The Motor Vehicles (Compulsory Insurance) (Information Centre and Compensation Body) Regulations 2003

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Motor Vehicles (Compulsory Insurance) (Information Centre and Compensation Body) Regulations 2003 and shall come into force on 19th January 2003.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these Regulations—

F1

“EEA State” means a State which is a Contracting Party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area signed at Oporto on 2nd May 1992^{M1} and the Protocol adjusting the Agreement signed at Brussels on 17th March 1993;

“European insurance policy” means an insurance policy issued in an EEA State fulfilling the requirements of Article 3 of the first motor insurance directive where the territory in which the vehicle the use of which is insured is normally based is an EEA State^{F3}...;

“first motor insurance directive” means Council Directive 72/166/EEC of 24 April 1972 on the approximation of the laws of the Member States relating to insurance against civil liability in respect of the use of motor vehicles, and to the enforcement of the obligation to insure against such liability^{M2};

“fourth motor insurance directive” means the Directive of the European Parliament and the Council of 16 May 2000 on the approximation of the laws of the Member States relating to insurance against civil liability in respect of the use of motor vehicles and amending Council Directives 73/239/EEC and 88/357/EEC (No. 2000/26/EC)^{M3};

“foreign information centre” means a person or body established or approved as an information centre in an EEA State^{F3}... by virtue of Article 5(1) of the fourth motor insurance directive;

“information centre” means the body named in regulation 3(1);

“injured party” means a person resident in an EEA State claiming to be entitled to compensation in respect of any loss or injury resulting from an accident caused by or arising out of the use of a vehicle;

“registered keeper” in relation to a vehicle means the person who is registered as the keeper under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994^{M4} or, in the case of vehicles in the public service of the Crown which are not registered under that Act, the person who has charge of the vehicle;

“MIIC” means the Motor Insurers' Information Centre (a company limited by guarantee and incorporated under the Companies Act 1985 on 8th December 1998);

“open cover contract” means a UK insurance policy where the vehicles covered are not specifically identified in the contract or the covering note;

“specified information” means the information referred to in regulation 4;

“standard contract” means a UK insurance policy where every vehicle covered is specifically identified in the contract or the covering note;

“subscribing State” means a State other than an EEA State whose national insurer’s bureau as defined in Article 1(3) of the first motor insurance directive has joined the Green Card System;

“UK insurance policy” means a policy of insurance (including a covering note) covering the use of a vehicle on a road or other public place in the United Kingdom which—

- (a) fulfils the requirements of section 145 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 ^{M5}, or article 92 of the Road Traffic (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 ^{M6}, and
- (b) in the case of a policy of insurance complying with article 92 of the 1981 Order, is issued by an insurer within the meaning of article 12 of that Order;

“vehicle” means any motor vehicle intended for travel on land and propelled by mechanical power, but not running on rails, and any trailer, whether or not coupled.

(2) In these Regulations a reference (however phrased) to a place where a vehicle is normally based is a reference to—

- (a) the territory of the state of which the vehicle bears a registration plate, or
- (b) in cases where no registration is required for the type of vehicle but the vehicle bears an insurance plate or a distinguishing sign analogous to a registration plate, the territory of the state in which the insurance plate or the sign is issued, or
- (c) in cases where neither registration plate nor insurance plate nor distinguishing sign is required for the type of vehicle, the territory of the state in which the keeper of the vehicle is permanently resident.

The Information centre

The information centre for the United Kingdom and its duties

3.—^{F8}(1) MIIC is the information centre for the United Kingdom.]

(2) The information centre shall establish a means of access to the specified information in a manner whereby it can co-ordinate and disseminate that information for the purposes of these Regulations.

(3) The information centre shall retain access to the specified information for a period of not less than seven years commencing on—

- (a) in the case of the information specified in regulation 4(a), (c) and (d), the date on which the vehicle ceases to be registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994, and
- (b) in the case of the information specified in regulation 4(b), the day immediately following the date of expiry of the policy of insurance to which that information relates.

(4) Where the information necessary to enable the information centre to respond to a request from a person under regulation 9 does not form part of the specified information, the information centre shall obtain from the foreign information centre of the territory in which the vehicle is normally based such information as may from time to time be required so as to enable the information centre to comply with regulation 9.

(5) Where the information centre is satisfied that a valid request for the name and address of the registered keeper of a vehicle has been made to it pursuant to regulation 9 it shall immediately seek the information from the Secretary of State.

Maintenance and supply of information by insurers

5.—(1) Every insurer shall maintain a record of the information set out in Part 1 of the Schedule to these Regulations for the period specified in regulation 3(3).

