(3) Where the Director consolidates two or more charge sheets into one, he must immediately serve the new charge sheet on the court administration officer and each defendant.

Severance of charges

38. Where a defendant is charged with more than one offence in the same charge sheet, the court may direct, before the commencement of trial proceedings in relation to the charge sheet, that the charges be divided between two or more charge sheets.

Severance of defendants

39. Where two or more defendants are charged in a single charge, the court may direct, before the commencement of trial proceedings in relation to the charge, that the charge be replaced with charges against the defendants separately and in separate charge sheets.

Amendment of charges

40.—(1) Where in preliminary proceedings (whether before or after arraignment) or trial proceedings it appears to the court that the charge sheet or any charge is defective, it shall make such order for the amendment of the charge sheet or charge (as the case may be) as appears necessary to meet the circumstances of the case.

(2) But the court may not make an order under this rule if, in all the circumstances, the required amendments cannot be made without injustice.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (2), in relation to a proposed amendment in preliminary proceedings the circumstances relevant for the purposes of that paragraph include (in particular) whether the defendant has been arraigned.

(4) Where an order is made under this rule, the Director shall serve the amended charge sheet on every defendant in the way that would be required by regulations made under section 128—

- (a) if the amendment had been made otherwise than in accordance with an order made under this rule; and
- (b) where the amendment is made after arraignment, if it had been made before arraignment.

Consequences of exercise of powers under this Part

41.—(1) Where in preliminary proceedings the court is of opinion that, in consequence of the exercise of any power of the court under this Part, it is in the interests of justice—

- (a) that the commencement of the trial proceedings be postponed, or
- (b) that a defendant be arraigned or re-arraigned on any charge, the court shall make such order or give such direction as appears necessary.

(2) Where in trial proceedings the court is of the opinion that in consequence of the exercise of any power of the court under this Part it is in the interests of justice—

- (a) that the proceedings be adjourned, or
- (b) that a defendant be arraigned or re-arraigned on any charge, it shall make such order or give such direction as appears necessary.

PART 9

CONSIDERATION OF TRIAL BY THE COURT MARTIAL

Consideration of trial by the Court Martial

42.—(1) The court shall make its decision in accordance with section 279 before the defendant is arraigned and shall give its reasons for its decision in open court.

(2) If the court decides that it should try the charge, the defendant shall be asked if he wants to elect trial by the Court Martial.

(3) If the defendant (or if more than one person is jointly charged, any of the defendants) does not elect trial by the Court Martial, the court may arraign the defendant.

(4) At any time before arraignment, a defendant may give notice that he elects to be tried by the Court Martial.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (4), if there is more than one charge or more than one charge sheet “arraignment” shall mean arraignment on all of the charges.

(6) A defendant who has indicated that he wishes to elect trial by the Court Martial may, at any time before arraignment by the Court Martial, give notice that he withdraws his election.

(7) Any notice under paragraphs (4) or (6), unless given in court during proceedings in relation to the matter, shall be in writing and shall be served on—

- (a) the court administration officer;
- (b) the Director;

(c) any other defendant.

(8) Nothing in this rule shall affect the provisions in section 280(3) or (5) (election in respect of one defendant or one charge, as the case may be, takes effect in respect of all of the defendants or all of the charges).

PART 10

ARRAIGNMENT

Arraignment

43.—(1) A defendant shall be arraigned in preliminary proceedings on each charge brought against him, but need not be arraigned on every charge at the same time.

(2) A defendant shall be required to plead separately to each charge on which he is arraigned.

(3) Where a defendant pleads guilty to a charge, the court may accept the plea if satisfied that the defendant understands—

- (a) the nature of the charge;
- (b) the general effect of the plea; and
- (c) the difference in procedure following pleas of guilty and not guilty.

(4) Where the court accepts a plea of a guilty to a charge—

- (a) the defendant shall stand convicted of the charge; and
- (b) unless there is a further charge against him to which he has not pleaded guilty (or as respects which a plea of guilty has not been accepted by the court), the court administration officer shall appoint a time and place for sentencing proceedings.

(5) Where—

- (a) a plea of guilty is not accepted by the court, or
- (b) the defendant does not plead (or does not plead intelligibly) to the charge, the court shall record a plea of not guilty.

Order that charge lie on the file

44. Where the court accepts a plea of guilty to any charge, it may (with the Director's consent) order that any other charge—

- (a) to which the defendant has not pleaded,
- (b) to which the defendant has pleaded not guilty, or
- (c) as respects which the court has recorded a plea of not guilty under rule 43(5), is to lie on the file, not to be proceeded with without the leave of the court or the Court Martial.

Offer of no evidence

45.—(1) Where—

- (a) a defendant has pleaded not guilty to a charge, or the court has recorded a plea of not guilty to the charge under rule 43(5), and
- (b) the Director indicates that he intends to offer no evidence on the charge, the court shall record a finding of not guilty in respect of the charge.

(2) A finding of not guilty recorded under this rule shall have effect for all purposes as an acquittal by the court.

Change of plea

46.—(1) At any time before the court determines the finding, a defendant who has pleaded not guilty to the charge may withdraw his plea and substitute a plea of guilty.

