Changes to legislation: The Consumer Credit (Agreements) Regulations 2010 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 11 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2B) The condition referred to in paragraph (2A) is that—
- (a) before the creditor gives the debtor the unexecuted agreement for his signature the creditor gives the debtor a copy of the unexecuted agreement in compliance or purported compliance with regulations 3 and 7 of, and Schedules 1 and 2 to, these Regulations and
 - (b) the copy of the unexecuted agreement contains a heading and notice as set out in regulation 4(a)(ii) and (b)(ii) respectively of the Consumer Credit (Cancellation Notices and Copies of Documents) Regulations 1983.]
- (3) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—
- “the Act” means the Consumer Credit Act 1974;
- “advance payment” includes any deposit and in relation to a regulated consumer credit agreement includes also any part-exchange allowance in respect of any goods agreed in antecedent negotiations to be taken by the creditor in part-exchange but does not include a repayment of credit or any insurance premium or any amount entering into the total charge for credit;
- “the APR” means the annual percentage rate of charge for credit determined in accordance with Schedule 4 and the [F⁴total charge for credit rules];
- “cash price” in relation to any goods, services, land or other things means the price or charge at which the goods, services, land or other things may be purchased by, or supplied to, the debtor for cash;
- “contract of shortfall insurance” means anything in writing which contains or purports to contain some promise or assurance (however worded or presented) that if a sum payable under a contract of insurance against loss of or damage to goods is less than the amount necessary to defray—
- (a) any amount of credit provided to finance the purchase of those goods, and
 - (b) any other amount included in the total charge for that credit,
- to the extent that these remain unpaid at the date of the loss or damage, a sum up to but not exceeding that shortfall will be paid;
- “credit intermediary” has the same meaning as in [F⁵section 61A] of the Act;
- “distance contract” means any regulated agreement made under an organised distance sales or service provision scheme run by or on behalf of the creditor who, in any such case, for the purpose of the agreement makes exclusive use of one or more means of distance communication up to and including the time at which the agreement is made. For this purpose, “means of distance communication” means any means which, without the simultaneous physical presence of the creditor or a person acting on behalf of the creditor, and of the debtor, may be used for the making of a regulated agreement between the parties to that agreement;
- “earlier agreement” means an earlier consumer credit agreement for the provision of credit;
- “exempted agreement” means an agreement of the description specified in the Schedule to the Consumer Credit (Notices of Cancellation Rights) (Exemptions) Regulations 1983 ^{M3} in relation to which there are no charges forming part of the total charge for credit;
- “the Information Regulations 2010” means the Consumer Credit (Disclosure of Information) Regulations 2010 ^{M4};
- “lettering” includes figures and symbols;
- “modified agreement” means an earlier agreement as varied or supplemented by a modifying agreement, which is treated as—
- (a) revoking the earlier agreement, and
 - (b) containing provisions reproducing the combined effect of the two agreements;

Changes to legislation: The Consumer Credit (Agreements) Regulations 2010 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 11 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

“pawn agreement” means a regulated consumer credit agreement under which the creditor takes an article in pawn;

“pre-contract credit information” means the information required to be disclosed by regulation 3(4) of the Information Regulations 2010;

“total amount of credit” means the credit limit or the total sums made available under a consumer credit agreement;

“total amount payable” means the sum of the total charge for credit and the total amount of credit payable under the consumer credit agreement as well as any advance payment;

“total charge for credit” means the total charge for credit determined in accordance with Schedule 4 and the ^{F1}total charge for credit rules];

^{F6}“the total charge for credit rules” means rules made by the Financial Conduct Authority under article 60M of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001 for the purposes of Chapter 14A of Part 2 of that Order;]

(4) References in these Regulations to a contract of insurance shall be read with—

- (a) section 22 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ^{M5},
- (b) any relevant order under that section, and
- (c) Schedule 2 to that Act.

