- 30. The selection panel shall consist of five members,
- (a) two of whom shall be appointed by the members of the Metropolitan Police Authority;
 - (b) one of whom shall be appointed by the Secretary of State;
 - (c) one of whom shall be appointed by the Mayor; and
 - (d) one of whom shall be appointed by the members of the selection panel appointed under sub-paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) from a list of candidates prepared by the Secretary of State.
- 31.—(1) A person shall be disqualified from being appointed as or being a member of the selection panel if, by virtue of regulations 12, 13(1)(a) or 14(d), (e) and (f), he is disqualified—
- (a) from being appointed under regulation 7 as a member of the Metropolitan Police Authority, or
 - (b) from being a member so appointed.
- (2) A person shall be disqualified from being appointed as or being a member of the selection panel under regulation 30(a) if, by virtue of regulation 13(1)(b) and (2) he is disqualified—
- (a) from being appointed under regulation 6 as a member of the Metropolitan Police Authority, or
 - (b) from being a member so appointed.
- (3) A person shall be disqualified from being appointed as or being members of the selection panel under regulation 30(b), (c) or (d) if they are a member of the Metropolitan Police Authority,
- 32.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) a person referred to in regulation 30(a) shall be appointed to hold office as a member of the selection panel for —
- (a) a term of five years, or
 - (b) where that person is a member of the Metropolitan Police Authority and where the Metropolitan Police Authority considers it appropriate, for a term that expires on the same day as that on which that person's term as a member of the Metropolitan Police Authority expires under regulation 17.
- (2) A person referred to in regulation 30(a) shall hold office for no more than ten years.

(3) A person referred to in regulation 30(b), (c) or (d) shall be appointed to hold office as a member of the selection panel for a term of five years and shall hold office for no more than two such terms.

(4) A person may at any time resign his office as a member of the selection panel by notice in writing to the person who under regulation 30 would be required to appoint his successor.

(5) A person shall not cease to be a member of the Metropolitan Police Authority by reason only that any of the persons appointing him cease to hold the position by virtue of which they appointed him.

33.—(1) A member of the selection panel may be removed from office by notice in writing by the Metropolitan Police Authority if—

- (a) the member has been absent from two consecutive meetings of the selection panel without the consent of the panel;
- (b) the member has been convicted of a criminal offence (but is not disqualified from being a member under section 31);
- (c) the members of the Metropolitan Police Authority are satisfied that the member is incapacitated by physical or mental illness; or
- (d) the members of the Metropolitan Police Authority are satisfied that the member is otherwise unable or unfit to discharge his functions as a member.

(2) When the member of the selection panel to be removed under paragraph (1) is the person referred to in regulation 30(b) that person may only be removed with the consent of the Secretary of State.

34. A person who ceases to be a member of the selection panel, otherwise than by virtue of regulation 33, may (if otherwise eligible) be re-appointed.

35.—(1) The acts and proceedings of any person appointed to be a member of the selection panel and acting in that office shall, notwithstanding his disqualification or want of qualification, be as valid and effectual as if he had been qualified.

(2) The proceedings of the selection panel shall not be invalidated by—

- (a) a vacancy in the membership of the panel, or
- (b) a defect in the appointment of a person as a member.

36.—(1) The Metropolitan Police Authority shall make to members of the selection panel such payments by way of reimbursement or expenses and allowances as it may determine.

(2) The Metropolitan Police Authority shall—

- (a) provide the selection panel with such accommodation, and such secretarial and other assistance, as they may reasonably require, and
- (b) meet any expenses incurred by the panel in the exercise of their functions.

Functions of selection panel – short-listing

37.—(1) Where appointments to the Metropolitan Police Authority are to be made under regulation 7 the selection panel shall nominate persons willing to be candidates for appointment.

(2) Unless there are only a smaller number of persons willing to be candidates who are not disqualified from being members, the number of persons to be nominated by the selection panel under this regulation on any occasion shall be a number twice the number of appointments to be made under regulation 7.

(3) Unless there are only a smaller number of lay justices willing to be candidates who are not disqualified from being members, where by virtue of regulation 9 the appointments to be made under regulation 7 must include the appointment of a person who is a lay justice then the persons to be nominated by the selection panel under this regulation on any occasion shall include two persons who are a lay justice.

(4) A person shall not be nominated under this regulation if, by virtue of regulation 12, 13 or 14 he is disqualified from being appointed as a member of the Metropolitan Police Authority under regulation 7.

(5) The persons nominated under this regulation shall form the short-list of persons for the purposes of regulation 7.

38. In exercising their functions the selection panel shall have regard to the desirability of ensuring that, so far as reasonably practicable, they persons nominated by them under regulation 37—

- (a) represent the interests of a wide range of people within the community of the metropolitan police district; and
- (b) include persons with skills, knowledge or experience which are under represented among the existing members of the Metropolitan Police Authority.

Notifications by Chief Executive

39.—(1) Not less than four months before the term of office of a Metropolitan Police Authority member appointed under regulation 7 is due to expire, the chief executive of the Metropolitan Police Authority shall notify the members of the selection panel of this fact.

(2) Not less than four months before the term of office of a Metropolitan Police Authority member is due to expire, the chief executive of the Metropolitan Police Authority shall notify the Secretary of State if the chief executive considers that the member may be reappointed and that reappointment would require the consent of the Secretary of State under regulation 18(2)(a).

(3) Where a person appointed under regulation 7 ceases to be a Metropolitan Police Authority member otherwise than on the expiry of his term of office, the chief executive of the Metropolitan Police Authority shall notify the members of the selection panel of this fact.
