“PART 2A

CONVERSION TO AN INDUSTRIAL AND PROVIDENT SOCIETY

Becoming an industrial and provident society

6A. Pursuant to section 56 of the 2004 Act^(a), a community interest company may convert itself into a permitted industrial and provident society and section 53 of the 1965 Act and section 62 of the 1969 Northern Ireland Act apply to community interest companies, modified so that they read as follows—

- (a) section 53 of the 1965 Act—

“Conversion of company into registered society

53.—(1) A company registered under the Companies Acts which is a community interest company may, by special resolution, determine to convert itself into a registered society which has a restriction on use of assets in accordance with the provisions of the Community Benefit Societies (Restriction on Use of Assets) Regulations 2006; and for this purpose, in any case where the nominal value of the company’s shares held by any member other than a registered society exceeds the maximum for the time being permitted by section 6(1) of this Act in the case of a member of a registered society the resolution may provide for the conversion of the shares representing that excess into a transferable loan stock bearing such rate of interest as may be fixed, and repayable on such conditions only as are determined by the resolution.

(2) Any such resolution as aforesaid shall be accompanied by a copy of the rules of the society therein referred to and shall appoint three persons, being members of the company, who, together with a director, shall sign the rules and who may either—

- (a) be authorised to accept any alterations made by the Authority therein without further consulting the company; or
- (b) be required to lay any such alterations before the company in general meeting for acceptance as the resolution may direct.

(2A) The following documents shall be sent to the registrar of companies—

- (a) a copy of the resolution;
- (b) a copy of the rules of the society therein referred to; and
- (c) a statement by the Authority that, in its opinion, if those rules take effect, the company will become a registered society which has a restriction on use of assets in accordance with the provisions of the Community Benefit Societies (Restriction on Use of Assets) Regulations 2006, and, on receiving them, the registrar of companies must forward each of the documents to the Regulator.

(2B) The Regulator must decide whether the company is eligible to cease being a community interest company.

(2C) The company is eligible to cease being a community interest company if none of the following applies—

- (a) the Regulator has under section 43 of the 2004 Act appointed an auditor to audit the company’s annual accounts and the audit has not been completed,
- (b) civil proceedings instituted by the Regulator in the name of the company under section 44 of the 2004 Act have not been determined or discontinued,

(a) Section 56 was amended by S.I. 2007/1093, Schedule 4, paragraph 21.

- (c) a director of the company holds office by virtue of an order under section 45 of the 2004 Act,
 - (d) a director of the company is suspended under section 46(3) of the 2004 Act,
 - (e) there is a manager in respect of the property and affairs of the company appointed under section 47 of the 2004 Act,
 - (f) the Official Property Holder holds property as trustee for the company,
 - (g) an order under section 48(2) or (3) of the 2004 Act is in force in relation to the company,
 - (h) a petition has been presented for the company to be wound up.
- (2D) The Regulator must give notice of the decision to the company.
- (2E) The Authority shall register the community interest company as a registered society under this Act if the following conditions are met—
- (a) a copy of the resolution aforesaid and a copy of the rules aforesaid is delivered to the Authority;
 - (b) a copy of the decision of the Regulator that the company is eligible to cease being a community interest company is delivered to the Authority;
 - (c) the company has a restriction on use of assets in accordance with the provisions of the Community Benefit Societies (Restriction on Use of Assets) Regulations 2006.
- (3) The Authority upon the registration of the society under this Act, shall give to it, in addition to an acknowledgement of registration under section 2(3) of this Act, a certificate similarly sealed or signed that the rules of the society referred to in the resolution have been registered.
- (4) A copy of any such resolution as aforesaid together with a copy of the notice of the decision issued by the Regulator and the certificate issued as aforesaid by the Authority shall be sent to the registrar of companies and, upon his registering that resolution and certificate (but not the notice of the decision issued by the Regulator), the conversion shall take effect.
- (5) The name under which any community interest company is registered under this section as a registered society shall not include any of the following words, expressions or abbreviations—
- (a) “company”,
 - (b) “community interest company” or (with or without full stops) the abbreviation “cic”,
 - (c) “cwmni buddiant cymunedol” or (with or without full stops) the abbreviation “cbc”,
 - (d) “community interest public limited company” or (with or without full stops) the abbreviation “community interest plc”, or
 - (e) “cwmni buddiant cymunedol cyhoeddus cyfyngedig” or (with or without full stops) the abbreviation “cwmni buddiant cymunedol ccc”.
- (6) Subject to the next following subsection, upon the conversion of a community interest company into a registered society under this section, the registration of the company under the Companies Acts shall become void and shall be cancelled by the registrar of companies.
- (7) The registration of a community interest company as a registered society shall not affect any right or claim for the time being subsisting against the company or any penalty for the time being incurred by the company; and—
- (a) for the purpose of enforcing any such right, penalty or claim the company may be sued and proceeded against in the same manner as if it had not been registered as a society;

- (b) any such right or claim and the liability to any such penalty shall have priority as against the property of the registered society over all other rights or claims against or liabilities of the society.

