SCHEDULE

Article 3

ARRANGEMENTS NOT AMOUNTING TO A COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT SCHEME

Individual investment management arrangements

1. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if—
  - (a) the property to which the arrangements relate (other than cash awaiting investment) consists of investments of one or more of the following kinds:
    - (i) an investment of the kind specified by any of articles 76 to 80 of the Regulated Activities Order;
    - (ii) an investment of the kind specified by article 81 of that Order (units in a collective investment scheme) so far as relating to authorised unit trust schemes, [<sup>F8</sup>authorised contractual schemes,] recognised schemes or shares in an open-ended investment company; or
    - (iii) a contract of long term insurance;
  - (b) each participant is entitled to a part of that property and to withdraw that part at any time; and
  - (c) the arrangements do not have the characteristics mentioned in section 235(3)(a) of the Act and have those mentioned in section 235(3)(b) only because the parts of the property to which different participants are entitled are not bought and sold separately except where a person becomes or ceases to be a participant.

Enterprise initiative schemes

- 2.—(1) Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if—
  - (a) the property to which the arrangements relate (other than cash awaiting investment) consists of shares;
  - (b) the arrangements constitute a complying fund;
  - (c) each participant is entitled to a part of the property to which the arrangements relate and—
    - (i) to the extent that the property to which he is entitled comprises relevant shares of a class which are admitted to official listing in an EEA State or to dealings on a recognised investment exchange, he is entitled to withdraw it at any time after the end of the period of five years beginning with the date on which the shares in question were issued;
    - (ii) to the extent that the property to which he is entitled comprises other relevant shares, he is entitled to withdraw it at any time after the end of the period of seven years beginning with the date on which the shares in question were issued;
    - (iii) to the extent that the property to which he is entitled comprises shares other than relevant shares, he is entitled to withdraw it at any time after the end of the period

- of six months beginning with the date on which the shares in question ceased to be relevant shares; and
- (iv) to the extent that the property comprises cash which the operator has agreed (conditionally or unconditionally) to apply in subscribing for shares, he is entitled to withdraw it at any time; and
- (d) the arrangements would meet the conditions described in paragraph 1(c) were it not for the fact that the operator is entitled to exercise all or any of the rights conferred by shares included in the property to which the arrangements relate.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1)—
- (a) “shares” means investments of the kind specified by article 76 of the Regulated Activities Order (shares etc.) and shares are to be regarded as relevant shares if and so long as they are shares in respect of which neither—
- (i) a claim for relief made in accordance with section 306 of the 1988 Act has been disallowed; nor
- (ii) an assessment has been made pursuant to section 307 of the 1988 Act withdrawing or <sup>F9</sup>reducing relief by reason of the body corporate in which the shares are held having ceased to be a body corporate which is a qualifying company for the purposes of that Act;
- (b) “complying fund” means arrangements which provide that—
- (i) the operator will, so far as is practicable, make investments each of which, subject to each participant’s individual circumstances, qualify for relief by virtue of Chapter III of Part VII of the 1988 Act; and
- (ii) the minimum contribution to the arrangements which each participant must make is not less than £2000.

Debt issues

5.—(1) Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if they are arrangements under which the rights or interests of participants are, except as provided in sub-paragraph (2), represented by investments of one, and only one, of the following descriptions:

(a) investments of the kind specified by article 77 [<sup>F11</sup>or 77A] of the Regulated Activities Order [<sup>F12</sup>(debt instruments)] which are—

- (i) issued by a single body corporate other than an open-ended investment company; or
- (ii) issued by a single issuer who is not a body corporate and which are guaranteed by the government of the United Kingdom, the Scottish Administration, the Executive Committee of the Northern Ireland Assembly, the National Assembly for Wales or the government of any country or territory outside the United Kingdom; and which are not convertible into or exchangeable for investments of any other description;

(b) investments falling within sub-paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) (“the former investments”) which are convertible into or exchangeable for investments of the kind specified by article 76 of the Regulated Activities Order (“the latter investments”) provided that the latter investments are issued by the same person who issued the former investments or are issued by a single other issuer;

(c) investments of the kind specified by article 78 of the Regulated Activities Order (government and public securities) which are issued by a single issuer; or

(d) investments of the kind specified by article 79 of the Regulated Activities Order (instruments giving entitlement to investments) which are issued otherwise than by an open-ended investment company and which confer rights in respect of investments, issued by the same issuer, of the kind specified by article 76 of that Order or within any of paragraphs (a) to (c).

(2) Arrangements which would otherwise not amount to a collective investment scheme by virtue of the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) are not to be regarded as amounting to such a scheme by reason only that one or more of the participants (“the counterparty”) is a person—

(a) whose ordinary business involves him in carrying on activities of the kind specified by any of articles 14 (dealing in investments as principal), 21 (dealing

- (b) whose rights or interests in the arrangements are or include rights or interests under a swap arrangement.

(3) In sub-paragraph (2), “swap arrangement” means an arrangement the purpose of which is to facilitate the making of payments to participants whether in a particular amount or currency or at a particular time or rate of interest or all or any combination of those things, being an arrangement under which the counterparty—

- (a) is entitled to receive amounts, whether representing principal or interest, payable in respect of any property subject to the arrangements or sums determined by reference to such amounts; and
- (b) makes payments, whether or not of the same amount or in the same currency as the amounts or sums referred to in paragraph (a), which are calculated in accordance with an agreed formula by reference to those amounts or sums.

Common accounts

6. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if—
- (a) they are arrangements under which the rights or interests of participants are rights to or interests in money held in a common account; and
- (b) that money is held in the account on the understanding that an amount representing the contribution of each participant is to be applied—
- (i) in making payments to him;

- (ii) in satisfaction of sums owed by him; or
- (iii) in the acquisition of property for him or the provision of services to him.