(2) But the court may not accept a plea of guilty substituted under paragraph (1) unless satisfied that the defendant understands the matters mentioned in rule 43(3).

(3) At any time before the court passes sentence for an offence, a defendant who has pleaded guilty to the charge of the offence may, with the leave of the court, withdraw his plea and substitute a plea of not guilty.

(4) Where a defendant changes his plea under paragraph (3)—

(a) in the course of sentencing proceedings in relation to the offence, or

(b) in the course of trial proceedings in relation to another charge, the court shall terminate the proceedings.

Powers of Director after arraignment

47.—(1) After a defendant has been arraigned on a charge, the Director may not exercise any of the powers under section 126(2) without the leave of the court.

(2) Where a defendant has been arraigned and the Director (with leave) exercises any of the powers under section 126(2)(a) to (c) in relation to him, the Director shall serve the amended charge sheet on every defendant in the way that would be required by regulations made under section 128 if the power had been exercised before arraignment.

PART 11

ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES

Notification of witnesses

48.—(1) Where any person is required to give evidence in any proceedings, the court administration officer shall notify him of the time and place at which he is required to attend.

(2) When the court administration officer gives notice of any proceedings to a party to the proceedings other than the Director, he shall offer to notify any person whom the party may require to give evidence.

(3) Where a witness summons is issued under rule 49 or 51, the court administration officer shall serve it on the person to whom it is directed.

(4) If, in the opinion of the court administration officer, it is not reasonably practicable to notify a person under this rule or to serve a witness summons on a person, he shall give notice of that fact to the court and the party who wishes the person to attend.

Issue of witness summons on application to a judge advocate

49.—(1) This rule applies where a judge advocate is satisfied that—

(a) a person is likely to be able to give evidence likely to be material evidence, or produce any document or thing likely to be material evidence, for the purpose of any proceedings before the court; and

- (b) it is in the interests of justice to issue a witness summons under this rule to secure the attendance of that person to give evidence or to produce the document or thing.
- (2) In such a case, the judge advocate shall, subject to the following provisions of this rule, issue a witness summons directed to the person concerned and requiring him to—
 - (a) attend before the court at the time and place stated in the witness summons; and
 - (b) give the evidence or produce the document or thing.
- (3) A witness summons may be issued under this rule only on an application; and the judge advocate may refuse to issue the witness summons if any requirement relating to the application is not fulfilled.
- (4) An application for a witness summons must be made as soon as practicable after the applicant becomes aware of the grounds for making it.
- (5) The application must—
 - (a) identify the proposed witness;
 - (b) explain—
 - (i) what evidence the proposed witness can give or produce;
 - (ii) why it is likely to be material evidence; and
 - (iii) why it would be in the interests of justice to issue a witness summons.
- (6) The application may be made orally unless the judge advocate otherwise directs.
- (7) An application in writing must contain a declaration that the facts stated in it are true to the best of the applicant's knowledge and belief.
- (8) An application in writing must be served on the court administration officer and as directed by the judge advocate.
- (9) A witness summons issued under this rule which requires a person to attend before the court and produce a document or thing may also require him to produce the document or thing—
 - (a) at a place stated in the witness summons, and
 - (b) at a time so stated, before the time at which the summons requires him to attend before the court, for inspection by the applicant.
- (10) A witness summons issued under this rule must state that failure to comply with the summons may result in the issue of a warrant for the arrest of the person to whom the summons is addressed.

Application for witness summons to produce a document, etc: judge advocate's assessment of relevance and confidentiality

- 50.—(1) This rule applies where a person served with an application for a witness summons requiring the proposed witness to produce in evidence a document or thing objects to its production on the grounds that—
- (a) it is not likely to be material evidence; or
 - (b) even if it is likely to be material evidence, the duties or rights (including rights of confidentiality) of the proposed witness or of any person to whom the document or thing relates outweigh the reasons for issuing a witness summons.
- (2) A judge advocate may require the proposed witness to make the document or thing available for the objection to be assessed.
- (3) The judge advocate may invite—
- (a) the proposed witness or any representative of the proposed witness, or

(b) a person to whom the document or thing relates or any representative of such a person, to help the judge advocate assess the objection.

Issue of witness summons of judge advocate's own motion

51.—(1) For the purpose of any proceedings, a judge advocate may of his own motion issue a witness summons directed to a person and requiring him to—

- (a) attend before the court at the time and place stated in the witness summons; and
- (b) give evidence, or produce any document or thing specified in the witness summons.

(2) A witness summons issued under this rule must state that failure to comply with the summons may result in the issue of a warrant for the arrest of the person to whom the summons is addressed.

(3) A judge advocate may withdraw a witness summons issued under this rule if he no longer considers it necessary or if one of the following applies for it to be withdrawn—

- (a) the witness, on the grounds that—
 - (i) he cannot give or produce evidence likely to be material evidence; or
 - (ii) even if he can, his duties or rights (including rights of confidentiality) or those of any person to whom the evidence relates outweigh the reasons for the issue of the witness summons; or
- (b) any person to whom the proposed evidence relates, on the grounds that—
 - (i) that evidence is not likely to be material evidence; or
 - (ii) even if it is, his duties or rights (including rights of confidentiality) or those of the witness outweigh the reasons for the issue of the witness summons.

