The Primary Care Trusts (Functions)
(England) Regulations 2000

Functions not to be exercisable by Primary Care Trusts

4.—(1) The delegable functions exercisable under or by virtue of the enactments specified in column (1) of Schedule 4 to these Regulations (the subject matter of the relevant functions being indicated in column (2) of that Schedule) are not to be exercisable by a Primary Care Trust.

(2) Delegable functions relating to general medical services, other than those functions specified in regulation 3(2), are not to be exercisable by a Primary Care Trust.

(3) Any function conferred on a Health Authority with respect to the giving of any directions is not to be exercisable by a Primary Care Trust.

(4) A Health Authority may not direct a Primary Care Trust to exercise any of the functions referred to in paragraphs (1) to (3).
