2004 No. 865

The General Medical Services and Personal Medical Services
Transitional and Consequential Provisions Order 2004

PART 2

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO GENERAL MEDICAL SERVICES

Removals from the list of patients who are violent

7.—(1) This article applies where, on or before 31st March 2004, a person had been removed from a relevant medical practitioner's list of patients with immediate effect pursuant to paragraph 9A of Schedule 2 to the 1992 Regulations<sup>(1)</sup> but—

- (a) confirmation in writing had not yet been given to the Primary Care Trust under paragraph 9A(2);
- (b) reasonable steps had not yet been taken by the relevant medical practitioner under paragraph 9A(4) to inform the person whose name had been removed; or
- (c) written notice of the removal had not yet been given to the person by the Primary Care Trust under regulation 19(6B) of the 1992 Regulations<sup>(2)</sup>.

(2) In a case to which paragraph (1)(a) applies written confirmation of the request for removal shall be given to the Primary Care Trust by the succeeding contractor within 7 days from the date on which notification was given under paragraph 9A(1).

(3) In a case to which paragraph (1)(b) applies, reasonable steps shall be taken by the succeeding contractor to inform the patient of the request for removal.

(4) In a case to which paragraph (1)(c) applies, the Primary Care Trust shall send written notice of the removal to the patient.