(5) In these Regulations—

- (a) a reference to a repayment is a reference to—
 - (i) a repayment of the whole or any part of the credit,
 - (ii) a payment of the whole or any part of the total charge for credit, or
 - (iii) a combination of such repayments and payments.
- (b) a reference to rate of interest is a reference to the interest rate expressed as a fixed or variable percentage applied on an annual basis to the amount of credit drawn down.

Agreements to which these regulations apply

2.—(1) These Regulations apply in respect of a regulated consumer credit agreement except as provided for in [^{F8}paragraphs (1A) to (5)].

[^{F9}(1A) These Regulations apply to an agreement to which section 58 of the Act applies where—

- (a) before the creditor gives the debtor the unexecuted agreement for his signature the creditor gives the debtor a copy of the unexecuted agreement in compliance or purported compliance with regulations 3 and 7 of, and Schedules 1 and 2 to, these Regulations, and
- (b) the copy of the unexecuted agreement contains a heading and notice as set out in regulation 4(a)(ii) and (b)(ii) respectively of the Consumer Credit (Cancellation Notices and Copies of Documents) Regulations 1983.]

(2) These Regulations do not apply to an agreement mentioned in paragraph (3) unless pre-contract credit information has been disclosed in compliance (or in purported compliance) with the Information Regulations 2010.

(3) The agreements referred to in paragraph (2) are—

- (a) an agreement secured on land [^{F10}other than an agreement to which section 58 applies];
- (b) an agreement under which the creditor provides the debtor with credit which exceeds £60,260 [^{F11}other than a residential renovation agreement];
- (c) an agreement entered into by the debtor wholly or predominantly for the purposes of a business carried on, or intended to be carried on, by him.

(4) Paragraph (2) and regulations 3 to 4 and 6 to 7 do not apply to an authorised non-business overdraft agreement or an authorised business overdraft agreement.

(5) Regulation 5 does not apply to a regulated consumer credit agreement which is also a distance contract unless the agreement is entered into by the debtor wholly or predominantly for the purposes of a business carried on, or intended to be carried on, by him.

[^{F12}(6) Article 60C(5) and (6) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001 applies for the purposes of paragraphs (3)(c) and (5).]

Form and content of regulated consumer credit agreements

3.—(1) Documents embodying a regulated consumer credit agreement shall contain the information set out in column 2 of Schedule 1 to these Regulations in so far as that information relates to the type of agreement referred to in column 1.

(2) The information specified in Schedule 1 shall be presented in a clear and concise manner.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation, the requirement for the information to be “clear” includes a requirement that the wording, apart from any signature, is to be easily legible and of a colour which is readily distinguishable from the background medium upon which the information is displayed.

(4) Documents embodying a regulated consumer credit agreement, other than an exempted agreement, shall contain statements of the protection and remedies available to debtors under the Act, in the Form numbered in column 1 of Schedule 2 to these Regulations and set out in column 3, in so far as those statements relate to the type of agreement referred to in column 2.

(5) Documents embodying a regulated consumer credit agreement shall contain details of any security provided in relation to the regulated agreement by the debtor.

(6) Paragraph (7) applies to documents embodying a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement falling within section 12(a) of the Act or a debtor-creditor agreement (in this paragraph and paragraph (7) referred to as “the principal agreement”) and also embodying, or containing the option of, a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement falling within section 12(b) of the Act (in this paragraph referred to as “the subsidiary agreement”) where the subsidiary agreement is to finance a premium under one or more of—

(a) a contract of insurance to provide a sum payable in the event of the death of a debtor or a debtor suffering one or more of the following—

- (i) accident;
- (ii) sickness;
- (iii) unemployment,

at any time before the credit under the principal agreement and the subsidiary agreement has been repaid, where

- (i) the sum payable does not exceed the amount sufficient to defray the sums payable to the creditor in respect of that credit and of the total charge for credit, and
- (ii) the policy monies payable under the contract of insurance are to be used for a repayment under the principal agreement and the subsidiary agreement;

(b) a contract of shortfall insurance;

(c) a contract of insurance in so far as it relates to the guarantee of goods.

