Reviews

19B.—(1) The Secretary of State shall review a notice under regulation 19A(2)(a) if—

- (a) the supplier so requests; and
- (b) more than 2 years have elapsed since either the notice was given or the last such review, whichever is the later, and if, in the judgement of the responsible body, that supplier is then a suitable person to receive public funds from it, the Secretary of State shall withdraw that notice.

(2) Where a notice has been issued under regulation 19A(2)(b) and the supplier considers that it has now complied with the condition specified in that notice, it may request the Secretary of State to review the notice and, if the Secretary of State is satisfied as a result of that review that it has so complied, he shall withdraw that notice.

(3) In any case where a review has been conducted under paragraph (2), that supplier may not request a further review until a period of 12 months has elapsed since the last such review.

(4) Where a notice has been issued under regulation 19A(2)(c) and—
(a) that person has since been restored to the list mentioned in that provision; or
(b) where that person was a director, chief executive or secretary of a corporate body and has ceased to be a director, chief executive or secretary of that corporate body, the Secretary of State shall, if requested to do so by the supplier, review that notice and may, if he considers it appropriate, withdraw that notice.

(5) If, as a result of a review under paragraph (1), (2) or (4), the Secretary of State does not withdraw that notice, the supplier may appeal to the FHSAA, provided it does so within 28 days of receipt of the Secretary of State’s decision on that review.

Reviews of stop orders

19C.—(1) The FHSAA may, at the request of the supplier upon which a stop order has been imposed, review it and on such a review may confirm it or revoke it.

- (a) on which the stop order was imposed; or
- (b) of the FHSAA’s decision on the last such review, whichever is the later.

(3) If, on making a decision to impose a stop order, the FHSAA states that it is of the opinion that there is no realistic prospect of a review or a further review, as the case may be, being successful if held within the period specified in paragraph (2), the reference to “2 years” shall be a reference to 5 years or such lesser period, being more than 2 years, as the FHSAA may determine.

(4) If, on a review, the FHSAA states that it is of the opinion that there is a realistic prospect of a review or a further review, as the case may be, being successful if held within a lesser period than that specified in paragraph (2), the reference to “2 years” shall be a reference to “one year”.
