2001 No. 3950

The Registered Designs (Amendment) Rules 2001

Amendment of the Registered Designs Rules 1995

5. For rule 14 there shall be substituted—

“Product to which design is intended to be applied or in which it is intended to be incorporated

14.—(1) Every application shall specify the product to which the design is intended to be applied or in which it is intended to be incorporated.

(2) If any question arises as to whether—

- (a) a design is intended to be applied to, or incorporated in, textile products, wallpaper or similar wall covering or lace; or
- (b) a product to which a design is intended to be applied or in which it is intended to be incorporated is made substantially of lace; or
- (c) a design intended to be applied to, or incorporated in, a textile product consists substantially of checks or stripes, it shall be decided by the registrar.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (1) of this rule shall be taken to limit the scope of protection conferred by registration of a design.”
