CONSUMER PROTECTION

The Enterprise Act 2002 (Part 8 Designated Enforcers:
Criteria for Designation, Designation of Public Bodies as Designated Enforcers and Transitional Provisions) Order 2003

Made	- - - -	28th May 2003
Laid before Parliament		29th May 2003
Coming into force	- -	20th June 2003

Whereas the Secretary of State thinks that each of the public bodies listed in the Schedule to this Order has as one of its functions the protection of the collective interests of consumers and she is satisfied that each of them is independent;

Now therefore the Secretary of State in exercise of her powers under sections 213 and 276 of the Enterprise Act 2002 ^{M1} hereby makes the following Order:

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Enterprise Act 2002 (Part 8 Designated Enforcers: Criteria for Designation, Designation of Public Bodies as Designated Enforcers and Transitional Provisions) Order 2003 and shall come into force on 20th June 2003.

2. In this Order:

“the Act” means the Enterprise Act 2002; and

“applicant” means a body or person which is not a public body seeking to be designated by the Secretary of State as a designated enforcer under section 213(2) of the Act.

Criteria for designation

3. The criteria that an applicant must satisfy in order that the Secretary of State may designate it as a designated enforcer under section 213(2) of the Act are as follows:

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Enterprise Act 2002 (Part 8 Designated Enforcers: Criteria for Designation, Designation of Public Bodies as Designated Enforcers and Transitional Provisions) Order 2003. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the applicant is so constituted, managed and controlled as to be expected to act independently, impartially and with complete integrity and has established procedures to ensure that any potential conflicts of interest are properly dealt with;
- (b) the applicant has demonstrated experience, competence and expertise in promoting or protecting the collective interests of consumers in respect of domestic infringements or [^{F1}Schedule 13 infringements], including, where the applicant is a successor to any person or body which had such expertise, by reference to that person or body;
- (c) the applicant has demonstrated the ability to protect the collective interests of consumers by promoting high standards of integrity and fair dealing in the conduct of business in relation to such consumers;
- (d) the applicant has the capability to investigate infringements and carry out the enforcement procedures set out in Part 8 of the Act in respect of the types of infringement for which it seeks designation;
- (e) the applicant is ready and willing to follow best practice in enforcement;
- (f) the applicant is ready and willing to co-operate with the [^{F2}CMA] and other general enforcers, designated enforcers ^{F3}... and any other person responsible for the regulation of matters in respect of which acts or omissions may constitute domestic or [^{F4}Schedule 13 infringements] including by:
 - (i) sharing information with such other enforcers and persons in so far as legally permitted; and
 - (ii) by participating in arrangements to co-ordinate action under Part 8 with other enforcers and persons acting or proposing to act in respect of the same person.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Article 3 of this Order sets out the criteria which a person or body (which is not a public body) must satisfy in order that the Secretary of State may designate it as a designated enforcer under

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Enterprise Act 2002 (Part 8 Designated Enforcers: Criteria for Designation, Designation of Public Bodies as Designated Enforcers and Transitional Provisions) Order 2003. (See end of Document for details)

Part 8 of the Enterprise Act 2002. The Order also designates the public bodies listed in the Schedule as designated enforcers for the purposes of all infringements. A designated enforcer may take action to obtain enforcement orders to restrain those Community and domestic infringements in respect of which the enforcer is designated.

The provisions in Part 8 of the Enterprise Act in respect of Community infringements implement the Injunctions Directive (Directive 98/27/EEC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 19th May 1998 on injunctions for the protection of consumers' interests) (OJ L 166, 11th June 1998, p.51). The Stop Now Orders (EC Directive) Regulations 2001 (S.I. 2001 No. 1422) ("SNORS") are accordingly revoked by the Enterprise Act.

The bodies listed in the Schedule were previously designated by SNORS as public UK qualified entities. Designation under this Order for the purpose of Part 8 supersedes designation under SNORS. Local weights and measures authorities in Great Britain and the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland (which were designated under SNORS) are now general enforcers under Part 8 of the Act (section 213).

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Enterprise Act 2002 (Part 8 Designated Enforcers: Criteria for Designation, Designation of Public Bodies as Designated Enforcers and Transitional Provisions) Order 2003.
