The Armed Forces (Summary Appeal Court) Rules 2009

PART 2

SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

Service on a corporation

9. Where under these Rules any document is to be served on a corporation within the meaning of the Companies Act 2006⁽¹⁾, it may be served—

- (a) by post to—
 - (i) the corporation's principal office in the United Kingdom;
 - (ii) if the corporation has no readily identifiable principal office in the United Kingdom, any place in the United Kingdom where it carries on its activities or business; or
 - (iii) if the corporation has no principal office in the United Kingdom and does not carry on its activities or business in the United Kingdom, its principal office; or
- (b) by DX, fax, electronic mail or other electronic means, where the corporation—
 - (i) has given a DX box number, fax number or electronic mail or other electronic means address; and
 - (ii) has not refused to accept service by that means.