Application to withdraw a witness summons

52.—(1) A judge advocate may withdraw a witness summons if an application is made under this rule.

(2) An application under this rule may be made by the party who applied for the witness summons, on the ground that it is no longer needed.

(3) An application under this rule may also be made by the witness, on the grounds that—

- (a) he was not aware of any application for it; and
- (b) either—
 - (i) he cannot give or produce evidence likely to be material evidence; or
 - (ii) even if he can, his duties or rights (including rights of confidentiality) or those of any person to whom the evidence relates outweigh the reasons for the issue of the witness summons.

(4) An application under this rule may also be made by any person to whom the proposed evidence relates, on the grounds that—

- (a) he was not aware of any application for it; and
- (b) either—
 - (i) that evidence is not likely to be material evidence; or
 - (ii) even if it is, his duties or rights (including rights of confidentiality) or those of the witness outweigh the reasons for the issue of the witness summons.

(5) An application under this rule—

- (a) must be made in writing to the court administration officer;

- (b) must be made as soon as is practicable after the applicant becomes aware of the grounds for making it; and
- (c) must state the grounds on which it is made.
- (6) An application under this rule must be served on—
 - (a) the witness (where he is not the applicant);
 - (b) the party who applied for the witness summons (where he is not the applicant); and
 - (c) any other person who, to the applicant's knowledge, has been served with the application for the witness summons.
- (7) Where—
 - (a) a witness summons requires the proposed witness to produce in evidence a document or other thing, and
 - (b) a person other than the party who applied for the witness summons makes an application under this rule, rule 50(2) and (3) apply, with references to “the objection” read as references to the matters mentioned in paragraph (3)(b) or (4)(b) (as the case may be).

Oral applications

53.—(1) Where a rule or direction requires an application under this Part to be in writing, the application may be made orally with the leave of the court.

- (2) A party who seeks leave to make such an application orally must—
 - (a) give as much notice as the urgency of his application permits to those on whom he would otherwise have served an application in writing; and
 - (b) in doing so, explain the reasons for—
 - (i) the application; and
 - (ii) seeking leave to make the application orally.

Further process to secure attendance of witness

54.—(1) If a judge advocate is satisfied by evidence on oath that—

- (a) a person is likely to be able to give material evidence or produce any document or other thing likely to be material evidence in the proceedings,
- (b) that it is in the interests of justice that the person should attend to give evidence or to produce the document or thing, and
- (c) it is probable that a witness summons issued under rule 49 or 51 would not procure his attendance, the judge advocate may, instead of issuing a witness summons, issue a warrant to arrest that person and bring him before the court.

- (2) Where—
 - (a) any person has failed to attend before the court in answer to a witness summons issued under rule 49 or 51,
 - (b) the judge advocate is satisfied by evidence on oath that—
 - (i) the person is likely to be able to give evidence likely to be material evidence or produce any document or other thing likely to be material evidence in the proceedings, and

- (ii) the person has been duly served with the witness summons and that a reasonable sum has been paid or tendered to him for costs and expenses, and
- (c) it appears to the judge advocate that there is no just excuse for the person's failure to attend, the judge advocate may issue a warrant to arrest the person and bring him before the court.
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4), a warrant issued under this rule shall be addressed to—
 - (a) one or more service policemen; or
 - (b) one or more officers of a civilian police force.
- (4) A warrant issued under this rule may not be addressed to a service policeman unless it appears to the judge advocate that the person for whose arrest it is issued is subject to service law or is a civilian subject to service discipline.
- (5) Where a person has been arrested by an officer of a civilian police force under a warrant issued under this rule—
 - (a) he must be transferred to service custody as soon as is practicable; and
 - (b) if he is not transferred to service custody as soon as is practicable after arrest he must be released.
- (6) Where a person has been arrested under a warrant issued under this rule and is in service custody—
 - (a) he must as soon as is practicable be brought before a judge advocate for a review of whether he should continue to be kept in service custody until he can be brought before the court; and
 - (b) if he has not been brought before a judge advocate for such a review within 48 hours of the arrest he must be released.

Review of custody of witness

- 55.—(1) Paragraphs (2) to (5) apply where—
- (a) a person is brought before a judge advocate under rule 54(6); or
 - (b) the keeping of a person in service custody has been authorised by an order under paragraph (2) and he is brought before a judge advocate before the expiry of the period for which it was so authorised.
- (2) The judge advocate may by order authorise the keeping (or further keeping) of the person in service custody if he is satisfied that there are substantial grounds for believing that, if released from service custody, the person would fail to attend the court as required.
- (3) The period for which the judge advocate may, by an order under paragraph (2), authorise the keeping of the person in service custody is such period, ending not later than 8 days after the day on which the order is made, as he considers appropriate in all the circumstances.
- (4) If the judge advocate makes no order under paragraph (2), the person must be released from service custody without delay; but this is subject to paragraph (5).
- (5) The judge advocate may require the person to comply, before release or later, with such requirements as appear necessary to secure his attendance before the court.
- (6) Where the keeping of the person in service custody is authorised by an order under paragraph (2), he must be released on the expiry of the period for which it was so authorised unless a judge advocate has made a further order under that paragraph.
- (7) On an application made by or on behalf of the person, any requirement imposed by virtue of paragraph (5) may be varied or discharged by a judge advocate.