(8) In this section—

“the 2004 Act” means the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004;

“the Official Property Holder” has the meaning given in section 29 of the 2004 Act; and

“the Regulator” has the meaning given in section 27 of the 2004 Act.”,

(b) section 62 of the 1969 Northern Ireland Act—

“Conversion of company into registered society

62.—(1) A company registered under the Companies Act 2006 which is a community interest company may, by special resolution, determine to convert itself into a registered society which has a restriction on use of assets in accordance with the provisions of the Community Benefit Societies (Restriction on Use of Assets) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2006; and for this purpose, in any case where the nominal value of the company’s shares held by any member other than a registered society exceeds the maximum for the time being permitted by section 6(1), the resolution may provide for the conversion of the shares representing that excess into a transferable loan stock bearing such rate of interest as may be fixed, and repayable on such conditions only as are determined by the resolution.

(2) Any such resolution as aforesaid shall be accompanied by a copy of the rules of the society therein referred to and shall appoint three persons, being members of the company, who, together with a director, shall sign the rules and who may either—

- (a) be authorised to accept any alterations made by the registrar therein without further consulting the company; or
- (b) be required to lay any such alterations before the company in general meeting for acceptance as the resolution may direct.

(2A) The following documents shall be sent to the registrar of companies—

- (a) a copy of the resolution;
- (b) a copy of the rules of the society therein referred to; and
- (c) a statement by the registrar that, in its opinion, if those rules take effect, the company will become a registered society which has a restriction on use of assets in accordance with the provisions of the Community Benefit Societies (Restriction on Use of Assets) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2006, and, on receiving them, the registrar of companies must forward each of the documents to the Regulator.

(2B) The Regulator must decide whether the company is eligible to cease being a community interest company.

(2C) The company is eligible to cease being a community interest company if none of the following applies—

- (a) the Regulator has under section 43 of the 2004 Act appointed an auditor to audit the company’s annual accounts and the audit has not been completed,
- (b) civil proceedings instituted by the Regulator in the name of the company under section 44 of the 2004 Act have not been determined or discontinued,
- (c) a director of the company holds office by virtue of an order under section 45 of the 2004 Act,
- (d) a director of the company is suspended under section 46(3) of the 2004 Act,

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations exercise powers in the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 (c.27) (the “2004 Act”) and amend the Community Interest Company Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/1788) (the “Principal Regulations”).

These Regulations come into force on 1st October 2009 and extend to the whole of the United Kingdom, reflecting the extent of the Companies Act 2006 (c.46).

Regulation 2 repeals subsections (1) and (2) of section 40 of the 2004 Act with the consequences that a Scottish charity may become a community interest company and subsections (4) to (7) of section 40 come into force (see section 40(3) of the 2004 Act).

Regulation 3 amends regulation 2 of the Principal Regulations (interpretation).

Regulation 4 modifies the definition of what constitutes a section of the community.

Regulation 5 permits certain community interest companies to convert into industrial and provident societies. It applies section 53 of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (c.12) and section 62 of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act (Northern Ireland) 1969 (c.24) with modifications to community interest companies, as provided for in section 56 of the 2004 Act.

Regulation 6 makes amendments consequential on provisions of the Companies Act 2006 coming into force.

Regulations 7 and 8 are savings provisions, permitting community interest companies that are in existence prior to 1st October 2009 to maintain their articles of association in accordance with Schedule 1, 2 or 3 of the Principal Regulations, as applicable, as Schedule 1, 2 or 3 read immediately prior to 1st October 2009.

Regulation 9 adds a provision to paragraph (1) of regulation 12 of the Principal Regulations relating to the Scottish Charity Regulator consequent on section 40 of the 2004 Act having been amended to permit Scottish charities to become community interest companies.

Regulations 10 to 15 make amendments consequential on provisions of the Companies Act 2006 coming into force.

Regulation 16 restores the provisions originally found in regulation 26(1)(c) and (3) of the Principal Regulations but with changes consequential on provisions of the Companies Act 2006 coming into force.

Regulations 17 and 18 make amendments consequential on provisions of the Companies Act 2006 coming into force.

Regulations 18 to 22 make amendments to the provisions prescribed for the articles of a community interest company.

Regulations 19 and 20 extend the definition of “asset locked body” to include industrial and provident societies which have a restriction on the use of their assets in accordance with the Community Benefit Societies (Restriction on Use of Assets) Regulations 2006 (S.I. 2006/264) or the Community Benefit Societies (Restriction on Use of Assets) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2006 (S.R. (NI) 2006 No 258), which means that a community interest company can transfer assets at an undervalue to such industrial and provident societies, in accordance with paragraph 1(2) in each of Schedules 1, 2 and 3 to the Principal Regulations.

Regulation 21 revokes sub-paragraphs (2) to (5) of paragraph 3 in each of Schedules 1, 2 and 3 to the Principal Regulations thus removing the restrictions on giving powers to persons who are not members of the community interest company to appoint and remove directors.

Regulation 22 removes the right of a chairman to have a second or casting vote in the case of an equality of votes at a board meeting and removes the right of an alternate director, in the absence of his appointer, to have a separate vote on behalf of his appointer in addition to his own vote.

Regulation 23 substitutes Schedule 5 to the Principal Regulations to make amendments consequential on provisions of the Companies Act 2006 coming into force.

An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument as it is not anticipated that these changes will lead to any significant costs or burdens.
