REASONABLE STEPS

PART 1

ASCERTAINING VIEWS BY MEANS OF CONSULTATION

Consultation of unrepresented persons

3. Where a board—

- (a) has consulted prescribed organisations in accordance with paragraph 1;
- (b) is not relying on a sample obtained in accordance with Part 2; and
- (c) considers it necessary to ascertain the views of further relevant persons, it is a reasonable step for the board to endeavour to obtain the views of all unrepresented persons.
