The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000
(Consequential Amendments and Transitional Provisions) (Credit Unions) Order 2002

PART 4

RULES

Revocation and alteration

13. Nothing in this Part is to be taken as implying a contrary intention for the purposes of section 14 of the Interpretation Act 1978⁽¹⁾ in relation to continued provisions and, accordingly, such rules may, after commencement, be revoked or altered in accordance with the provision of the Act under which the continued provisions have effect as made.
