

SCHEDULE

DEFENCES AND ENFORCEMENT

PART 2

PROVISIONS AS TO ENFORCEMENT

Obstruction of authorised offices and false statements

3.—(1) No person shall—

- (a) intentionally obstruct a duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority acting in pursuance of any provision of these Regulations;
- (b) intentionally fail to comply with any requirement properly made to him by such an officer under any provision of these Regulations; or
- (c) without reasonable cause fail to give any such officer of an enforcement authority who is so acting any other assistance or information which he may reasonably require of him for the purposes of the exercise of the officer's functions under any provision of these Regulations.

(2) No person shall, in giving any information which is required of him by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(c)—

- (a) make any statement which he knows is false in a material particular; or
- (b) recklessly make a statement which is false in a material particular.

Powers of search etc.

4.—(1) A duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority may, at all reasonable hours and on—

- (a) identifying himself and producing authority in writing from the enforcement authority which appointed him for the exercise by him of powers conferred on the authority by these Regulations; and
- (b) stating the purpose of his actions and his grounds for undertaking them, exercise any of the powers set out in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) The powers referred to in sub-paragraph (1) are—

- (a) he may, for the purpose of ascertaining whether an offence under these Regulations has been committed, inspect any relevant equipment and enter any premises other than premises used only as a dwelling;
- (b) if he has reasonable cause to suspect that an offence under these Regulations has been committed, he may, for the purpose of ascertaining whether it has been committed, require any person carrying on or employed in connection with a business to produce any records relating to the biofuel or blend in question and he may take copies of those records or any part of them;
- (c) if he has reasonable cause to suspect that an offence under these Regulations has been committed, he may seize and detain any sample of the biofuel or blend for the purpose of ascertaining whether the offence has been committed;
- (d) he may seize and detain records which he has reason to believe may be required as evidence in proceedings for an offence under these Regulations;

- (e) he may, for the purpose of exercising his powers of seizure under this sub-paragraph, but only if and to the extent that it is reasonably necessary in order to secure that the provisions of these Regulations are duly observed, require any person having authority to do so to break open any container and, if that person does not comply with the requirement or if there is no person present having authority to open it, he may do so himself.
  - (3) For the purposes of paragraphs (b) and (d) of sub-paragraph (2), the officer may require information stored electronically to be made available to him in printed form.
  - (4) If a justice of the peace is satisfied by any written information on oath—
    - (a) that there are reasonable grounds for believing either—
      - [<sup>F1</sup>(i) that any sample or records, which a duly authorised officer has power under this paragraph to seize or require to be produced, is or are on any premises and that its or their seizure or production is likely to disclose evidence of the commission of an offence under these Regulations; or]
      - (ii) that any offence under these Regulations has been, is being, or is about to be committed on any premises; and
    - (b) either—
      - (i) that admission to the premises has been or is likely to be refused and that notice of intention to apply for a warrant under this sub-paragraph has been given to the occupier; or
      - (ii) that an application for admission, or the giving of such a notice, would defeat the object of the entry or that the premises are unoccupied or that the occupier is temporarily absent and it might defeat the object of the entry to await his return,
- the justice may by warrant under his hand, which shall continue in force for a period of one month, authorise an officer of an enforcement authority to enter the premises, if need be by force.
- (5) An officer entering any premises by authority of a warrant granted under sub-paragraph (4) shall, if the occupier is present, give to the occupier or, if the occupier is temporarily absent, leave in a prominent place on the premises or appropriate part of the premises a notice in writing—
  - (a) summarising the officer's powers of seizure and detention of any sample or records under this paragraph;
  - (b) explaining that compensation may be payable for damage caused in entering premises and seizing and removing any sample or records therefrom, and giving the address to which an application for compensation should be directed; and
  - (c) indicating at which office of the enforcement authority and within which hours a copy of these Regulations is available to be consulted.
- (6) An officer entering any premises by virtue of this paragraph may take with him such other persons and such equipment as may appear to him necessary; and on leaving any premises which he has entered by virtue of a warrant he shall, if the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent, leave them as effectively secured against trespassers as he found them.
- (7) An officer exercising any power of seizure and detention under this paragraph shall as soon as practicable give to the person against whom the power has been exercised, a written notice—
  - (a) stating precisely what has been so seized and detained; and
  - (b) explaining where, within what period and on what grounds an appeal against such detention may be brought under paragraph 5 (Appeals against detention of a sample or records) and whether the things detained would be released while an appeal was pending.
- (8) A person who is not a duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority shall not purport to act as such under this paragraph.

(9) In the application of this paragraph to Scotland, the reference in sub-paragraph (4) to a justice of the peace shall include a reference to a sheriff and [<sup>F2</sup>the reference to any written information on oath shall be construed as a reference to any evidence on oath.]

