EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes provision consequential on the Scottish Parliamentary Standards Commissioner Act 2002 \(asp 16\) (“the Act”). The Act makes provision for the appointment of an individual as the Scottish Parliamentary Standards Commissioner (“the Commissioner”). The Commissioner’s functions include investigating into and reporting to the Scottish Parliament on complaints that members of the Scottish Parliament have breached the standing orders of the Scottish Parliament, the Code of Conduct for members of the Scottish Parliament, or the provisions of the Scotland Act 1998 (Transitory and Transitional Provisions) (Members' Interests) Order 1999 (S.I.1999/1350).

Sections 13 and 14 of the Act confer, as part of the law of Scotland, power upon the Commissioner to call for witnesses and documents by giving notice. Section 20 contains interpretation provisions.

This Order extends the application of sections 13 and 14, and, in so far as relating to those sections, section 20 of the Act so that the Commissioner has the power to call for witnesses and documents in England and Wales and Northern Ireland.