(8) Section 107(5) shall apply in relation to a requirement imposed by virtue of paragraph (5) as it applies in relation to a requirement imposed by virtue of section 107(3)(a).

(9) A person guilty of an offence under section 107(5) by virtue of paragraph (8) shall be liable to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.

Entitlement to witness expenses

56.—(1) Where any person is—

- (a) notified under rule 48 of the requirement to give evidence in any proceedings, or
- (b) served with a witness summons issued under rule 49 or 51,

there shall be paid or tendered to him at that time any expenses in respect of his attendance.

(2) For the purpose of this rule—

- (a) the tender of a warrant or voucher entitling a person to travel free of charge shall constitute tender of his expenses in respect of any travelling required; and
- (b) the tender of a written undertaking by the court administration officer to defray any other expenses payable under these Rules shall constitute tender in respect of those expenses.

PART 12

EVIDENCE

CHAPTER 1

General

Application and interpretation of Part 12

57.—(1) The provisions of this Part apply in relation to any proceedings in which an issue of fact falls to be determined, unless otherwise stated.

(2) In relation to any proceedings other than trial proceedings, references in this Part to a defendant are to be read as references to a person to whom the proceedings relate.

Rules of evidence

58.—(1) The rules of evidence applicable in a trial on indictment in England and Wales shall apply, to the extent that—

- (a) they are capable of applying; and
- (b) they are not applied, with or without modifications, by any other enactment or subordinate legislation (whenever passed or made).

(2) In this rule references to rules of evidence include rules conferring or restricting any discretion to exclude admissible evidence.

(3) No person may be required—

- (a) to answer any question which he could not be required to answer in a trial on indictment in England and Wales; or
- (b) to produce any document which he could not be required to produce in such a trial.

(4) The court may take judicial notice of matters of which judicial notice could be taken in a trial on indictment in England and Wales.

Oral testimony to be given on oath

59.—(1) Oral testimony shall be given on oath.

(2) This rule is subject to—

- (a) section 5 of the Oaths Act 1978 (affirmation);
- (b) section 31 of the 1999 Act (evidence admitted under a special measures direction); and
- (c) section 56 of that Act (reception of unsworn evidence by witness who is not permitted to be sworn).

Proof by written statement

60.—(1) Without prejudice to rule 58, section 9 of the 1967 Act (proof by written statement) shall apply, subject to paragraph (2), in relation to a statement made—

- (a) in the United Kingdom by any person, or
- (b) outside the United Kingdom by a person subject to service law or a civilian subject to service discipline, as it applies in criminal proceedings in relation to a statement made in the United Kingdom.

(2) In its application by virtue of this rule, section 9 of the 1967 Act shall have effect as if—

- (a) subsection (2)(c) required service of the statement on the court administration officer (as well as each of the other parties to the proceedings);
- (b) in subsection (2)(d), the reference to the parties' solicitors were to their legal representatives; and
- (c) subsections (5) and (8) were omitted; and
- (d) in subsection (6), the references to the court were to the judge advocate.

(3) An application to the court under section 9(4)(b) of the 1967 Act—

- (a) may be made in preliminary proceedings; or
- (b) in trial proceedings.

(4) Section 89 of the 1967 Act (offence of making a false statement tendered in evidence) shall apply in relation to a statement tendered in evidence in proceedings of the court by virtue of section 9 of that Act, wherever made, as it applies in relation to a statement tendered in evidence in criminal proceedings by virtue of that section.

Proof by formal admission

61.—(1) Without prejudice to rule 58, section 10 of the 1967 Act (proof by formal admission) shall apply, subject to paragraph (2), as it applies in relation to criminal proceedings.

(2) In its application by virtue of this rule, section 10 of the 1967 Act shall have effect as if—

- (a) in subsection (1), the reference to the prosecutor were to the Director; and
- (b) in subsection (2), references to a defendant's counsel or solicitor were to his legal representative.

Use of documents to refresh memory

62.—(1) A person giving oral evidence about any matter may, at any stage in the course of doing so, refresh his memory of it from a document made or verified by him at an earlier time if—

- (a) he states in his oral evidence that the document records his recollection of that matter at that earlier time; and

- (b) his recollection of the matter is likely to have been significantly better at that time than it is at the time of his oral evidence.

(2) Where—

- (a) a person giving oral evidence about any matter has previously given an oral account, of which a sound recording was made, and he states in that evidence that the account represented his recollection of the matter at that time,
- (b) his recollection of the matter is likely to have been significantly better at the time of the previous account than it is at the time of his oral evidence, and
- (c) a transcript has been made of the sound recording,

he may, at any stage in the course of giving his evidence, refresh his memory of the matter from that transcript.

