Pension increases

3. The annual rate of an official pension may, if a qualifying condition is satisfied or the pension is a derivative or substituted pension or a relevant injury pension, be increased by the pension authority in respect of any period on or after 9th April 2001 as follows—

- (1) a pension beginning before 10th April 2000 may be increased by 3.3 per cent of the basic rate as increased by the amount of any increase under section 1 of the 1971 Act or the existing Orders;
- (2) a pension beginning on or after 10th April 2000 and before 9th April 2001 may be increased by 3.3 per cent multiplied by

$$\frac{A}{B}$$

where

- (a) A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning date of the pension and 9th April 2001, and
- (b) B is 12.

Increases in certain lump sums

4. In respect of any lump sum or instalment of a lump sum which became payable before 9th April 2001 but on or after 10th April 2000 there may be paid an increase of 3.3 per cent of the amount of the lump sum or instalment (as increased by the amount under section 1 of the 1971 Act or under the existing Orders) multiplied by

$$\frac{A}{B}$$

where

- (a) A is the number of complete months in the period between the beginning date for the lump sum or, if later, 10th April 2000 and the date on which it became payable; and
- (b) B is 12.

5. The amount by reference to which any increase in the rate of an official pension provided for by this Order is to be calculated shall, in the case of a person—

- (b) whose entitlement to that guaranteed minimum pension arises from an employment from which (either directly or by virtue of the payment of a transfer credit) entitlement to the official pension also arises, be reduced by an amount equal to the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension unless the Treasury(a) otherwise direct, in accordance with the provisions of section 59A of the 1975 Act.

6. The amount by reference to which any increase in the rate of a widow's or widower's pension provided for by this Order is to be calculated shall, where the pensioner becomes entitled on the death of the deceased spouse to a guaranteed minimum pension, be reduced in accordance with section 59(5ZA) of the 1975 Act.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Under section 59 of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975 as amended, and as modified by section 59A of that Act, the Treasury (in whom the functions conferred by those provisions are now vested) are required to provide by order for the increase in the rates of public service pensions. Under section 59(7) of the 1975 Act, section 59 of that Act has effect as if it were contained in the Pensions (Increase) Act 1971. Section 9(2)(c) of the 1971 Act provides that references to the “rate” of pension shall have effect as references also to the amount of a lump sum benefit. The increase is the percentage (or in some circumstances a fraction of the percentage) by which the Secretary of State for Social Security has, by direction given under the provisions of section 151(1) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992, increased the sums referred to in section 150(1)(c) of that Act. These are the sums which are the additional pensions in long term benefits, namely the additional pension entitlements accruing to employees in respect of earnings after 5th April 1978.

For pensions which began before 10th April 2000 the increase is 3.3 per cent. For pensions which began on or after 10th April 2000 the increases are as follows—

Pensions Beginning	Percentage Increase	Pensions Beginning	Percentage Increase
10th April 2000 to 24th April 2000	3.30%	25th September 2000 to 24th October 2000	1.65%
25th April 2000 to 24th May 2000	3.03%	25th October 2000 to 24th November 2000	1.38%
25th May 2000 to 24th June 2000	2.75%	25th November 2000 to 24th December 2000	1.10%
25th June 2000 to 24th July 2000	2.48%	25th December 2000 to 24th January 2001	0.83%
25th July 2000 to 24th August 2000	2.20%	25th January 2001 to 24th February 2001	0.55%
25th August 2000 to 24th September 2000	1.93%	25th February 2001 to 24th March 2001	0.28%

Deferred lump sums beginning on or before 24th March 2001 and which become payable after 8th April 2001 receive the same percentage increase as pensions which began on the same date. Article 4 of the Order provides for increases on certain deferred lump sums which became payable on or after 10th April 2000 and before 9th April 2001.

The Order also makes provision for the amount by reference to which any increase in the rate of an official pension is to be calculated to be reduced by the amount equal to the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension entitlement deriving from the employment which gives rise to the official pension. This is required by section 59(5) of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975.

However by virtue of section 59A of that Act and the Transfer of Functions (Minister for the Civil Service and Treasury) Order 1981 the Treasury are empowered to direct that in respect of specified cases or classes of case either no such reduction be made or the reduction shall be less than the rate of the guaranteed minimum pension. Section 59(5ZA) was inserted into section 59 by section 5 of the Pensions (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1990. This applies section 59(5) to a widow's or widower's pension.
