

SCHEDULE 19

Public registers

Information no longer relevant for public participation

2. A regulator is not required to keep in its public register information which is no longer relevant for the purposes of public participation required under these Regulations.