PART 4

SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

Service of summons, etc issued by a magistrates' court

4.1.—(1) Service of a summons issued by a justice of the peace on a person other than a corporation may be effected—

- (a) by delivering it to the person to whom it is directed;
- (b) by leaving it for him with some person at his last known or usual place of abode; or
- (c) by sending it by post in a letter addressed to him at his last known or usual place of abode.

(2) Service for the purposes of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(1) of a summons issued by a justice of the peace on a corporation may be effected by delivering it at, or sending it by post to, the registered office of the corporation, if that office is in the United Kingdom, or, if there is no registered office in the United Kingdom, any place in the United Kingdom where the corporation trades or conducts its business.

(3) Except where another rule contains provision to the contrary, paragraph (2) shall have effect in relation to a document (other than a summons) issued by a justice of the peace as it has effect in relation to a summons so issued, but with the substitution of references to England and Wales for the references to the United Kingdom.

(4) Any summons or other document served in manner authorised by the preceding provisions of this rule shall, for the purposes of any enactment other than the 1980 Act or these Rules requiring a summons or other document to be served in any particular manner, be deemed to have been as effectively served as if it had been served in that manner; and nothing in this rule shall render invalid the service of a summons or other document in that manner.

(5) Paragraph (1)(c) shall not authorise the service by post of a summons requiring the attendance of any person to give evidence or produce a document or thing.

(6) Where this rule or any other of these Rules provides that a summons or other document may be sent by post to a person's last known or usual place of abode that rule shall have effect as if it provided also for the summons or other document to be sent in the manner specified in the rule to an address given by that person for that purpose.