(10) In the application of this paragraph to Northern Ireland, [<sup>F3</sup>the reference in sub-paragraph (4) to a justice of the peace shall include a reference to a lay magistrate and the reference to any written information on oath shall be construed as a reference to any complaint on oath.]

Appeals against detention of a sample or records

5.—(1) Any person having an interest in a sample or records which [<sup>F4</sup>is or] are for the time being detained under paragraph 4 (Powers of search etc.) by an enforcement authority or by a duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority may apply for an order requiring the sample <sup>F5</sup>... or records to be released to him or to another person.

(2) An application under this paragraph may be made—

- (a) to any magistrates' court in which proceedings have been brought in England and Wales or Northern Ireland for an offence in respect of a contravention of any provision of these Regulations in relation to the sample or records;
- (b) where no such proceedings have been so brought, by way of complaint to a magistrates' court; or
- (c) in Scotland, by summary application to the sheriff.

(3) A magistrates' court or the sheriff shall not make an order under sub-paragraph (1) unless the court or sheriff is satisfied—

- (a) that proceedings have not been brought for an offence in respect of a contravention of any provision of these Regulations <sup>F6</sup>... or having been brought, have been concluded; and
- (b) where no such proceedings have been brought, that more than six months have elapsed since the seizure was carried out.

(4) Any person aggrieved by an order made under this paragraph by a magistrates' court [<sup>F7</sup>or sheriff] or by a decision of such a court [<sup>F7</sup>or sheriff] not to make such an order, may appeal against that order or decision—

- (a) in England and Wales, to the Crown Court;
- (b) in Scotland, to the [<sup>F8</sup>sheriff principal]; or
- (c) in Northern Ireland to a county court.

(5) In England and Wales or in Northern Ireland, an order made under this paragraph may contain such provision as appears to the court to be appropriate for delaying the coming into force of the order pending the making and determination of any appeal (including any application under section 111 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 <sup>M1</sup> or article 146 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 <sup>M2</sup> (statement of case)).

Compensation for seizure and detention

6.—(1) Where a duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority exercises any power under paragraph 4 (Powers of search etc.) to seize and detain any sample or records, the enforcement authority shall be liable to pay compensation to any person having an interest in the sample or records in respect of any loss or damage caused by the exercise of the power if—

- (a) there has been no contravention of any provision of these Regulations; and
- (b) the exercise of the power is not attributable to any neglect or default by that person.

(2) Any disputed question as to the right to or the amount of any compensation payable under this paragraph shall be determined—

- (a) in England and Wales or Northern Ireland by arbitration; or
- (b) in Scotland by a single arbiter appointed by the parties, or in event of the parties failing to agree, by the sheriff.

Recovery of the expenses of enforcement

7.—(1) This paragraph shall apply where a court convicts a person of an offence in respect of a contravention of any provision of these Regulations.

(2) The court may (in addition to any other order it may make as to costs and expenses) order the person convicted to reimburse an enforcement authority for any expenditure which has been or may be incurred by that authority in connection with any seizure or detention by or on behalf of the authority.

Savings for certain privileges

8. Nothing in these Regulations shall be taken as requiring any person—

- (a) to produce any records if he would be entitled to refuse to produce those records in any proceedings in any court on the grounds that they are the subject of legal professional privilege, or, in Scotland, a claim to confidential communications, or as authorising any person to take possession of any records which are in the possession of a person who would be so entitled; or
- (b) to answer any question or give any information if to do so would incriminate that person or that person's spouse.

Savings for contracts

9. A contract for the supply of a biofuel or blend shall not be void or unenforceable by reason only of a contravention of any provision of these Regulations.

Service of documents etc.

10.—(1) Any document required or authorised by virtue of these Regulations to be served on a person may be so served—

- (a) by delivering it to him or leaving it at his proper address or by sending it by post to him at that address;
- (b) if the person is a body corporate, by serving it in accordance with paragraph (a) on the secretary or clerk of that body; or
- (c) if in England and Wales or Northern Ireland the person is a partnership, by serving it in accordance with paragraph (a) on a partner or on a person having control or management of the partnership business.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), and for the purposes of section 7 of the Interpretation Act 1978 <sup>M3</sup> (which relates to the service of documents by post) in its application to that sub-paragraph, the proper address of any person on whom a document is to be served by virtue of these Regulations shall be his last known address except that—

- (a) in the case of service on a body corporate or its secretary or clerk, it shall be the address of the registered or principal office of the body corporate;
- (b) in the case of service on a partnership in England and Wales or Northern Ireland or a partner or a person having the control or management of a partnership business, it shall be the principal office of the partnership.

(3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2) the principal office of a company registered outside the United Kingdom or of a partnership carrying on business outside the United Kingdom is its principal office within the United Kingdom.