6A.—(1) Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme in so far as they are arrangements of a kind described in one of sub-paragraphs (2) to (5).

(2) Arrangements operated by a person who carries on an activity of the kind specified by article 36H(1) of the Regulated Activities Order (operating an electronic system in relation to lending) where—

- (a) the operating of the arrangements amount to the carrying on of an activity of the kind specified by article 36H of the Regulated Activities Order,
- (b) the arrangements amount to the holding of money on behalf of a lender or borrower under a relevant article 36H agreement, or with a view to a lender entering in to such an agreement, or
- (c) the purpose of the arrangements is to compensate a lender when a borrower fails to pay any sum due to that lender under a relevant article 36H agreement.

(3) Arrangements forming a necessary part of the operation of arrangements of the kind specified in sub-paragraph (2)(a).

(4) Arrangements that—

- (a) are operated by a person who is—
  - (i) an authorised person with permission to carry on an activity of the kind specified by article 36H(1) of the Regulated Activities Order,
  - (ii) an appointed representative in relation to that activity,
  - (iii) an exempt person in relation to that activity, or
  - (iv) a person to whom, as a result of Part 20 of the Act, the general prohibition does not apply in relation to that activity, and
- (b) would consist of arrangements of the kind specified in sub-paragraphs (2) or (3) but for the fact that the arrangements do not concern facilitating an article 36H agreement, but concern facilitating persons becoming the lender and borrower under an agreement that is not an article 36H agreement only because it does not satisfy the conditions in article 36H(5) and (6) of the Regulated Activities Order.

(5) Arrangements with the purpose of winding up the operations of a person who operates or operated arrangements of the kind specified in sub-paragraphs (2) to (4).

(6) In this paragraph—

“article 36H agreement” has the meaning given in article 36H of the Regulated Activities Order;

“borrower” means

- (a) a person who receives credit under an article 36H agreement or a person to whom the rights and duties of a borrower under such an agreement have passed by assignment or operation of law, or

Certain employee share schemes

8.—(1) Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if they are operated by a person (“A”), a member of the same group as A or a relevant trustee for the purpose of enabling or facilitating—

- (a) transactions in shares in, or debentures issued by, A between, or for the benefit of, any of the persons mentioned in sub-paragraph (2); or
- (b) the holding of such shares or debentures by, or for the benefit of, any such persons.

(2) The persons referred to in sub-paragraph (1) are—

- (a) the bona fide employees or former employees of A or of another member of the same group; or
  - (b) the wives, husbands, widows, widowers, [<sup>F18</sup>civil partners, surviving civil partners,] or children or step-children under the age of eighteen of such employees or former employees.
- (3) For the purposes of this paragraph—
- (a) “shares” and “debentures” have the meaning given by article 71(6)(a) of the Regulated Activities Order:
  - (b) “relevant trustee” means a person who, in pursuance of the arrangements, holds shares in or debentures issued by A.

[<sup>F19</sup>Schemes entered into for commercial purposes wholly or mainly related to existing business

9.—(1) Arrangements first entered into before 15th July 2008 do not amount to a collective investment scheme if—

- (a) by virtue of paragraph 9 of the Schedule to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001 as it had effect immediately before 15th July 2008 they did not then do so provided that all participants are permitted participants; or
- (b) in the case of arrangements which amounted to a collective investment scheme immediately before 15th July 2008—
  - (i) all participants are permitted participants; and
  - (ii) at any time each person which is at that time a participant irrevocably agrees in writing that the arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme.

(2) Arrangements first entered into on or after 15th July 2008 do not amount to a collective investment scheme if all participants are permitted participants.

(3) The exclusion in sub-paragraph (2) shall not apply to arrangements falling within that sub-paragraph if each person which is at that time a permitted participant at any time irrevocably agrees in writing that that the arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme.

(4) If at any time a person which is not a permitted participant participates in arrangements then for as long as that person is a participant but not a permitted participant the exclusion in sub-paragraph (1) or, as the case may be, sub-paragraph (2) shall not apply to the arrangements.

(5) For the purposes of this paragraph—

“permitted participant” means a participant which—

- (a) at the time of entering into the arrangements carries on a business which is not a specified business (the “first business”) but which may be in addition to any specified business carried on by that participant at that time and—
  - (i) does not carry on that first business solely by virtue of being—

- (a) a participant in the arrangements; or
- (b) a member, partner or trust beneficiary of a body corporate, unincorporated association, partnership or trust which is itself a participant in the arrangements; and
- (ii) enters into the arrangements for commercial purposes wholly or mainly related to the first business; or
- (b) is a body corporate, unincorporated association partnership, or trustee of a trust (unless that trustee is an individual) which—
  - (i) does not carry on a specified business; and
  - (ii) only has as its members, partners or trust beneficiaries persons which themselves qualify, or would qualify if they participated in the arrangements, as participants of the kind mentioned in paragraph (a) of this paragraph; and

“specified business” means the business of engaging in any regulated activity of the kind specified by any of articles 14, 21, 25, 25D, [F<sup>20</sup>25DA,] 37, 40, 45, 51 to 53 or, so far as relevant to any of those articles, article 64 of the Regulated Activities Order.

(6) For the purposes of this paragraph, neither the entry into arrangements by any person as a further participant nor the exit from arrangements by any participant shall in itself constitute the creation of new arrangements.

(7) An agreement made in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (1)(b)(ii) or sub-paragraph (3) is not affected by the entry into arrangements by any person as a further participant nor the exit from arrangements by any participant.]
