The Civil Aviation (Investigation of Air Accidents and Incidents) (Jersey) Order 2000

Inspectors of Air Accidents

8.—(1) For the purpose of carrying out investigations into accidents and incidents to which this Order applies, the Bailiff shall, subject to paragraph (2) below, appoint persons as Inspectors of Air Accidents for Jersey, one of whom shall be appointed by the Bailiff as Chief Inspector of Air Accidents for Jersey.

(2) The Chief Inspector and any Inspectors shall be appointed from the body of Inspectors of Air Accidents in the Air Accidents Investigation Branch of the Department of the Environment, Transport and the Regions of the United Kingdom.

(3) The Chief Inspector shall carry out, or cause an Inspector to carry out, an investigation into accidents and serious incidents which occur in or over Jersey.

(4) The Chief Inspector may, when he expects to draw air safety lessons from it, carry out, or cause an Inspector to carry out, an investigation into an incident, other than a serious incident, which occurs in or over Jersey.

(5) The Chief Inspector may delegate the task of carrying out an investigation into an accident or incident in accordance with paragraph 5.1 or 5.1.1 of the Annex to another Contracting State.

(6) Where the Chief Inspector delegates the task of carrying out an investigation pursuant to paragraph (5) above, he shall so far as he is able, facilitate inquiries by the investigator appointed by the relevant Contracting State.

(7) Without prejudice to the power of an Inspector to seek such advice or assistance as he may deem necessary in making an investigation, the Bailiff may at the request of the Chief Inspector appoint persons to assist an Inspector in a particular investigation and such persons shall for the purpose of so doing have such of the powers of an Inspector under this Order as may be specified in their appointment.

(8) The Chief Inspector may arrange for any of his powers and obligations under this Order to be performed on his behalf by an Inspector designated by him to be his deputy.

(9) In any case where the Chief Inspector causes more than one Inspector to carry out an investigation he shall nominate one of them to be in overall charge of the investigation.
