EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Political donations may only be accepted from an individual if that individual is registered in an electoral register. Similarly, a registered political party may only enter into a regulated transaction (as defined by section 71F of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000 (c.41) as inserted by section 61 of the Electoral Administration Act 2006 (c.22)) with an individual if that individual is registered in an electoral register. The Political Donations and Regulated Transactions (Anonymous Electors) Regulations 2008 prescribe the form of evidence required to establish that a donor who has an anonymous entry in an electoral register is indeed a registered elector.

Regulation 3 states that the prescribed form of evidence is a certificate of anonymous registration issued under regulation 45G of the Representation of the People (England and Wales) Regulations 2001 (S.I.2001/341) or under regulation 45F of the Representation of the People (Scotland) Regulations 2001 (S.I.2001/497).

These Regulations revoke and replace the Political Donations and Regulated Transactions (Anonymous Electors) (England and Wales) Regulations 2006 (S.I.2006/2974) which prescribed the form of evidence required for England and Wales but not for Scotland. These Regulations make provision for the whole of Great Britain.
