SCHEDULE 12

PROTECTION OF RAILWAY INTERESTS

14. Before either Railtrack or the undertaker provide any new illumination or illuminated traffic sign at or in the vicinity of Fareham station, it shall consult the other and comply with any reasonable requirements of that other party made for the purpose of preventing confusion between such illumination or illuminated sign and any signal or other light used for controlling, directing or securing the safety of traffic on the railway or the authorised transit system as the case may be.
