PUBLIC HEALTH, ENGLAND

The National Care Standards Commission (Director of Private and Voluntary Health Care) Regulations 2002

Made	- - - -	18th March 2002
Laid before Parliament		19th March 2002
Coming into force	- -	15th April 2002

The Secretary of State for Health, in exercise of powers conferred on him by paragraph 11(2) of Schedule 1 to the Care Standards Act 2000⁽¹⁾ and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations:—

Citation, commencement and extent

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the National Care Standards Commission (Director of Private and Voluntary Health Care) Regulations 2002 and shall come into force on 15th April 2002.

(2) These Regulations extend to England only.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“the Act” means the Care Standards Act 2000;

“health care provider” means a person carrying on a health care undertaking;

“the Health Care Regulations” means the Private and Voluntary Health Care (England) Regulations 2001⁽²⁾;

“health care services” means medical and psychiatric treatment, palliative care and listed services;

“health care undertaking” means an independent hospital, independent clinic or independent medical agency;

“listed services” has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Act.

(1) 2000 c. 14. The powers are exercisable by the appropriate Minister, who is defined in section 121(1), in relation to England, Scotland and Northern Ireland, as the Secretary of State, and in relation to Wales, as the National Assembly for Wales.
“Prescribed” and “regulations” are defined in section 121(1) of the Act.

(2) S.I.2001/3968.

Functions of the director of private and voluntary health care

3. The prescribed functions of the director of private and voluntary health care are—
- (a) subject to Part II of the Act, and to regulations made under the Act relating to the functions of the Commission in respect of registration and inspection⁽³⁾, to determine—
 - (i) the procedure to be followed by the Commission when considering an application for registration under section 12 of the Act in respect of a health care undertaking; and