(7) Documents to which this regulation applies may contain instead of the headings specified in paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 to these Regulations and any applicable statements of protection and remedies available to debtors under the Act that would otherwise apply—

(a) a heading in so far as it relates to the principal agreement, and

(b) if applicable, statements of the protection and remedies available to debtors under the Act in so far as they relate to the principal agreement.

Status: Point in time view as at 21/03/2016.

Changes to legislation: The Consumer Credit (Agreements) Regulations 2010 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 11 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Signing of agreement

4.—(1) The information specified in paragraphs 5, 6, 7, 11 and 14 of Schedule 1 to these Regulations in relation to the type of regulated consumer credit agreement referred to in column 1 shall be “the prescribed terms” for the purposes of section 61(1)(a) of the Act (the terms which must be contained in a document if a regulated consumer credit agreement is not to be improperly executed).

(2) The document containing the prescribed terms of the regulated consumer credit agreement referred to in paragraph (1) shall contain a space indicated for the purpose of the debtor's signature.

(3) The signature of the document shall be made in the following manner—

- (a) by the debtor, or by or on behalf of the debtor in the case of a partnership or an unincorporated body of persons, in the space in the document indicated for the purpose and, subject to sub-paragraph (c), the date of the signature shall be inserted in the space in the document indicated for the purpose,
- (b) by the creditor, or by a person on behalf of the creditor, and subject to sub-paragraph (c), the date of the signature shall be inserted in the document,
- (c) except where the agreement is cancellable, the date on which the unexecuted agreement becomes an executed agreement may be inserted in the document and in such a case any other date specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) need not be inserted, and
- (d) nothing in this regulation shall prohibit the inclusion in the said document, near to any such signature, of the signature by any witness.

(4) In Scotland any provision in paragraph (3) requiring the said document to be signed shall be complied with by a body corporate if the document is properly executed in accordance with the law of Scotland.

(5) Where an agreement is intended to be concluded by the use of electronic communication nothing in this regulation shall prohibit the inclusion in the document of information about the process or means of providing, communicating or verifying the signature to be made by the debtor.

Modifying agreements

5.—(1) These Regulations shall apply to a modifying agreement which varies or supplements an earlier agreement and which is, or is treated under section 82(3) of the Act as, a regulated agreement.

(2) Where an item of information required by regulation 3(1) or 8(1) is unchanged by the modifying agreement, the requirements of regulation 3(1) or 8(1) may be satisfied in relation to such item of information by a statement in the modifying agreement clearly indicating that the information in the earlier agreement remains unchanged.

(3) ^[F13]Except as provided for in paragraph (3A)] a statement referred to in paragraph (2) shall be contained in the document which is signed by the debtor.

^F14 Where a modifying agreement is an authorised business overdraft agreement or an authorised non-business overdraft agreement the document referred to in paragraph (3) does not have to be signed by the debtor.]

(4) The information referred to in regulation 4(1) as prescribed terms for the purposes of section 61(1)(a) of the Act shall not be prescribed for the purposes of a modifying agreement if the information contained in the earlier agreement has not been varied or supplemented by the modifying agreement.

(5) For the purposes of Schedule 1 to these Regulations, in calculating—

- (a) the amount of repayments of credit or of any capital outstanding under an earlier agreement,

- (b) the total charge for credit (or any items included in it) in relation to the credit to be provided under the modified agreement, or
- (c) the APR in relation to the modified agreement, the relevant date shall be determined by reference to the date of the modifying agreement.

Pawn agreements

6. Where a pawn-receipt is given under section 114(1) of the Act by a person who takes any article in pawn under a regulated consumer credit agreement (or a modifying agreement varying or supplementing an earlier credit agreement which is, or is treated under section 82(3) of the Act as, a regulated consumer credit agreement) and where the pawn-receipt is not separate from any document embodying such an agreement, it shall contain—

- (a) the information set out in paragraphs 1, 2 and 22 of Schedule 1 to these Regulations, and
- (b) a notice in the form contained in Schedule 3 to these Regulations.

