EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which come into force on 1st May 2004, amend the Value Added Tax Regulations 1995 (S.I.1995/2518) (“the principal Regulations”).

These Regulations implement, in part, the requirements of the Act concerning the accession of the Czech Republic, the Republic of Estonia, the Republic of Cyprus, the Republic of Latvia, the Republic of Lithuania, the Republic of Hungary, the Republic of Malta, the Republic of Poland, the Republic of Slovenia and the Slovak Republic, signed at Athens on 16th April 2003(6) (“the Act of Accession”), so far as they relate to VAT.

Regulation 3 amends the definition of “alphabetical code” in regulation 2(1) of the principal Regulations to take account of the accession to the European Union of the Czech Republic, Estonia, Cyprus, Latvia, Lithuania, Hungary, Malta, Poland, Slovenia and the Slovak Republic (“the enlargement States”). The use of the alphabetical code is required by Article 22(1)(d) of Council Directive No 77/388/EEC(7) (“the Sixth Directive”).

Regulation 4 updates existing references in the principal Regulations to Council Regulation (EEC) No 2913/92(8) (the Community Customs Code) and Commission Regulation (EEC) No 2454/93(9) (which contains provisions implementing the Community Customs Code) (“the Implementing Regulations”) as a consequence of amendments made to those instruments by the Act of Accession. The Act of Accession amends the definition of “customs territory of the Community” in Article 3(1) of the Community Customs Code so as to include the territories of the enlargement States and makes certain minor consequential amendments to the Implementing Regulations(10). The Act of Accession also amends Article 3(2) of the Community Customs Code to provide that the United Kingdom Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia are to be considered part of the customs territory of the Community(11).

Regulation 5 amends regulation 138 of the principal Regulations. Regulation 138 implements Article 28p of the Sixth Directive(12), which introduced transitional arrangements for the taxation of goods from Austria, Finland and Sweden. The Act of Accession amends Article 28(p) by introducing transitional arrangements for the enlargement States(13). The effect of the amended regulation 138 is to treat certain goods as if they were imported into the United Kingdom. Subject to the exceptions in paragraph (4) of the regulation such goods are those supplied, in the course of a tax free export, in an enlargement State before the 1st May 2004 and which arrive in the United Kingdom on or after that date, or those goods which are removed on or after 1st May 2004 from specified customs arrangements or procedures under which they were placed before that date.

Regulation 6 amends regulation 139 of the principal Regulations. The effect of the amended regulation is to treat the United Kingdom Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia as included in the territory of the member States and the territory of the Community for the purposes of the Value Added Tax Act 1994 (c. 23). The Act of Accession amends Article 3(4) of the Sixth Directive so as to provide that the United Kingdom Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia are not to be treated for the purposes of the application of the Directive as third countries. Transactions originating in or intended for those Areas are to be treated as transactions originating in or intended for Cyprus⁽¹⁴⁾.
