
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2008 No. 1863

The Serious Crime Act 2007 (Appeals
under Section 24) Order 2008

PART 4

Appeals to the Supreme Court: England and Wales

Powers of Court of Appeal under Part 4 which are exercisable by a single judge

41. The powers of the Court of Appeal under this Part to extend the time for making an application for leave to appeal, may be exercised by a single judge but where the judge refuses an application on the part of a person who is party to the appeal to exercise this power that person shall be entitled to have the application determined by the Court of Appeal.