Statutory Forms

7.—(1) The wording of any Form specified in Schedules 2 and 3 to these Regulations shall be reproduced in documents embodying regulated consumer credit agreements where applicable without any alteration, except that—

- (a) the words “the creditor” may be replaced by the name of the creditor, by the expression by which the creditor is referred to in the agreement or by an appropriate pronoun, and any consequential changes to pronouns and verbs or other consequential grammatical changes may be made,
- (b) the word “DEBTOR” may be replaced by “BORROWER ” or “CUSTOMER ” and the word “Debtor(s)” may be replaced by “Borrower(s) ” or “Customer(s) ”, and
- (c) every Form shall be completed in accordance with any note.

(2) Any such note shall not be treated as part of any Form specified in the said Schedules and may be reproduced in addition to any such Form.

(3) Where any such note requires any words to be omitted, those words shall be omitted or deleted.

(4) Where words are shown in capital letters in any Form specified in Schedule 2 or 3 to these Regulations, and are reproduced in documents embodying regulated consumer credit agreements, they shall be afforded more prominence (whether by capital letters, underlining, larger or bold print or otherwise) than any other lettering in that Form except lettering inserted in accordance with paragraph 1(c) and no less prominence than that given to any other information in the document apart from the heading to the document, trade names, names of parties to the agreement or lettering in the document inserted in handwriting.

Form and content of an authorised overdraft agreement

8.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), in the case of an authorised non-business overdraft agreement or an authorised business overdraft agreement, the following information shall be specified in writing in a clear and concise manner—

- (a) the type of credit,
- (b) the identities and geographical addresses of the creditor, debtor and, where relevant, of any credit intermediary involved,
- (c) the duration of the agreement,
- (d) the credit limit and the conditions governing its drawdown,
- (e) the rate of interest charged, any conditions applicable to that rate, any reference rate on which that rate is based and any information on changes to the rate of interest (including the periods that the rate applies, and any conditions or procedure applicable to changing the rate),
- (f) where different rates of interest are charged in different circumstances the creditor must provide the information in paragraph (e) in respect of each rate,
- (g) the total charge for credit, calculated at the time the agreement is made, mentioning all the assumptions used in order to calculate it,
- (h) an indication that the debtor may be requested to repay the amount of credit in full on demand at any time, and
- (i) the charges payable by the debtor under the agreement (and the conditions under which those charges may be varied).

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the requirement for the information to be “clear” includes a requirement that the wording is easily legible and of a colour which is readily distinguishable from the background medium upon which the information is displayed.

(3) Paragraph (1)(g) shall not apply—

- (a) in the case of an authorised business overdraft agreement, or
- (b) in the case of an authorised non-business overdraft agreement that is also an agreement secured on land.

Regulations 3(4) and 7

FORMS OF STATEMENT OF PROTECTION AND REMEDIES
AVAILABLE UNDER THE CONSUMER CREDIT ACT 1974 TO DEBTORS UNDER REGULATED CONSUMER CREDIT AGREEMENTS

FORM (1)	TYPE OF AGREEMENT (2)	FORM OF STATEMENT (3)
1.	Agreement to which section 58(1) of the Act applies.	YOUR RIGHTS

Status: Point in time view as at 21/03/2016.

Changes to legislation: The Consumer Credit (Agreements) Regulations 2010 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 11 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Under the Consumer Credit Act 1974, you should have been given a copy of this agreement at least seven days ago so you could consider whether you wanted to go ahead. If the creditor did not give you a copy of this agreement he can only enforce it with a court order.

2. All agreements which are secured on land.

YOUR HOME MAY BE REPOSSESSED. Your home may be repossessed if you do not keep up repayments on a mortgage or other debt secured on it.
3. Cancellable agreements to which section 68(b) of the Act applies.

YOUR RIGHT TO CANCEL
You can cancel this agreement within FOURTEEN days (starting the day after you signed it) by giving WRITTEN notice to*.
If you intend to cancel you should not use any goods you have under the agreement and you should keep them safe. You can wait for them to be collected and you do not need to hand them over until you receive a written request for them.
*Creditor or agent to insert the name and address of the person to whom the notice may be given or an indication of the person to whom a notice may be given with clear reference to the place in the document embodying the agreement where his name and address appear.
4. Cancellable agreements not included in paragraphs 3 or 5.

