7.—(1) Where a local authority are operating executive arrangements, sections 94 to 98 of the 1972 Act (restrictions on voting) shall apply as respects members of the authority’s executive, or of a committee of their executive, who are discharging functions of the local authority which are the responsibility of that executive or, as the case may be, that committee, as they apply in respect of members of local authorities, subject to the modification in paragraph (2).

(2) References to meetings of any such executive or, as the case may be, any such committee shall be substituted for references to meetings of the local authority.

(3) This article shall cease to have effect in relation to a local authority when paragraph 12 of Schedule 5 to the 2000 Act (minor and consequential amendments) comes into force in relation to that authority.

Standing orders with respect to local authority contracts

8.—(1) Before a local authority operate executive arrangements under Part II of the 2000 Act they shall make standing orders under section 135 of the 1972 Act (contracts of local authorities) with respect to the making of contracts on their behalf in the course of the discharge of functions which are the responsibility of the executive of that authority.

(2) The standing orders shall include provision for securing that any contract which—

- (a) is of or above a value specified in the standing orders by the authority; or
- (b) is of a description specified in the standing orders by the authority, must be in writing.

(3) The function of specifying a value or a description of contracts for the purposes of the provisions required by paragraph (2) shall be discharged by the authority themselves and section 101 of the 1972 Act (arrangements for the discharge of functions by local authorities) shall not apply to that function.

(4) The standing orders shall include provision for securing that any contract to which the provisions required by paragraph (2) apply must—

(a) be made under the authority’s seal and be attested by at least one officer of the authority who, in the case of an authority having a mayor and council manager executive, is not the council manager, whether or not the seal is also attested—

- (i) by any member of the authority; or
- (ii) in the case of an authority having a mayor and council manager executive, by the council manager; or

(b) be signed by at least two officers of the authority, whether or not the contract is also signed by any member of the authority.

(5) In relation to an authority which are operating executive arrangements on the date on which this Order comes into force, the requirement of paragraph (1) to make the standing orders before they operate executive arrangements shall be treated as a requirement to make the standing orders as soon as reasonably practicable after that date.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order modifies legislation and makes other provisions for the purposes of, in consequence of, or for giving full effect to provisions in Part II of the Local Government Act 2000 (“the 2000 Act”) (arrangements with respect to executives etc.). This Order applies only in relation to authorities which are county councils in England, district councils and London borough councils.

Article 3 modifies section 101 of the Local Government Act 1972 (“the 1972 Act”). Article 3(a) prevents local authorities from making arrangements for the discharge of functions by another local authority to the extent that the function in question is the responsibility of the executive of that other local authority. In such cases the function (to that extent) could become the responsibility of the executive of that local authority, but not of the local authority themselves.

The modifications in article 3 also provide that the arrangements for the discharge of a local authority’s functions, by either another local authority or a joint committee, existing at the time when any of the participating local authorities begin to operate executive arrangements, shall cease to the extent that the function in question becomes the responsibility of the executive of any of those authorities.

Article 4 modifies section 102 of the 1972 Act to enable local authorities to appoint area committees for the purpose of discharging functions delegated by the executive. The amendment will also enable local authorities to appoint advisory committees to advise the executive of the local authority and any committee or individual member of that executive.

Article 5 modifies section 8 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (“the 1989 Act”), enabling regulations made by the Secretary of State concerning local authorities’ standing orders with respect to staff to include special provision in relation to the appointment of a local authority mayor’s assistant.

Article 6 modifies section 13 of the 1989 Act to ensure that, where a local authority are operating a mayor and council manager executive, the council manager, or any other officer appointed in his place, may be a voting member of any joint committee (or sub-committee of such a committee) which exercises functions which are the responsibility of the executive and of which he is a member. This article also makes a consequential amendment to Schedule 1 to the 2000 Act.

Article 7 applies the provisions of sections 94 to 98 of the 1972 Act, in respect of pecuniary interests, to members of local authority executives and of committees of those executives. These sections include provisions for affected members to apply to the Secretary of State for a disability to be removed.

Article 8 introduces a requirement for local authorities who are or will be operating executive arrangements under Part II of the Local Government Act 2000 to make standing orders in respect of local authority contracts and specifies the provisions that are to be included in the standing orders, including the procedure to be followed in the making of such contracts.

This Order applies to England only.