CHAPTER 2

Evidence of bad character

Notice of intention to adduce evidence of a defendant's bad character

63.—(1) Where, in trial proceedings—

- (a) the Director intends to adduce evidence of a defendant's bad character, or
- (b) a defendant intends to adduce evidence of another defendant's bad character, or to cross-examine a witness with a view to eliciting such evidence,

he must serve on the court administration officer and all other parties to the proceedings a notice of that intention.

(2) A notice under this rule—

- (a) must describe the misconduct to which the evidence relates;
- (b) must state what evidence of the misconduct the party serving the notice intends to adduce or elicit;
- (c) if served by the Director, must identify any witness whom he intends to call about the misconduct; and
- (d) identify the paragraph or paragraphs of section 101(1) of the 2003 Act which the party serving the notice asserts to be applicable to the evidence.

(3) If served by the Director, a notice under this rule must be served not more than 14 days after the Director serves advance information in respect of the charge to which the evidence relates.

(4) If served by a defendant, a notice under this rule must be served not more than 14 days after—

- (a) the date on which the Director complies or purports to comply with article 4 of the CPIA Order; or,
- (b) if later, the date on which the Director discloses to the defendant the previous convictions of the co-defendant to whose misconduct the notice relates.

(5) If it is not reasonably practicable to serve a notice under this rule within the time prescribed by paragraph (3) or (4) (as the case may be), the notice must be served as soon as it is reasonably practicable to do so.

(6) The court may dispense with the requirement to serve a notice under this rule if satisfied that no injustice would result.

Application to exclude evidence of a defendant's bad character

64.—(1) An application under section 101(3) of the 2003 Act to exclude evidence of a defendant's bad character in trial proceedings must be made in writing to the court administration officer and served on all other parties to the proceedings, unless the court gives leave for the application to be made orally.

(2) If made in writing, the application—

- (a) must state whether a notice under rule 63 has been served on the applicant in relation to the evidence, and if so on what date; and
- (b) must be made and served not more than 14 days after that date (if any), unless paragraph (3) applies.

(3) Where—

- (a) the court dispenses with the requirement to serve a notice under rule 63, or
- (b) such a notice is served but it is not reasonably practicable to make the application within 14 days of the service of the notice, the application must be made as soon as is reasonably practicable.

Application for leave to adduce evidence of the bad character of a non-defendant

65.—(1) An application for leave to give evidence in trial proceedings of the bad character of a person other than a defendant must be made in writing to the court administration officer and served on all other parties to the proceedings, unless the court gives leave for the application to be made orally.

(2) If made in writing, such an application—

- (a) must describe the misconduct to which the evidence relates;
- (b) must state what evidence of the misconduct the applicant seeks to adduce or elicit;
- (c) if made by the Director, must identify any witness whom he intends to call about the misconduct; and
- (d) must state the grounds on which the applicant asserts that the evidence is admissible.

(3) If made by the Director, an application under this rule must be made not more than 14 days after the Director serves advance information in respect of the charge to which the evidence relates.

(4) If made by a defendant, an application under this rule must be made not more than 14 days after—

- (a) the date on which the Director complies or purports to comply with article 4 of the CPIA Order; or,
- (b) if later, the date on which the Director discloses to the defendant the previous convictions of the person to whose misconduct the application relates.

(5) If it is not reasonably practicable to make an application under this rule within the time prescribed by paragraph (3) or (4) (as the case may be), the application must be made as soon as it is reasonably practicable to do so.

CHAPTER 3

Hearsay evidence

Notice of intention to adduce hearsay evidence

66.—(1) Where a party to trial proceedings proposes to adduce a hearsay statement, or (in the case of a defendant) to cross-examine a witness with a view to eliciting evidence of such a statement, on the basis that the statement is admissible by virtue of—

- (a) section 114(1)(d) of the 2003 Act (interests of justice),
- (b) section 116 of that Act (maker of statement unavailable to give oral evidence), or
- (c) section 117 of that Act (statement contained in a document),

he must serve on the court administration officer and all other parties to the proceedings a notice to that effect.

(2) A notice under this rule—

- (a) must give details of the statement that the party serving the notice proposes to tender in evidence;
- (b) where the statement is contained in a document which has not already been served on all the other parties, must include a copy of the document;
- (c) where the notice is served by the Director and oral evidence of the statement is to be given, must identify any witness who is to give it;
- (d) must specify whether the party serving the notice proposes to tender the statement by virtue of section 114(1)(d), 116 or 117 of the 2003 Act;
- (e) where he proposes to tender the statement by virtue of section 114(1)(d) of that Act, must specify which of the factors mentioned in section 114(2) of that Act are relevant, and how they are relevant; and
- (f) where the statement is evidence that an earlier hearsay statement was made, must specify whether he proposes to tender it by virtue of section 121(1)(a), (b) or (c) of that Act.

(3) Where a notice under this rule is served by the Director, it must be served not more than 14 days after the Director serves advance information in respect of the charge to which the evidence relates.

(4) Where a notice under this rule is served by a defendant, it must be served not more than 14 days after the Director complies or purports to comply with article 4 of the CPIA Order.

