- (5) Subsection (7A) was inserted by S.I.1996/1359. Other amendments have been made to section 34 which are not relevant to this Order.
- (6) Amendments have been made to Schedule 3 which are not relevant to this Order.

(2) Subject to paragraph (10), if a track betting licence to which this article applies (referred to below as “the previous track betting licence”) is still in force immediately before it is due to expire, the licensing authority which granted the licence are to be treated as having granted a new track betting licence in respect of the track to which the previous track betting licence related.

(3) A licence granted in accordance with paragraph (2) is to be treated as having been granted when the previous track betting licence expires to the person who held that licence immediately before it expired.

(4) A licence granted in accordance with paragraph (2) is referred to in this article as a “new track betting licence”.

(5) Paragraph 8 of Schedule 3 to the 1963 Act is to have effect in relation to a new track betting licence as if it provided for the licence to be in force until the end of 31st August 2007, unless cancelled under paragraph 10 or revoked under paragraph 13 of that Schedule.

(6) Where—

- (a) the holder of a new track betting licence makes a request in writing to the relevant licensing authority for a copy of the licence, and
- (b) that request is made in accordance with paragraph (7), the authority must comply with the request as soon as reasonably practicable.

(7) When making a request under paragraph (6), the holder of a new track betting licence must include the previous track betting licence or, if for any reason that is not reasonably practicable, he must include a written statement—

- (a) explaining why it is not reasonably practicable to provide that licence, and
- (b) indicating—
 - (i) the premises to which the licence related,
 - (ii) the date on which it was granted, and
 - (iii) the date on which it expired.

(8) Paragraph (9) applies where before the previous track betting licence expires—

- (a) the holder of that licence applies to the licensing authority which granted it for the grant of a further track betting licence in respect of the same track, or
- (b) he gives notice under paragraph 5 of Schedule 3 to the 1963 Act to the licensing authority that he intends to make such an application.

(9) Where this paragraph applies—

- (a) paragraph 12(1) of Schedule 3 to the 1963 Act (which provides for the payment of an application fee in respect of applications for track betting licences) is not to apply in relation to the application for the grant of a track betting licence;
- (b) the licensing authority may not determine the application until the previous track betting licence has expired, and they may only do so after the licence expires if a new track betting licence is not granted in accordance with paragraph (2);
- (c) where a new track betting licence is granted in accordance with paragraph (2), the notice or application referred to in paragraph (8) is to be treated on and after the date on which that licence is granted as if it were a request made under paragraph (6); and
- (d) the requirement to comply with that request is to apply irrespective of whether the notice or application is accompanied by the previous track betting licence or includes the information specified in paragraph (7).

(10) Paragraphs (2) to (9) are not to apply where before the date on which this Order comes into force—

- (a) the holder of the previous track betting licence applies under paragraph 3 of Schedule 3 to the 1963 Act for the grant of a track betting licence to have effect in respect of the same track, and
- (b) the licensing authority determine that application.

(11) In this article “track” and “track betting licence” have the meanings given to them by sections 55(1) and 6(1) of the 1963 Act(7) respectively, and “licensing authority” is to have the same the meaning as in Schedule 3 to that Act.

(3) Section 48(3)(b) and (4)(b) of, and paragraph 63 of Schedule 2 to, the 1968 Act(9) (which provide for the payment of a fee on renewal) are not to apply in relation to the renewal of a licence in accordance with paragraph (2).

(4) Where a licence is renewed under paragraph (2)—

- (a) it is to be subject to the same restrictions as had effect in relation to the licence before it was renewed, and paragraphs 24 to 26 of Schedule 2 to the 1968 Act are to have effect in relation to the licence as if modified accordingly; and
- (b) paragraph 52 of that Schedule is to have effect in relation to the licence as if it provided for it to be in force until the end of 31st August 2007 (unless cancelled before that date under any provision of that Schedule).

(8) Paragraph 52 of Schedule 2 has been amended by the Gaming (Amendment) Act 1982, section 1 and paragraph 11(1) of Schedule 1. Other amendments have been made to Schedule 2, including to paragraphs 12 and 63 of that Schedule, which are not relevant to this Order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes transitional provision in connection with the commencement of the Gambling Act 2005, and in particular makes provision about the grant or renewal of certain licences and permits issued under enactments to be repealed by that Act during the period before the repeal of those enactments.

