2005 No. 1515

The Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005

Format of documents

11.—(1) A public sector body may make a document available to an applicant pursuant to regulation 8(4)(b) or 8(4)(c) in the format and language in which it exists on the date of response to the request for re-use.

(2) Where possible and appropriate, a public sector body shall make a document available for re-use by electronic means.

(3) Nothing in these Regulations shall oblige a public sector body to do any of the following—

- (a) create or adapt a document in order to comply with a request for re-use;
- (b) provide an extract from a document where to do so would involve disproportionate effort;
- (c) continue to produce a certain type of document for the purposes of re-use by another person.
