2006 No. 1466

The Transport and Works (Applications and Objections Procedure) (England and Wales) Rules 2006

Transitional provisions

3.—(1) Where an application has been made under the 2000 Rules before the date of coming into force of these Rules and the Secretary of State has not, before that date, either made an order pursuant to that application or notified the applicant that he has decided not to make such an order, the 2000 Rules shall continue to have effect in relation to that application and these Rules shall not apply in relation to it.

(2) Where these Rules apply to an application but before the making of the application the applicant or the Secretary of State has carried out an action in pursuance of the 2000 Rules which could have been done under a corresponding provision in these Rules, that action will have effect as if it had been carried out under, or in relation to, the corresponding provision in these Rules.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Transport and Works (Applications and Objections Procedure) (England and Wales) Rules 2006, Section 3.