Schedule 3 to the Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 (“the 1963 Act”) makes provision for the grant of track betting licences. A track betting licence is required under that Act where facilities for betting are provided on a track other than a horse racecourse. Under paragraph 8 of Schedule 3 to the 1963 Act a track betting licence lasts for 7 years. Article 2 of this Order provides for a new track betting licence to be treated as having been granted where a track betting licence is due to expire in the period between 31 August 2006 and 30 August 2007 (referred to in this Explanatory Note as “the transition period”). The licence is granted when the previous track betting licence expires to the person who held that licence immediately before it expired. The licensing authority must provide the holder with a copy of the new track betting licence if so requested in writing. The new licence is to have effect until 31st August 2007 when it is intended that the 1963 Act will be repealed for all material purposes.

Schedule 2 to the Gaming Act 1968 (“the 1968 Act”) makes provision for the grant and renewal of licences under that Act. Licences under the 1968 Act are required under that Act to authorise the provision of gaming in casinos and bingo clubs. Under paragraph 52 of Schedule 2 a licence, unless renewed, expires at the end of the period of one year from the date of grant or renewal. Article 3 of this Order provides for the deemed renewal of licences under the 1968 Act which are due to expire in the transition period. In such a case the licensing authority must provide the holder with a copy of the licence as renewed if so requested by the holder. Article 4 enables applications to be made under Schedule 2 to the 1968 Act for the renewal of a licence which expires in the transition period (so as to enable conditions attached to the licence to be varied). However, in those circumstances the provisions in article 3 for licences to be treated as having been renewed automatically do not apply. Irrespective of whether a licence is renewed under article 3 or on an application under Schedule 2 to the 1968 Act, the licence as renewed is to have effect until 31st August 2007 when it is intended that the relevant provisions of the 1968 Act will be repealed for all material purposes.

Schedule 9 to the 1968 Act makes provision for the grant and renewal of permits under section 34 of that Act. Section 34 provides for the making available of gaming machines in amusement machine premises (within the meaning of section 34(7A)), premises licensed to supply alcohol and other non-gambling premises. Article 5 of this Order provides for the deemed renewal of a section 34 permit granted in respect of amusement machine premises where the permit is due to expire in the transition period. In such a case the appropriate authority must provide the holder with a copy of the permit as renewed if so requested by the holder. The permit as renewed is to have effect until 31st August 2007.

Article 6 of this Order makes provision about the grant or renewal of section 34 permits, during the period between 1 August 2006 and the date on which the provisions of the 1968 Act relating to the grant or renewal of such permits are repealed for all purposes. Article 6 only applies to permits granted or renewed by the appropriate authority mentioned in paragraph 1(b) or (d) of Schedule 9 to the 1968 Act, and therefore does not apply to permits in respect of premises licensed to supply alcohol. Under article 6, where the application is made on or after 1 August 2006 the appropriate authority may only grant or renew the permit if it relates to amusement machine premises. Article 6 also makes provision about the period of any permit granted or renewed in respect of premises other than amusement machine premises. Any such permit, where granted or renewed in the period between 1 August 2006 and the date on which the provisions of the 1968 Act relating to the grant or renewal of section 34 permits are repealed for all purposes, is to cease to have effect on 31st July 2009.

Schedule 3 to the Lotteries and Amusements Act 1976 (“the 1976 Act”) makes provision for the grant and renewal of permits under section 16 of that Act. Section 16 is concerned with permitting amusements with prizes where those amusements constitute a lottery or gaming. Article 7 of this Order provides for the deemed renewal of permits granted under section 16 where the permit is due to expire in the transition period. In such a case the appropriate authority must provide the holder with a copy of the permit as renewed if so requested by the holder. The permit as renewed is to have effect until 31st August 2007 when it is intended that the relevant provisions of the 1976 Act will be repealed for all material purposes. The provisions of article 7 do not apply however where a resolution has been passed by the appropriate authority that it will not renew permits granted in respect of the relevant class of premises.
