

SCHEDULE 1

Information to be included in applications for consent to release or market genetically modified higher plants

PART VI

Information relating to the release

(Applications for consent to release only)

33. The method for preparing and managing the release site, prior to, during and after the release, including cultivation practices and harvesting methods.