EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Section 43 of the Local Government Finance Act 1988 (“the 1988 Act”) provides for mandatory rate relief for certain hereditaments in rural settlements and the Non-Domestic Rating (Public Houses and Petrol Filling Stations) (England) Order 2001 added public houses and petrol filling stations to the hereditaments that are eligible for relief. Section 47 of the 1988 Act provides that a billing authority may grant discretionary relief for hereditaments to which section 43(6A) applies and additionally to any hereditament in a rural settlement which is used for purposes which are of benefit to the local community.

This Order amends the Non-Domestic Rating (Rural Settlements) (England) Order 1997 to prescribe that—

- (a) in respect of a filling station or public house in a rural settlement, £12,500; and
- (b) in respect of any other hereditament in a rural settlement, £8,500;

is the maximum rateable value of a hereditament which can be eligible for such mandatory relief.

This Order also amends the 1997 Order to prescribe £16,500 as the maximum rateable value of a hereditament which can be eligible for discretionary relief under section 47(3A).
