The Competition Commission Appeal Tribunal Rules 2000

PART VIII

APPEALS

Decision of the tribunal on request for permission to appeal

30.—(1) Where a request for permission to appeal is made orally the tribunal shall give its decision either orally or in writing, stating its reasons.

(2) Where a request for permission to appeal is made in writing, the tribunal shall decide whether to grant such permission on consideration of the party's request and, unless it considers that special circumstances render a hearing desirable, in the absence of the parties.

(3) The decision of the tribunal on a written request for permission to appeal together with the reasons for that decision shall be recorded in writing and the Registrar shall notify the parties of such decision.