YOUR RIGHT TO CANCEL
Once you have signed this agreement you will have a short time in which you can cancel [it]* [that part of this agreement which is regulated by the Consumer Credit Act 1974]*. The creditor will send you exact details of how and when you can do this.
*Creditor to omit passage in square brackets which does not apply to the agreement.
5. Modifying agreement treated under section 82(5) of the Act as cancellable arrangements.

YOUR RIGHT TO CANCEL
This agreement modifies an earlier agreement. Once you have signed this agreement your right to cancel [that part of]* the earlier agreement [which was regulated by the Consumer Credit Act 1974]* will be widened to cover the [regulated]* agreement as modified. The cancellation period itself will be

*Creditor to omit passages in square brackets except in the case of an agreement of which at least one part is credit agreement not regulated by the Act.
6. Pawn agreements to which section 114 of the Act applies. IMPORTANT – READ THIS CAREFULLY TO FIND OUT ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS
The Consumer Credit Act 1974 (“the Act”) lays down certain requirements for your protection which should have been complied with when this agreement was made. If they were not, the creditor cannot enforce this agreement without getting a court order.
The Act also gives you a number of rights. In particular, you should read the NOTICE TO DEBTOR [in this agreement]* [in your pawn-receipt]
If you would like to know more about your rights under the Act, contact Consumer Direct, your local Trading Standards Department or your nearest Citizens' Advice Bureau.
*Phrase in square brackets to be included by creditor in agreements where any document embodying the agreement is not separate from the pawn-receipt. Creditor to omit “in your pawn-receipt”.
Phrase in square brackets to be included by creditor in agreements where a separate pawn-receipt is given to the debtor. Creditor to omit “in this agreement”.
7. Conditional sale agreements secured on land. TERMINATION: YOUR RIGHTS
Until the title to the land has passed to you, you have a right to end this agreement. To do so write to the person you make your payments to. They will then be entitled to the return of the land and to [half the total amount payable under this agreement, that is]* £x.  If, at the time you end this agreement, you have already paid at least this amount plus any overdue instalments and you have taken reasonable care of the land, you will not have to pay any more.
*Creditor to insert the passage in square brackets where the amount calculated in accordance with the provisions of section 100 of the Act applies. If the agreement provides for a sum below

SCHEDULE 3

Regulation 6

NOTICE TO BE CONTAINED IN DOCUMENTS EMBODYING A COMBINED CONSUMER CREDIT AGREEMENT AND PAWN-RECEIPT

NOTICE TO DEBTOR

IMPORTANT – YOU SHOULD READ THIS CAREFULLY

Right to Redeem Articles

If you hand in this agreement (which is also your pawn receipt) and pay the amount you owe, you may redeem the article(s) in pawn at any time within 6 months of the date of this agreement or any longer time agreed with the creditor (“the redemption period”).

IF YOU DO NOT REDEEM THE ARTICLE(S) ON OR BEFORE⁽¹⁾ YOU MAY LOSE YOUR RIGHT TO REDEEM IT (THEM).

Loss of Receipt

If you lose your receipt you may provide either a statutory declaration or, if the credit (or credit limit) is not more than £x⁽²⁾ and the creditor agrees, a signed statement instead. The creditor may provide the form to be used and may charge for doing so.

Unredeemed Articles

An article not redeemed within the redemption period becomes the creditor's property if the credit (or credit limit) is not more than £x ⁽³⁾ and the redemption period is 6 months. In any other case it may be sold by the creditor, but it continues to be redeemable until it is sold. Interest is payable until the actual date of redemption. Where the credit (or credit limit) is more than £x ⁽⁴⁾ the creditor must give you 14 days notice of his intention to sell. When an article has been sold you will receive information about the sale. If the proceeds (less expenses) are more than the amount that would have been payable to redeem the article on the date of the sale you will be entitled to receive the extra amount. If the proceeds are less than the amount you will owe the creditor the shortfall.