(2) Where the information centre so requests an insurer shall supply to it immediately such of that information as may be specified in that request in respect of any UK insurance policy to which that insurer is or was a party.

(3) The information requested—

- (a) shall be supplied in the manner specified in the request, or
- (b) where no manner of supply is specified in the request, may be supplied in any manner except orally.

(4) An insurer shall not be obliged by virtue of this regulation to maintain a record or to supply information if he has used his best endeavours to obtain such information from his insured and the insured has failed or refused to supply the information to the insurer.

(5) Where the information centre so requests, an insurer shall immediately supply to it the name and address of every policyholder to whom it has issued an open cover contract in respect of such period as may be specified in that request.

Maintenance and supply of information by policyholders

6.—(1) Every policyholder who has entered into an open cover contract with an insurer shall maintain in respect of that contract a record of the information set out in Part 2 of the Schedule to these Regulations for the period specified in regulation 3(3).

(2) Where the information centre so requests, any such policyholder shall supply to it immediately so much of the information set out in Part 2 of the Schedule as may be specified in that request in respect of any open cover contract to which he is or was a party.

(3) Every policyholder who has entered into an open cover contract of the type specified in Part 1 of the Schedule with an insurer shall immediately supply to that insurer the information described in Part 1 of the Schedule.

(4) Where any detail of the information set out in Part 1 of the Schedule to these Regulations changes in respect of any open cover contract, the policyholder shall notify the insurer of the changed details immediately.

(5) Any information requested under this regulation—

- (a) shall be supplied in the manner specified in the request, or
- (b) where no manner of supply is specified in the request, may be supplied in any manner except orally.

Maintenance and supply of information by others

7.—^F14 Every person who takes advantage of an exception in section 144(2) of the Road Traffic Act 1988 or in paragraph (2)(a) or (aa) or paragraph (2A) Article 90 of the Road Traffic (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 to—

- (a) use a motor vehicle on a road or other public place without there being in force in relation to the use of the vehicle by that person a UK insurance policy; or
- (b) cause or permit any other person to use a motor vehicle on a road or other public place without there being in force in relation to the use of the vehicle by that person a UK insurance policy, shall maintain a record of the information set out in Part 3 of the Schedule for the period specified in regulation 3(3).]

(2) Every such person shall supply immediately to the information centre the information set out in Part 3 of the Schedule in respect of any vehicle for which that person is or was the user for more than 14 days.

(3) Where the information centre so requests, every such person shall supply to it immediately so much of the information set out in Part 3 of the Schedule as may be specified in that request in respect of any vehicle which that person is or was the user.

Information held by Secretary of State

8.—(1) The Secretary of State shall immediately notify the information centre in writing of any alteration in the information specified in regulation 4(d).

(2) Where the information centre so requests, the Secretary of State shall without delay supply in writing to the information centre the name and address of the registered keeper of any vehicle specified in that request which is normally based in the UK.

Supply of information by the information centre

9.—(1) This regulation applies where—

- (a) an accident, caused by or arising out of the use of a vehicle which is normally based in an EEA State, occurs in the United Kingdom;
- (b) an accident, caused by or arising out of the use of a vehicle, occurs on the territory of—
 - (i) an EEA State ^{F15} ..., or
 - (ii) a subscribing state,
 and that vehicle is normally based in the United Kingdom;

^{F16}(c)

(2) Where this regulation applies, an injured party may request the information centre to provide to him the information described in paragraph (4) in respect of every vehicle involved in the accident which is normally based in an EEA State.

(3) The information centre shall provide the information requested if the request is—

- (a) made in writing,
- (b) received by the information centre no later than seven years after the date of the accident, and
- (c) contains sufficient information to identify the vehicle in respect of which the information is being sought.

(4) The information which may be requested in respect of a vehicle is—

- (a) the name and address of any insurer who has issued a UK insurance policy or European insurance policy covering the use of that vehicle at the time the accident occurred;
- (b) the number of that policy; [^{F17}and]

^{F18}(c)

- (d) where the information centre is satisfied that the injured party has a legitimate interest in obtaining that information, the name and address of the registered keeper of the vehicle or, where the territory in which the vehicle is normally based is an EEA State ^{F19} ..., the person having custody of the vehicle.

(5) Where an injured party has requested information in respect of a vehicle which may lawfully be used on a road or other public place in the United Kingdom without there being in force a UK insurance policy, the information centre shall provide the injured party with the name and address of the person or body designated as responsible for compensating injured parties and referred to in regulation 4(d).

(6) The information centre shall provide information pursuant to this regulation in writing immediately after it receives the request.

(7) The information centre may charge a fee of not more than £10.00 for providing that information.
