The Liberia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 2004

GENERAL

Customs powers to demand evidence of destination which goods reach

6. Any exporter or any shipper of restricted goods which have been exported from the United Kingdom shall, if so required by the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, furnish within such time as they may allow proof to their satisfaction that the goods have reached either —

- (a) a destination to which they are authorised to be exported by a licence granted under this Order; or
- (b) a destination to which their exportation was not prohibited by this Order, and, if he fails to do so, he shall be guilty of an offence under this Order, unless he proves that he did not consent to or connive at the goods reaching any destination other than such a destination as aforesaid.