Your goods will not be insured by the creditor while they are in pawn.⁽⁵⁾

⁽²⁾ Creditor to insert the amount specified in section 118(1)(b) of the Act.

⁽³⁾ Creditor to insert the amount specified in section 120(1)(a) of the Act.

⁽⁴⁾ Creditor to insert the amount specified in the Consumer Credit (Realisation of Pawn) Regulations 1983 (S.I. 1983/1568).

⁽⁵⁾ Creditor to omit this paragraph if inapplicable.

SCHEDULE 4

Regulation 1(2)

PROVISIONS RELATING TO CALCULATION AND DISCLOSURE OF THE TOTAL CHARGE FOR CREDIT AND APR

1. Assumptions about running-account credit

- (a) In the case of an agreement for running-account credit, the assumption in paragraph (b) below shall have effect for the purpose of calculating the total charge for credit and any APR in place of the assumption in [F22the total charge for credit rules] that might otherwise apply.
- (b) In a case where credit is to be provided subject to a maximum credit limit of less than £1,200, the credit limit shall be assumed to be an amount equal to that maximum limit.

Status: Point in time view as at 21/03/2016.

Changes to legislation: The Consumer Credit (Agreements) Regulations 2010 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 11 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

2. Permissible tolerances in disclosure of an APR

For the purposes of these Regulations, it shall be sufficient compliance with the requirement to show an APR if there is included in the consumer credit agreement—

- (a) a rate which exceeds the APR by not more than one, or
- (b) a rate which falls short of the APR by not more than 0.1, or
- (c) in a case to which either of paragraphs 3 or 4 of this Schedule applies, a rate determined in accordance with those paragraphs or whichever of them applies to that case.

3. Tolerance where repayments are nearly equal

In the case of an agreement under which all repayments of credit but one are equal and that one repayment does not differ from any other repayment by more whole pence than there are repayments of credit, there may be included in a consumer credit agreement a rate found under [^{F23}the total charge for credit rules] as if that one repayment were equal to the other repayments to be made under the agreement.

- (a) In the case of a consumer credit agreement under which—
- (i) three or more repayments are to be made at equal intervals, and
 - (ii) the interval between the relevant date and the first repayment is greater than the interval between the repayments,
- there may be included in the agreement a rate found under [F23 the total charge for credit rules] as if the interval between the relevant date and the first repayment were shortened so as to be equal to the interval between repayments.
- (b) In this paragraph “relevant date” means—
- (i) in a case where a date is specified in or determinable under the consumer credit agreement at the date of its making as that on which the debtor is entitled to require provision of anything the subject of the agreement, the earliest such date, and
 - (ii) in any other case, the date of the making of the agreement.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations implement article 10 of Directive 2008/48/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on credit agreements for consumers (OJ No. L133, 22.5.2008, p.66) (“the Directive”) and impose requirements about what information has to be included in a regulated consumer credit agreement.

Regulation 2 sets out the scope of application of the Regulations. It provides that the Regulations may apply to agreements outside the scope of the Directive but which are regulated under the Consumer Credit Act 1974. In addition they apply to agreements secured on land, agreements under which the creditor provides the debtor with credit exceeding £60,260 or agreements entered into by the debtor wholly or predominantly for the purpose of his business, where the creditor in relation to such agreements has disclosed or purported to disclose the pre-contract credit information in accordance with the Consumer Credit (Disclosure of Information) Regulations 2010 (2010/1013).

Regulation 3 sets out the requirements relating to the form and content of documents embodying a regulated consumer credit agreement referred to in Schedule 1.

Regulation 4 sets out the requirements relating to the signing of the agreement.

Regulation 5 makes provision for the application of the Regulations to modifying agreements.

This regulation does not apply to modifying agreements which are distance contracts except in limited circumstances.

Regulation 6 makes provision for information requirements in certain pawn agreements.

Regulation 7 sets out the provisions relating to statutory Forms specified in Schedules 2 and 3.

Regulation 8 sets out the provisions relating to the form and content of authorised overdraft agreements.
