The Transfer of Functions (Miscellaneous) Order 2001

Made - - - - 31st October 2001
Laid before Parliament 5th November 2001
Coming into force - - 26th November 2001

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 31st day of October 2001

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in pursuance of sections 1 and 2 of the Ministers of the Crown Act 1975⁽¹⁾, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Citation and commencement

- 1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Transfer of Functions (Miscellaneous) Order 2001.
- (2) This Order shall come into force on 26th November 2001.

Interpretation

2. In this Order—
 - (a) “instrument”, without prejudice to the generality of that expression, includes in particular Royal Charters, Royal Warrants, Orders in Council, Letters Patent, judgments, decrees, orders, rules, regulations, schemes, bye-laws, awards, contracts and other agreements, memoranda and articles of association, certificates, deeds and other documents, and
 - (b) a reference to a function of the Secretary of State includes a reference to a function of the Secretary of State for the Home Department and to anything which is required or authorised to be done in or by the office of that Secretary of State (whether by reference to “the Home Office”, “the Home Department” or otherwise).

Transfer from Home Secretary to Lord Chancellor

3. The functions listed in Schedule 1 to this Order are hereby transferred to the Lord Chancellor.

Functions passing from Home Secretary to Lord Chancellor: supplemental

4.—(1) This article applies to a function which—

- (a) relates to a matter within paragraph (2),
- (b) was entrusted to the Secretary of State for the Home Department immediately before 7th June 2001, and
- (c) has been entrusted to the Lord Chancellor before the making of this Order or is transferred to him by article 3 and Schedule 1.

(2) The matters mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) are—

- (a) the Monarchy,
- (b) titles,
- (c) ceremonial matters,
- (d) the relationship between the administration of any of the Channel Islands or of the Isle of Man and the Crown or a Minister of the Crown,

- (k) buildings and structures in London.

(3) A transfer by this Order of a function to which this article applies shall not affect the validity of anything done by or in relation to the Secretary of State for the Home Department before the coming into force of this Order.

(4) So far as is necessary in consequence of the entrusting or transfer to the Lord Chancellor of a function to which this article applies, an enactment or instrument passed or made before this Order comes into force shall have effect as if—

- (a) a reference to the Secretary of State or the Secretary of State for the Home Department were a reference to the Lord Chancellor,
- (b) a reference to the Home Department (or the “Home Office”) were a reference to the Lord Chancellor’s Department, and
- (c) a reference to an officer of the Home Department (or the “Home Office”) were a reference to an officer of the Lord Chancellor’s Department.

(5) Anything done by or in relation to the Secretary of State for the Home Department in connection with a function to which this article applies shall, so far as necessary for continuing its effect after the coming into force of this Order, have effect as if done by or in relation to the Lord Chancellor.

(6) Anything which is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Secretary of State for the Home Department when this Order comes into force may, if it relates to a function to which this article applies, be continued by or in relation to the Lord Chancellor.

(2) 1998 c. 29.

(3) 2000 c. 36.

(7) Legal proceedings to which the Secretary of State for the Home Department is party at the coming into force of this Order in relation to a function to which this article applies may be continued by or against the Lord Chancellor.

(8) Any property right or liability to which the Secretary of State for the Home Department is entitled or subject immediately before the coming into force of this Order in connection with a function to which this article applies is hereby transferred to the Lord Chancellor.

Transfer from Home Secretary to Secretary of State for Transport, Local Government and the Regions

5.—(1) The function of the Secretary of State for the Home Department under article 3 of the Fire Service College Trading Fund Order 1992(4) (source of loans) is hereby transferred to the Secretary of State for Transport, Local Government and the Regions.
