Section 4

Grounds of your appeal

In this section you must set out the grounds for your appeal and give the reasons in support of these grounds – that is, why you disagree with the decision. You must do this now because you may not be allowed to mention any further grounds at a later date.

- If your appeal relates in whole or in part to an asylum decision, complete all of boxes A to E that apply to you.
- If you are not sure which boxes apply to you or there are other points of the refusal letter that you disagree with, write your grounds in box F.
- If your appeal relates to a non-asylum decision, go to box G and complete it.

Please refer to the paragraphs of the refusal letter when possible.

You should include in this section any parts of your claim that you think have not been addressed in the refusal letter. You must say if you have raised these issues before.

| Section 5 | Statement of additional grounds |
|-----------|--|
| | If your notice of decision requires you to make a Statement of additional grounds, you should make the statement in this box. This section refers to any other reasons why you think: you should be allowed to stay in the United Kingdom, including any reasons relating to the European Convention on Human Rights you should not be removed or required to leave. Do not repeat here any grounds and reasons that you have already given in Section 4. You must give all these additional grounds and reasons now because you may not be able to make any other applications to appeal if this current application is refused. You should explain why you did not give these reasons before. |

Section 4

Grounds of your appeal

In this section you must set out the grounds for your appeal and give the reasons in support of these grounds – that is, why you disagree with the decision. You must do this now because you may not be allowed to mention any further grounds at a later date.

- If your appeal relates in whole or in part to an asylum decision, complete all of boxes A to E that apply to you.
- If you are not sure which boxes apply to you or there are other points of the refusal letter that you disagree with, write your grounds in box F.
- ☐ If your appeal relates to a non-asylum claim, go to box G and complete it.

Please refer to the paragraphs of the refusal letter when possible.

You should include in this section any parts of your claim that you think have not been addressed in the refusal letter. You must say if you have raised these issues before.

Give as much detail as possible: use additional sheets of paper if you need to.