(5) Where—

- (a) a notice has been served under this rule in relation to a hearsay statement, and
- (b) no counter-notice has been served in accordance with rule 67 in relation to the statement, the statement is to be treated as admissible by agreement of the parties.

(6) In this rule “hearsay statement” means a statement which—

- (a) is not made in oral evidence in the proceedings; and
- (b) is relied on as evidence of a matter stated in it.

Counter-notice objecting to the admission of hearsay evidence

67.—(1) Where a party serves a notice under rule 66 in relation to a statement, any other party may serve a counter-notice objecting to the admission of the statement.

(2) A counter-notice served under this rule must state—

- (a) the date on which the party serving it was served with the notice under rule 66;
 - (b) whether he objects to the admission of the whole or only part of the statement, and if only part which part; and
 - (c) the grounds on which he so objects.
- (3) A counter-notice served under this rule must be served on the court administration officer and all other parties to the proceedings not more than 14 days after service of the notice under rule 66.

CHAPTER 4

Evidence of service matters

Evidence of enlistment

(2) The statement referred to in paragraph (1) must be in writing unless every other party consents to its being made orally.

(3) Where more than one party wishes to introduce expert evidence, the court may direct the experts to—

- (a) discuss the expert issues in the proceedings; and
- (b) prepare a statement for the court of the matters on which they agree and disagree, giving their reasons.

(4) Except for the statement prepared under paragraph (3)(b), the content of the discussion under paragraph (3)(a) may not be referred to without the court's permission.

(5) Where more than one defendant wishes to introduce expert evidence on an issue, the court may direct that the evidence on that issue is to be given by one expert only.

(6) Where the defendants cannot agree who should be the expert to give evidence under paragraph (5), the court may—

CHAPTER 6

Special measures directions

Interpretation of Chapter 6

74.—(1) In this Chapter—

“eligible witness” means a witness eligible for assistance by virtue of rule 75 or 76;

“intermediary” has the same meaning as in section 29 of the 1999 Act;

“sexual offence” means an offence under section 42 as respects which the corresponding offence under the law of England and Wales is—

- (a) an offence under Part 1 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003 ^{M9};
- (b) an offence of attempting or conspiring to commit such an offence; or
- (c) an offence under Part 2 of the Serious Crime Act 2007 ^{M10} (encouraging and assisting crime) committed in relation to such an offence;

“special measures direction” means a direction providing for one or more of the special measures available in relation to a witness to apply to evidence given by the witness;

“the special measures provisions” means the provisions of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of the 1999 Act applied by an order under section 61(1) of that Act.

(2) In this Chapter—

- (a) references to the quality of a witness's evidence are to its quality in terms of completeness, coherence and accuracy (and for this purpose “coherence” refers to a witness's ability in giving evidence to give answers which address the questions put to the witness and can be understood both individually and collectively); and
- (b) references to the special measures available in relation to a witness are to be construed in accordance with rule 77.

Witnesses eligible for assistance on grounds of age or incapacity

75.—(1) A witness is eligible for assistance by virtue of this rule if the witness is under the age of 18 at the time when it falls to the court to consider whether to give a special measures direction in relation to the witness.

(2) A witness is also eligible for assistance by virtue of this rule if the court considers that the quality of evidence given by the witness is likely to be diminished because the witness—

- (a) suffers from mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983^{M11};
- (b) otherwise has a significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning; or
- (c) has a physical disability or is suffering from a physical disorder.

Witnesses eligible for assistance on grounds of fear or distress about testifying 76.—(1) A witness (other than a defendant) is eligible for assistance by virtue of this rule if the court is satisfied that the quality of evidence given by the witness is likely to be diminished by reason of fear or distress on the part of the witness in connection with testifying in the proceedings.

(2) A witness is also eligible for assistance by virtue of this rule if—

- (a) the proceedings are in respect of a sexual offence;
- (b) the witness is a complainant in respect of that offence; and
- (c) the witness has not informed the court of the witness's wish not to be so eligible.

Special measures available

77.—(1) Where a witness (other than a defendant) is eligible for assistance by virtue of rule 75, the special measures available in relation to him are those for which provision is made by sections 23, 25 to 27, 29 and 30 of the 1999 Act.

(2) Where a witness is eligible for assistance by virtue of rule 76, the special measures available in relation to him are those for which provision is made by sections 23 and 25 to 27 of that Act.

(3) Where a defendant is eligible for assistance by virtue of rule 75, the special measures available in relation to him are those for which provision is made by sections 29 and 30 of that Act.

Special measures direction relating to eligible witness

78.—(1) Subject to the special measures provisions and this Chapter, the court may give a special measures direction in relation to a witness if—

- (a) the witness is an eligible witness; and
- (b) any of the special measures available in relation to the witness (or any combination of them) would, in the court's opinion, be likely to improve the quality of evidence given by the witness.

(2) A special measures direction must specify particulars of the provision made by the direction in respect of each special measure which is to apply to the witness's evidence.

