EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Child Minding and Day Care (Application for Registration) (England) Regulations 2001 (S.I.2001/1829). They clarify the information that must be provided about the persons responsible for the provision of day care by unincorporated associations, registered charities and registered companies. In addition, the Regulations remove the requirement to provide details of the facilities to be used for the provision of day care and the requirement that the applicant provide details of their general practitioner and of the general practitioner of any associate.
