) be disciplinary proceedings.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision, in pursuance of section 50 of the Police Act 1996, with respect to the conduct of members of police forces and the maintenance of discipline and establish procedures for cases in which a member of a police force may be dealt with by dismissal, requirement to resign or reprimand. These Regulations, by virtue of regulation 3, apply only to senior officers.

The Regulations revoke (with savings) the Police (Discipline) (Senior Officers) Regulations 1985 and provide new procedures for dealing with conduct by senior officers which fails to meet the standard set out in the Code of Conduct contained in Schedule 1 to the Police (Conduct) Regulations 1999 (S.I.1999/730).

Regulations 5 and 6 enable the appropriate authority (as defined in regulation 4) to suspend a senior officer in respect of whose conduct a report, complaint or allegation has indicated failure to meet the appropriate standard.

Regulations 7 to 10 provide for investigation of such a report, complaint or allegation and for the appropriate authority to deal with the case without a hearing if the senior officer accepts that his conduct did not meet the appropriate standard. Regulations 11 to 14 deal with the preliminary stages prior to a hearing and regulations 15 to 19 with procedure, evidence and attendance at the hearing. Regulation 20 requires the tribunal to make a finding as to the conduct of the officer and report to the appropriate authority with a recommendation as to sanction, if appropriate. Regulation 21 requires the appropriate authority to dismiss the case or record a finding as to the conduct and either impose a sanction or take no further action. Regulation 22 deals with the imposition of sanctions and regulations 23 and 24 deal with reporting to the Secretary of State and providing for the expenses of the hearing.

Regulation 25 and the Schedule provide for the Regulations to be modified in the case of special cases of serious conduct of a criminal nature.