(3) In determining whether any special measure or measures would be likely to improve the quality of evidence given by the witness, and if so whether to give a direction providing for the measure or measures to apply, the court must consider all the circumstances of the case, including in particular—

- (a) any views expressed by the witness; and
- (b) whether the measure or measures might tend to inhibit such evidence being effectively tested by a party to the proceedings.

(4) Where there are two or more defendants—

- (a) any reference to the defendant in the special measures provisions may be taken, in connection with the giving of a special measures direction, as a reference to all or any of the defendants, as the court may determine; and
- (b) any such direction may be given on the basis of any such determination.

(5) A special measures direction may provide for one or more special measures to apply in combination with a direction under rule 18 (live links), and for the purposes of this Chapter a measure would be likely to improve the quality of the witness's evidence if, were it combined with such a direction, it would be likely to do so.

(6) The court may give a special measures direction—

- (a) on an application made by a party to the proceedings; or
- (b) of its own motion.

(7) A judge advocate who gives, or refuses an application for, a special measures direction must state in open court his reasons for doing so.

(8) Nothing in this Chapter is to be regarded as affecting any power of the court to make an order or give leave of any description—

- (a) in relation to a witness who is not an eligible witness; or
- (b) in relation to an eligible witness, where the order is made or the leave is given otherwise than by reason of the fact that the witness is an eligible witness.

Evidence given in private

79. A special measures direction may not provide for the exclusion of persons under section 25 of the 1999 Act unless—

- (a) the proceedings relate to a sexual offence; or
- (b) it appears to the court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that any person other than a defendant has sought, or will seek, to intimidate the witness in connection with testifying in the proceedings.

Video recorded evidence in chief

80.—(1) A special measures direction may not provide for a video recording, or a part of such a recording, to be admitted under section 27 of the 1999 Act if the court is of the opinion, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, that in the interests of justice the recording, or that part of it, should not be so admitted.

(2) In considering for the purposes of paragraph (1) whether any part of a recording should not be so admitted, the court must consider whether any prejudice to a defendant which might result from that part being so admitted is outweighed by the desirability of showing the whole, or substantially the whole, of the recorded interview.

(3) Where a special measures direction provides for a recording to be admitted under section 27 of the 1999 Act, the court may nevertheless subsequently direct that it is not to be so admitted if—

- (a) it appears to the court that—
 - (i) the witness will not be available for cross-examination (whether conducted in the ordinary way or in accordance with any such direction), and
 - (ii) the parties to the proceedings have not agreed that there is no need for the witness to be so available; or
- (b) rule 83 has not been complied with to the satisfaction of the court.

(4) Paragraph (3) is without prejudice to rule 84 (power to vary or discharge special measures direction).

(5) Where a recording is admitted under section 27 of the 1999 Act—

- (a) the witness must be called by the party tendering it in evidence, unless the parties to the proceedings have agreed that there is no need for the witness to be called; and
- (b) the witness may not give evidence in chief otherwise than by means of the recording—
 - (i) as to any matter which, in the opinion of the court, has been dealt with adequately in the witness's recorded testimony; or
 - (ii) without the leave of the court, as to any other matter which, in the opinion of the court, is dealt with in that testimony.

(6) Where a special measures direction provides for part only of a recording to be admitted under section 27 of the 1999 Act, references in paragraphs (3) and (5) to the recording or to the witness's recorded testimony are references to the part of the recording or testimony which is to be so admitted.

(7) The court may give leave for the purposes of paragraph (5)(b)(ii) if it appears to him to be in the interests of justice to do so, and may do so either—

- (a) on an application by a party to the proceedings; or
- (b) of his own motion.

Examination of witness through intermediary

81.—(1) Any examination of a witness conducted in pursuance of a provision included in a special measures direction by virtue of section 29(1) of the 1999 Act (examination of witness through intermediary) must take place—

- (a) in the presence of such persons as the direction may provide; and
- (b) in circumstances in which the court, and legal representatives acting in the proceedings, are able to see and hear the examination of the witness and to communicate with the intermediary (and for this purpose any impairment of eyesight or hearing is to be disregarded).

(2) Where two or more legal representatives are acting for a party to the proceedings, paragraph (1)(b) is to be regarded as satisfied in relation to those representatives if at all material times it is satisfied in relation to at least one of them.

(3) Before an intermediary begins to act, he shall make a declaration in the following form:

“I solemnly, sincerely and truly declare that I will well and faithfully communicate the questions and answers and make true explanation of all matters and things as shall be required of me according to the best of my skill and understanding.”

(4) In this rule “the intermediary” has the same meaning as in section 29 of the 1999 Act.

Application for special measures direction: general

82.—(1) An application for a special measures direction must be made in writing to the court administration officer, unless a judge advocate gives leave for it to be made orally.

(2) A written application must specify—

- (a) unless the application is made by a defendant and does not relate to evidence in support of an alibi, the name and date of birth of the witness in relation to whom it is made;
- (b) the special measure or measures sought;
- (c) where the application is for a direction including provision by virtue of section 27 of the 1999 Act (video recorded evidence in chief), the information mentioned in rule 83(4);
- (d) the grounds on which the applicant asserts—
 - (i) that the witness is an eligible witness; and
 - (ii) that the measure or measures will improve the quality of the witness's evidence;
- (e) the views of the witness as to the matters specified in accordance with sub-paragraph (d);
- (f) where a previous application for a special measures direction has been refused, any material change of circumstances relied upon in support of the application.

