The Air Navigation Order 2005

PART 4

Aircraft Crew and Licensing

Miscellaneous licensing provisions

33.—(1) A person who, on the last occasion when he took a test for the purposes of article 28, 29, 30 or 31 failed that test shall not be entitled to fly in the capacity for which that test would have qualified him had he passed it.

(2) Nothing in this Order shall prohibit the holder of a pilot's licence from acting as pilot of an aircraft certificated for single pilot operation when, with the permission of the CAA, he is testing any person for the purposes of articles 27(1), 27(4), 28(2), 29(2) or 31, notwithstanding that—

- (a) the type of aircraft in which the test is conducted is not specified in an aircraft rating included in his licence; or
- (b) the licence or personal flying log book, as the case may be, does not include a valid certificate of test, experience or revalidation in respect of the type of aircraft.

(3) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Order the CAA may, for the purpose of this Part of this Order—

- (a) approve any course of training or instruction;
- (b) authorise a person to conduct such examinations or tests as it may specify; and
- (c) approve a person to provide any course of training or instruction.