(3) In paragraph (2)(a) “evidence in support of an alibi” has the same meaning as in article 7(5) of the CPIA Order.

(4) A written application must be made, and a copy served on all other parties to the proceedings—

- (a) where the application is made by the Director, not more than 14 days after the Director serves advance information in respect of the charge to which the proposed evidence relates.
- (b) where the application is made by a defendant, not more than 14 days after the Director complies or purports to comply with article 4 of the CPIA Order.

(5) Notwithstanding paragraph (4), a judge advocate may at his discretion consider a written application made outside the period of 14 days there mentioned.

(6) Where a written application has been made, a judge advocate may—

- (a) grant the application without a hearing; or
- (b) direct a hearing.

(7) But the application may not be granted without a hearing unless—

- (a) at least 14 days have elapsed since the application was served on each other party to the proceedings, and
- (b) no other party has served notice on the court administration officer that he opposes the application.

(8) Any party to the proceedings—

- (a) may attend a hearing of the application, and be heard;
- (b) may, with leave of the court, adduce evidence (including expert evidence) at the hearing.

Application for special measures direction permitting admission of video recorded evidence in chief 83.—(1) This rule applies where an application is made for a special measures direction including provision by virtue of section 27 of the 1999 Act.

(2) The application must be accompanied by a copy of the video recording which (or part of which) it is proposed to tender in evidence.

(3) Where the application is made by the Director, he must at the same time serve on each defendant a copy of that recording.

(4) The application must include the following information, in so far as not contained in the recording itself—

- (a) the date on which the recording was made;
- (b) the times at which the recording commenced and finished, including details of any interruptions;
- (c) the address of the premises where the recording was made, and the usual function of those premises;
- (d) in relation to each person present at any point during, or immediately before, the recording—
 - (i) the name, age and occupation of the person;
 - (ii) the time for which he was present; and
 - (iii) his relationship (if any) to the witness;
- (e) in relation to the equipment used for the recording—
 - (i) a description of the equipment;
 - (ii) the number of cameras used;
 - (iii) whether the cameras were fixed or mobile;
 - (iv) the number and location of the microphones;
 - (v) the video format used; and
 - (vi) whether it offered single or multiple recording facilities and, if so, which were used; and
- (f) if the recording is a copy—
 - (i) the location of the master recording; and
 - (ii) details of when and by whom the copy was made.

(5) Where the applicant is a defendant and the application is granted, the applicant must, at the close of the case for the prosecution, serve on each other party to the proceedings a copy of the video recording which (or part of which) it is proposed to tender in evidence under the direction.

Variation or discharge of special measures direction

84.—(1) A judge advocate may vary or discharge a special measures direction if it appears to him to be in the interests of justice to do so.

(2) A judge advocate may exercise the power conferred by paragraph (1)—

- (a) on an application made by a party to the proceedings, or
- (b) of the judge advocate's own motion.

(3) An application under this rule must be made in writing to the court administration officer, unless—

- (a) a judge advocate gives leave for it to be made orally, or
- (b) paragraph (8) applies.

(4) A copy of a written application under this rule must be served on each other party to the proceedings

(5) Where a written application has been made under this rule, a judge advocate may—

- (a) grant the application without a hearing; or

- (b) direct a hearing.
- (6) But the application may not be granted without a hearing unless—
 - (a) at least 14 days have elapsed since the application was served on each other party to the proceedings, and
 - (b) no other party has served notice on the court administration officer that he opposes the application.
- (7) Rule 82(8) applies in relation to a hearing of the application as it applies in relation to a hearing of an application for a special measures direction.
- (8) Where the direction was made on the application of a defendant and includes provision for the admission of a video recording which had not been served on the Director, the Director may make an oral application without leave.
- (9) A judge advocate who varies or discharges, or refuses an application for the variation or discharge of, a special measures direction must state in open court his reasons for doing so.
- (10) In this rule, references to the variation of a special measures direction include the further variation of a direction previously varied.

(3) The court may direct any expert or character witness present in court to withdraw if it considers his presence undesirable.

(4) For the purposes of this rule a witness is in court if he is able to see and hear the court through a live link (and for this purpose any impairment of eyesight or hearing is to be disregarded).

88.—(1) At the close of the case for the prosecution a defendant may submit, in respect of any charge, that the Director has failed to establish a case for him to answer.

Closing addresses

91.—(1) This rule applies at the close of the case for all defendants.

(2) If the Director has made an opening address the Director may not make a closing address without leave of the court.

the Director shall inform the court of that fact, of the previous offence by virtue of which the court has that power, and of the sentence passed for that offence.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b) an offence is “relevant” if the act that constituted the offence would have constituted an offence under the law of any part of the United Kingdom if it had been done in that part at the time when the Director presents information to the court under this rule.

(5) Where the offender is not subject to service law but has formerly been so subject, paragraph (2) has effect as if—
